For the benefit of the large number of shoppers using The Morning Enterprise as a medium in which to find exceptional purchasing opportunities, this paper offers the following inducement to its readers and friends to carefully read the advertisements of the progressive stores on this page.

A grand prize of $50.00 in cash will be given to the individual or any form of organization or institution turning in the greatest amount of money shown on the cash checks or receipts and monthly bills secured at any of the stores on this page.

To the candidate securing the next largest amount, $15.00 in cash.

To the third, $10.00 in cash.

EXPLANATION.

To secure votes in The Morning Enterprise's Refund Bargain Contest make your purchases at the stores advertising on this page, and call for a sales check for every purchase made.

Turn these checks into The Enterprise's office, where votes will be given for the amount shown on each check. Five votes will be given for each five cents shown on the cash check, receipt of monthly bill. This vote is to be deposited in the voting box at this office. Sales checks must represent cash purchases. All cash checks and monthly bills must be turned into this office within ten days of the purchase date.

Every contestant entering the contest is entitled to one nominating coupon good for 1000 votes. The only exception to contestants entering the Bargain Contest are employees of this office or the stores advertising on this page.

MULINO.

Tom Fish and family left for Eastern Oregon last week where they expect to engage in farming on a more extensive scale than they could here. Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Clarence Mallatt and family and Otis Dix returned yesterday from a trip to the coast. Fred Wallace, Henry Fischer and Albert Erickson spent last week in the mountains hunting and fishing. Mr. Park Wallace has been on the sick list for a week. Dr. Strickland is attending him. Frank Manning's little daughter is reported to have typhoid fever. Dr. Mount was called out there Saturday. Bert Wallace is hauling lumber to build a barn on his place. Mullino continues to improve. Arthur Mallatt has moved into the house vacated by Tom Fish. There was a lawn social held in the grove near the church Thursday evening. An enjoyable time was reported. A special school meeting was held here Monday evening to elect a director to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of T. Fish. R. H. Snodgrass was elected.

Charley Daniels is helping Lewis Churchill saw up his oak wood, preparatory to hauling it to Oregon City. This community was greatly shocked Monday afternoon to hear that George Ogle of Canby was drowned in the Mo'alla at Wright's bridge. We do not know the particulars of the drowning, but it seems he was either swimming or wading and dropped off into a deep hole and sank and never came up again. Search was made for the body by a large crowd of old neighbors and friends but was not recovered until about 8 P. M. A professional diver was sent for from Portland but did not get there until the body had been found, not ten feet from where it sank. His family have the deepest sympathy of the whole community.

MEADOWBROOK.

Haying is about over with now. The farmers will soon be cutting their grain. The Davis Bros. finished hauling logs on A. L. Larkins' place last week. Mr. Milton Chindgren returned from Hot Springs Saturday, reporting that his sister, Miss Mabel is improving. P. O. Schiewe is giving his house a new coat of paint.

Miss Alice Holman is enjoying a two weeks' stay in the mountains. Miss Martha Tolens returned to Colton after spending a week with Mrs. Milton Chindgren. Ma and Mrs. A. L. Larkins, daughters Ruth and Alma, spent Sunday at O. F. Johnson's of Union Mills. R. L. Oref and son, Robert, are building a house for Mrs. Bird Lamb, near Colton. Phi and Gillia Nordling spent Sunday afternoon with Glenn and Allen Larkins.

MARQUAM.

One more early settler gone, Mr. George Birtchet, who lived near here, died Saturday, August 2, and was buried Sunday in the Miller cemetery. Rev. Mr. Spencer, of Silverton conducted the funeral services. A large crowd attended the funeral. He was the father of Charley Birtchet, an enterprising hop raiser of this place. C. K. Quinn, of Oregon City, was in town shaking hands with his old friends last week. Quite a lot of grain is already cut and thrashing will soon commence. Clover hulling will commence soon. Mrs. Jewell Night is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Marquam. Mr. Will, who owns the Parven place has old it for $125.00 per acre. The Barth Brothers are commencing thrashing this week.

WILSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Young and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Norris Young are spending a week at the coast. Mrs. Nuerer and daughter and son arrived on Saturday from the east, to visit with Mrs. Nuerer's daughter, Mrs. Wm. Baker, for a time. Ray and Roy Baker went to Portland on Sunday to visit their brother, Clyde and incidentally have a family portrait taken. Mrs. Chas. Wagner was hostess at her ranch home, near Wilsonville, on Thursday, to the parent-teachers' association, of which she is the much esteemed president. Mrs. Badwin, of Salem, has been visiting Mrs. W. W. Graham for a week. Mrs. Draper and daughter, Louise, who have been visiting Mrs. Draper's brothers, Norman and Harry Say, left for California, on Thursday. Don't forget the basket social on Friday evening, the 8th of August, at the German Reform church, at Frog Pond. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Crissell was buried in the Butteville cemetery on Saturday, having died of whooping cough. Mr. and Mrs. McKinney and children and Mr. and Mrs. Wall, left for Oswego on Monday where Mr. McKinney and Mr. Wall will go into the grocery business in partnership. These friends will be greatly missed in our little village and the good wishes of the community will be theirs in their new venture.

STAFFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Aden returned to the store last week, much refreshed after their outing at the coast. The ice cream social, given by the Mothers' Club at Corral Creek school on Saturday evening, was well attended and was a very enjoyable time for all present. The school grove was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns, games were played, and the ice cream was Portland's best. The sum of twenty dollars was taken in during the evening, which will be used for school improvements. Harvest is on in full blast, and the binders are heard on every hand. Mr. Nussbaum is hauling wood to Willamette for Mrs. Gebhardt. Otto, Peters and a force of men are working on the new hop house, getting it ready for the two yards, which promise a big yield. Buyers have been visiting the different hop men trying to contract hops. Harry Gebhardt started to dig a well Saturday, thinking he could dig a few feet down alone. In about four feet he came to rock and Monday drilled through it to put in dynamite, when water bubbled up, but he put it in anyway, and when the smoke cleared away found he had tapped a good flow of water. Mrs. Keckel, Mrs. Ida Delkar's mother who was in the neighborhood visiting a couple of days a short time ago, was taken suddenly ill at her home in Portland last week and taken to the hospital for an operation, but on account of a weak heart, had not been operated upon on Monday, and her husband met with an accident Tuesday and was taken to the hospital with a broken shoulder and arm. The daughter had not heard the particulars yet. Mrs. Powell is to have her oats, which are late and still green, cut and baled for hay. It is reported that one of the girls got a ducking. A party of young people had a picnic at the dam Sunday, nine girls and as many boys. There is some doubt about whether Kay had any authority to arrest Ed Pomperine and take his keg of beer away from him and subject him to mortification, inconvenience and expense, as it appears he was not found drinking or selling it, but had merely left it in cold storage until called for, and was no more evidence found of any intent to break a law than if the keg had been filled with molasses. Homer Nussbaum, we hear, got his left hand into a feed cutter in his father's barn on Tuesday afternoon, and broke one finger and a bone in his hand and cut it severely in several places, necessitating several stitches. Dr. Mount said he made the run from his office in 15 minutes. Dr. Mount put Mrs. Nemeck's broken leg into a plaster cast on Monday.

What Every Womanly Woman Wants

One of the fondest desires of millions of women is to have beautiful hair. This desire can be gratified without the slightest risk, for druggists everywhere, and Huntley Bros. Co., sell a hair tonic called Parisian Sage for 50 cents, that will turn dull lifeless, unattractive hair into lustrous and attractive hair in two weeks, or money back. Put the name on your shopping list right now, and be sure and get the genuine. Every package has the girl with the Auburn hair upon it. Since its introduction in America, Parisian Sage has won unstinted praise from women of refinement who have learned what a delightful and refreshing hair tonic and dressing Parisian Sage is. Just because the makers are absolutely certain that Parisian Sage is the only preparation that kills the pernicious dandruff microbes, they are willing to guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.
