down from the frying pan.

A peculiar but simple principle of electricity was used. An electromag-net, as is generally known, is a horseshoe shaped bar of iron, with coils of wire wound round each arm of the

When a current of electricity is sent through the coils of wire the horseshoe becomes a magnet and will attract and firmly grip any bit of iron placed near the ends of the arms or poles. This applies to a direct current of electricity. If, however, an alternating current of electricity is sent through the coils any iron near the magnet poles is heated by what are called "eddy

In the egg frying trick the magnet was placed under the table, and an alternating current was sent through

Advice to a Husband.

button. Some men's wives' waists have no buttons on to button. Some men's wives' waists which have buttons on to button don't care a button

whether they are buttoned or not

Some men don't have any wives with buttons on to button.-Ladies' Home

Not Like Real Life.

"Although the plot may thicken, the heroine always remains beautifully

Revolutionary.

"Miss De Bunk insists that she is a

"Her dad is a grindstone maker."- the coils.-Saturday Evening Post.

currents."

Journal.

"Why?"

"Why so?"

Indianapolis Star.

"I like novels"

thin "- Washington Herald.

daughter of the revolution."

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE WEEK TO BE BUSY

FROM BEAVER CREEK

R. R. NO. 3, OREGON CITY, Aug. 2. 1913.—(Editor, The Enterprise)—I have just been shown a copy of your paper of August 1, 1913, containing an article headed "Equity Society Hits the Recall," and I wish to state most emphatically that the article is inac-

I am not, as your article states, secretary of Beaver Creek local, nor do I hold any other office in this local although I have been a member since Its organization.

Beaver Creek Local did go on record as not favoring Mr. Schuebel, as purchasing agent for Clackamas county, and expressed themselves in favor of not purchasing supplies through him. for reasons of our own, which do not concern the public outside the society. fact, Beaver Creek Local, has never the recall question. Our members are opposed, and always have been, to introducing political party questions into the society.

My position in regard to the recall movement is the same today that it was on the day that the mass meeting committee, consisting of Mr. Schuebel, Mr. Brown and Mr. Casto, made their report, nothwithstanding your state ment that I have "heretofore been high in the councils of the recallers; so you can take this from me as being "significant."

I want to repeat that the action of Beaver Creek Local in regard to Mr. Schuebel has nothing whatever to torney-general. do, directly or indirectly with the re-

Respectfully yours, W. GRISENTHWAITE.

EXECUTIVE PROHIBITS SUNDAY PERFORMING

(Continued from page 1)

"To sum up the whole situation, we honestly believe that not only are we legally justified in our position, but that we are morally as well, and that the great majority of the citizens of this city are in sympathy with us. We have a clean, moral legitimate, educational, and historical exhibitions at two and at eight p. m. Sunday.

Sheriff Mass Saturday afternoon was enjoined from interfering with the performance of the Oklahoma Ranch Wild West show, which is scheduled to exhibit near Oregon City Sunday. The restraining order was granted by Circuit Judge Eakin, of Astoria upon a showing made by J. E. Hedges, attorney for the show people. M. Hedges filed a complaint, charging that the sheriff threatened the right of his clients to show on Sunday, and alleges that the exhibit is moral in character and that it is not unlawful. the principal events having been shown on the Orpheum circuit. The action of the circuit court will probably result in the show being given without interference.

WILD WEST SHOW TO APPEAR HERE

Today will be the Oklahoma Ranch Wild West day in Oregon City. event will be signalized by what is described as the most novel and picturesque organization ever gathered together by any manager of an outdoor amusement enterprise. Hundreds of interesting characters will be seen. There will be cowboys from some of the most famous Western ranches, with champions of the Pendieton Round-up, the Calgary Stampede and other great Wild West

There will be over fifty cowgirls, every one of them a daring rider of wild horses from childhood. There will be scores of Indians, in all the panoply of war-bonnets, gay blankets and beaded ornamentation, accompanied by their squaws and pappooses. There will be reckless riders from Cossack Land, bull-fighters and lariat-throw-ers from Mexico, and more other strange and curious people than have ever before, it is declared, been seen in a single exhibition. With all this there will be what is said to be an un-usually notable exhibition of fine horses in the gorgeous tableaux section, which serves to illustrate in a series of living pictures scenes and incidents in the stirring days of the pioneers. Four bands of music will be heard and the oldest genuine stage coach in existence will be given by one of the most famous of the old-time overland mail drivers.

The exhibition is expected to prove one of the most interesting and complete Wild West exhibitions ever seen. A performance of infinite variety is promised. Col. Zack Mulhall, the famous Oklahoma rancher and founder of the town of Mulhall, and his equally famous daughters, Lucille and Georgie will give a series of remarkable ex-hibitions with the lariat, and illustrate in an exciting way the ranch method of controlling wild horses. A big band of cowboys and cowgirls will give a genuine round-up with Texas steers, and incidentally contribute a few exhibitating experiments in brancho busting. There will be bor-der dramas in which the Indians will the general strenuousness of the big show. Performances begin at 2:15 That your're not puffed up with your and 8:15.

OVERCOME PERSPIRATION ODORS

Nice clothes only help one in attaining that air of refinement so much desired by the fastidious woman or man. More important far is the impression your very presense gives of bodily purity. To attain that, the surface of the body must be pure-must not only be free from all uncleanliness.

but from every bodily odor, such, for example, as that of perspiration. We have in Rexall Nice a conventent preparation especially designed to meet this requirement. Its use makes for perfect personal cleanli-ness, and for relief from embarassing odors from perspiration and other causes. Rexall Nice imparts an exquisite, subtle odor that gives pleasure to both the user and those with whom she comes in contact. If it does not please you, we will gladly give your money back. Price, 25 cents, Sold in this community only at our store. The Rexall store. Huntley Bros. Co.

The classified ad columns of The Enterprise satisfy your wants.

IN VARIOUS LINES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 2.—The trial of the so-called Diggs-Caminetti white slave case, the postponement of which resulted in the resignation of that influence had been brought to bear upon Attorney-General McReynolds to delay the trial, is scheduled to pose to her. The American method of C. Van Fleet in the United States district court at San Francisco. Beginning at midnight and continuing through the week, the Long Isgion will be the scene of the most ex- ties. tensive joint naval and army defense The recall movement did not enter into the matter and was never mention, ed in connection with the questio. If York and New England districts will engage in a series of maneuvers for the purpose of working out important problems of coast defense. The highest officers of the army and navy will witness the exercises.

Following a rather tame campaign, the Democrats of Virginia will engage in a primary Tuesday for the purpose of selecting candidates for governor and other states officers to be voted for in November. H. C. Stuart, of Russell county, is the only candidate for the gubernational nomination, and for himself, but was too proud even several other candidates on the ticket to indicate the fact in any formal or will be named without opposition. The principal contests are for the nominations for lieutenant governor and at-

Several thousand eminent leaders of medical science from all parts of the world will assemble in London the middle of the week for the seventeenth meeting of the International Congress of Medicine. Another notable gathering of world-wide character will be the International Geological congress, which is to begin its ses-

YOUTH IS SAVED BY STEPBROTHER

Glen Dallas, the 12-year old son of George Dallas, who lives near Baker's through much the same course. A drowning in the Clackamas Thursday, and was only rescued by the bravery of his little step-brother, Charles Rankin. 13 years old, who plunged into the swift current after him.

river bank when Glen slipped on a denly darken like a moving picture moss-covered rock and fell into the stream. He was unable to swim, and as rapidly carried down the river. He had sunk beneath the surface for the second time, when Charles, noticing his predicament, plunged into the current after him, and grasping him by the hair, dragged him to shore. There, though both boys were exhausted, Charles applied first aid treatment to his step-brother, and succeeded in reviving him sufficiently so that both could get to the house of a nearby neighbor, where the lads were signs of a coming declaration she given such attention as they needed.

The Home Discussion of Advertising

Now that most persons understand and appreciate the many advantages of being informed of what goes on in the community in which they live, as well as throughout the world in general, advertising, especially newspaper advertising, is being discussed in

A great many more men than any of us would guess take a live ly and helpful interest in all of those purchases for the home once left almost entirely to the women or servants.

And likewise many wives, daughters and sons discuss in the family circle everything purchas-ed by every member of the family, even unto the clothes worn by his Royal Highness the Head of the

Taking the newspaper home and "getting the best out of it" is an occupation that is growing in poular favor as never before. To many, in fact, the most interesting part of the news is the news of advertising.

Certainly it is among the most

If I Owned an Automobile

(By S. Runvon) I know if I owned an automobile,

Somehow or other I would always feel If I met a man a-going my way And I had some room, I'd stop and

"Get right in here and take a ride; I like a good fellow to be at my side."

Who are going your way, surely don't The friendly spirit we all should bear,

But shows that your're selfish and do not care. So get out of that way and try my

Take in a passenger whenever you be picturesquely utilized ,and Mexicans and Cossacks will contribute to I'm sure 'twill help you, and they will Portland, July 26, 1913.

-(Oregon Journal) VACATIONISTS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tooze and daugh ter, Miss Hazel, returned Saturday from a trip to Cloud Cap Inn. They also visited Mrs. John Cooper, formerly Miss Hilda Tooze, of this city, at Parkdale. She accompanied them on their trip. The party had great fun snowballing and learning the art of walking on skees. REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Clackamas Abstract & Trust Co. to Edwin L. Moore, part of John Klinger and wife D. L. C.; $1. Estacada Lodge No. 175, I. O. O. F. to John Hunt, lot 1, block 7, Lone Oak cemetery; $25. William Underwood and wife to W H. Miller and Paul Klaetseh, lot 4, block 37, First addition to Estacada;

The classified as columns of The Enterprise satisfy your wants.

A Reversal Of Position

By LOUISE B. CUMMINGS

There may be many ways by which United States District Attorney Mc a girl with a fortune may propose to Nab of San Francisco, and his charges the man she wants for a husband, he being poor and not in a position to proegin Tuesday before Judge William | marriage is that the husband supports the wife. But few such expedients have been published. This is probably because the matter is a delicate one, land Sound and Narragansett Bay re- concerning only the contracting par-

George Parkinson was looking for some signal from Leticia Scarborough. He was a sensitive fellow and would make no advances himself whatever. Miss Scarborough had a number of suitors, who, whether or no they possessed the wherewithal to warrant their asking her to marry them, were not backward in indicating their intention. George seldom went to see her without stumbling on a fresh arrival of flowers sent by some fellow as a preliminary to an offer of his hand. They made him bite his lip, for he very much wanted the young lady informal way. He held that if a woman with a future wanted a man without one for a husband she will find a way to let him know that a proposal from him will be accepted.

He had been on friendly terms with her-to apply no stronger word-for some months without her giving him the signal. During this time other stars had appeared in the matrimonial heavens, but had disappeared like those comets which, having once circled around the sun, go forth never to return. Out of the withered flowers they left George gathered hope. In one way at least his position was preferable to theirs-they had placed a gulf between themselves and the lady by proposing to her. George had done nothing of the kind. So long as he was not a rejected suitor he was free to continue his attentions ad libitum. He noticed that they all went bridge, had a narrow escape from man would meet Miss Scarborough at some function; would ask permission to call; would do so several times. Then an invitation to theater, concert or opera would follow; more calls; Both boys were playing along the flowers. Then the scene would sudscreen when the films have run out. The lady would remain; the man would take himself out of her world altogether.

George did not accuse Miss Scarborough of encouraging these men. He knew that she wished simply to be friendly with them, to avail herself of their attentions, for which, by the bye, she always gave some kind of return, and when she saw the usual strove to prevent it. What reason had he to suppose, if he could bring himself, as he expressed it, to ask her to share her fortune with him, that he, too, would not cease to revolve about the central sun and go out into space? It is a common thing for women to men to a declaration by son artifice, but there are few cases of a man scheming for a proposition from a woman. Indeed, such a condition is an anomaly. George determined to do that very thing. He did not pout at something she had said to him; he did not look languishingly at her nor drop his eyes before her gaze. He told her that he was going to a far country to take up a new abode, never to return.

This was worse-far worse-than the subterfuges women resort to, because they usually mix up a quantum of truth in their statements, and in any event custom excuses them for saying one thing and meaning another. But George deliberately lied.

He was somewhat encouraged when he made the announcement of his intended departure to her to see her wince. But he remembered that no one likes to give up a friend, and such disinclination is no proof that a woman will marry a man to keep him from going to a foreign country. She asked the date of his departure, and George, who was a trifle impatient, said that it was fixed for one week from that day. "You will surely come to see me be fore you go?" she asked. "Certainly. But I shall be very busy for a few days before I depart. I will call to say farewell next Wednesday afternoon. On the appointed day he called and was ushered into the library, where he found the lady sitting at a desk writing a letter. On his entrance she left the desk to welcome him. After chatting with him for awhile she left the room, saying she had a little parting gift for him which she would bring back with her. George, after her with-This way of passing the men you drawal, went to the desk for a pencil in order to write an address. Catching a glimpse of his name, he seemed unable to prevent a rapid glance at the note. It was to the writer's most intimate friend, saying: Today is my parting with George Par kinson. Would that I were the man and the woman that I might propose to

There wasn't much of it, but there was nothing indefinite in it. George would not have have accepted a dec laration of love without a proposal of marriage. Such would be an insult from a man to a woman, and why not from a woman-with a fortune-to a-

When the young lady returned he told her that he was broken hearted at leaving her and that if she would marry him he would not go.

EGGS FRIED ON ICE.

By the Use of a Peculiar but Simple Principle of Electricity.

Frying eggs on ice is entirely feasible, as was demonstrated at a recent electrical exhibition given by the University of Illinois. The eggs were placed in an ordinary frying pan, and the frying pan was placed on a pile of cracked ice on a kitchen table. Eggs were fried nicely, though it took longer than when a stove is used. No wires were in sight. The frying pan had no electrical connections and could be taken up and replaced at will. Under the table was the secret, an divulged, the trick was wonderful LINED WITH GOLD. enough, for between the frying pan and the magnet was a pile of ice and Alaska's Enormous Deposits Will Last the board table top, neither of which a Thousand Years. was affected excepting by the heat sent

Like a tale out of the "Arabian Nights" is the opinion given recently by an expert on the future of Alaskan gold mining, only this expert bases his opinion on facts, whereas the oriental story teller specialized in fancy.

But the testimony given by Falcom Joslin is doubly interesting because it exceeds the imagination of the wildest fancy while being based on the facts in the case

"In my judgment," says Mr. Joslin. the placer mining industry in Alaska will last a thousand years, the area suitable for placer mining is so enormous. What we are working there now is only the gravels that will carry from $3 to $10 a yard. You cannot work gravels that carry less than that, but once we have transportation there and can work gravels such as they do in California, which carry 7 cents a yard, we have got so nearly an unlimited area of it that no man can foresee the end of that industry in Alaska.

"One great thing is that nearly the whole area of Alaska is gold bearing. There are placers and quartz. It has been said, and I believe the statistics and explorations of the geological survey show it, that you could go from the extreme southeast of Alaska at Ketchikan, where there are important mines, along this route by way of Hains clear out to Nome, a distance of 2,000 miles in a straight line, and that in every twenty mile section along that route you could develop gold mines. It is infinitely greater than any other area of gold country that has ever been found in the world."-Engineering and Mining Journal.

"Nothing is lost here but the squeal," declared the pork packer. "Are you as economical in conducting your busi-

Don't kick because you have to button your wife's waist. Be glad your wife has a waist and doubly glad you have a wife to button a waist for. Some men's wives have no waists to Strict Economy.

ness?"

"More so," answered the visitor, "I'm in the lumber business. We don't waste even the bark."-Philadelphia Ledger.

when you begin craving rough, high-proof, strong, whiskey-----when flavor, delicacy and age no longer appeal to you---cut out drinking.

> Cyrus Noble is pure, old and palatable-Bottled at drinking strength. Costs no more than any other good whiskey.

W. J. Van Schuyver & Co., General Agents Portland, Oregon

Shines In Society

Women With Fascinating Hair Always Attract Attention If you are a woman with dull, lifeless, ordinary hair, do not feel distressed. Just make up your mind now that you can have just as luxuriant and captivating a head of hair as any other woman; and quickly too.

Just go to Huntley Bros. Co. this very day and get a bottle of Parisian Sage. Use it as directed, and in two weeks your scalp will be free of dandruff, your hair will be soft, lustrous and beautiful.

If your hair is falling out, Parisian Sage will stop it. If your hair is thin, Parisian Sage nection.

will make it grow in heavily If you have dandruff it will quickly vanish when Parisian Sage is used. It prevents hair from turning gray; stops itching scalp almost instantly and is the ideal dressing for daily

A large bottle costs only 50 cents at druggists everywhere and Huntley Bros. Co.; Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo

N. Y., are the American makers. MUNTLEY BROS., Druggists

Hill activity on the east side of the river in Portland, and the acquirement of large terminal properties, has led to the belief that the system was soon to start a further development in this region; and the visit of Mr. Yerxa is taken as a hopeful sign in this con-

I. C. S. An Ethical Power

Now, gentlement, just for a moment, I would speak to you, not as educationalist, but as a preacher of manhood and a lover of his kind. The question of the use of alchohol by the student when studying, has carried me back to the thought. The International Correspondence Schools are not simply educational, they are ethical; they not only make foremen and craftsmen and draftsmen, but they make MEN-in capital letters. For you can never awaken any one to his commercial possibilities without stirring up all other possibilities—social, patriotic, philanthropic, intellectual, moral. The moment you succeed breaking up one area of inertia you set vibration moving every part of the being and all kinds of dormant and stagnant powers are set into healthy motion. When a man's mind gets engrossed with an intellectual occupation and he finds that he has a grip upon the laws and forces of the universe, the saloon, the vulgar and degrading all seem to be unworthy of him and his self-respect clothes him in a protective armor which helps to keep his entire manhood inviolate. A great American preacher used to speak much about "the expulsive power of a new affection," and, having as your life work the duty of both supplying and developing this "new affection"—the love of the best, by which the unworthy and base will be expelled, perhaps unconsciously but surely, from many and many a man. Success to you in your work!

The Trained Man Never Worries

When the chiefs put their heads together to hire or "fire,"-the trained man doesn't worry. He knows that there is always a place for

You can look your job and every man in the face if you possess the training so much in demand everywhere today. The International Correspondence Schools will go to you in your spare time, whereever you live, and will train you to become an expert in your chosen line of work. Such a training will forever take you off the "anxious" seat. It costs you nothing to find how the I. C. S. can help you. Mark the coupen opposite the occupation for which you have a natural liking, mail the coupon today, and the I. C. S. will send you facts showing how you can earn more money in the occupation of your own choice.

INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS

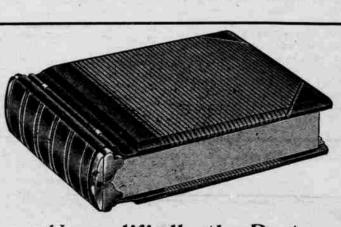

H. H. HARR IS, Local Mgr. 505 McKay Building, Portland, Oregon.

Explain without, further obligations on my part, how I can qualify for the position before which I mark X.

Salesmanship Electrical Engineer Electric Lighting Supt. Telephone Expert Architect Building Contractor Architectural Draftsman Structural Engineer Concrete Construction. Mechanical Engineer Mechanical Draftsman Civil Engineer Mine Superintendent Stationary Engineer Plumbing and Steam Fitting Gas Engines

Civil Service Bookkeeping Stenography and Typewriting Window Trimming Show Card Writing Letter and Sign Painting Advertising Commercial Illustrating Industrial Designing Commercial Law Automobile Running English Branches Poultry Farming Teacher Spanish Agriculture French

	6.520000
Name
Present Occupation
Street and No
City State

Unqualifiedly the Best

=LEDGER=

The De Luxe Steel Back

New improved CURVED HINGE allows the covers to drop back on the desk without throwing the leaves into a curved position.

Sizes 8 1-4 to 20 inches

OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE

Headquarters for

Loose Leaf Systems