Richard Darling, who won much popularity here three years ago when he played a six-months engagement with the Van-Darling stock company at the Electric theatre, will open a high class dramatic season at the Star theatre Wednesday, August 13. The Van-Darling company is the only organization that ever made a success of stock productions in this city; and Manager Long, of the Star, guarantees that the coming offerings will be fully up to the former standard.

The members of the company that will support Mr. Darling are all people of merit in their profession, and nothing but the best of offerings will be presented. Special scenery will be used in each offering. Among those in the coming organization are Jack Burroughs, Ethel Marcher, Jennie Dale, Jack Borroy Robert Haslort and Temple Errick.

The first offering will be "The Man of Mystery," and this will be followed by "The Third Degree," "The Lion and The Meuse," "Are You a Mason" and other standard productions.

SEQUEL TO LORIMER CASE

CHICAGO., Ill., Aug. 11 .- An echo f the Lorimer bribery case was heard today, when Daniel Donahoe, Isaac Stiefel and Aileen Heppner were arraigned before Judge Brentano for trial on a charge of conspiracy to defame the character of Clarence S. Mr. Funk, who at the time was general manager of the International Harvester company, was a principal witness in the investigation that resulted in the expulsion of William Lorimer from the United States senate on charges that his election had been accomplished by fraud. When the investigation was at its height the husband of the Heppner woman brought suit againt Funk for alleged alienation of his wif's affections. Mr. Funk claimed that he had never seen the woman that the charge was trumped up to influence public sentiment in the Lorimer case. When the with Commissioner Blair some three alienation suit came to trial it fell hem were daring, soon after the blaze flat. ### THE DECLARATION.

Upon the whole, this the Declaration of Independence) is the most commanding and the most pathetic utterance in any age, in any language of national grievances and of national purposes, having a Demosthenic momentum of thought and a fervor of emotional appeal such as Tyrtaeus might have put into his war songs. Indeed, the Declaration of Independence is a kind of war song. It is a stately and a passionate chant of human free dom. It is a prose lyric of civil and military heroism. We may be altogether sure that no genuine development of literary taste among the American people in any-period of our future history can result in serious misfortune to this particular specimen of American literature .-Moses Colt Tyler.

kind. The question of the use of alchohol by the student when studying, has carried me back to the thought. The International Correspond ence Schools are not simply educational, they are ethical; they not only make foremen and craftsmen and draftsmen, but they make MEN—in capital letters. For you can never awaken any one to his commercial possibilities without stirring up all other possibilities-social, patriotic, philanthropic, intellectual, moral. The moment you succeed breaking up one area of inertia you set vibration moving through every part of the being and all kinds of dormant and stagnant powers are set into healthy motion. When a man's mind gets engrossed with an intellectual occupation and he finds that he has a grip upon the laws and forces of the universe, the saloon, the vulgar and degrading anow, the curb-stone loafing, and the hours of inane and ribald waste all seem to be unworthy of him and his self-respect clothes him in a protective armor which helps to keep his entire manhood inviolate. A great American preacher used to speak much about "the expulsive power of a new affection," and, having as your life work the duty of both supplying and developing this "new affection"—the love of the best, by which the unworthy and base will be expelled, perhaps unconsciously but surely, from many and many a man. Success to you in your work!

The Trained Man Never Worries trained man doesn't worry. He knows that there is always a place for training so much in demand everywhere today. The International Correspondence Schools will go to you in your spare time, whereever you live, and will train you to become an expert in your chosen line of work. Such a training will forever take you off the "anxious" seat. It costs you nothing to find how the L.C. S. can help you. Mark the coupen opposite the occupation for which you have a natural liking, mail the coupon today, and the I. C. S. will send you facts showing how you can earn more money in the occupation of your own choice.

WEATHER HOLDING MARKET TONE HIGH

Green vegetables and salad stuff is we'l up on the list of market quotations, primarily owing to the demand caused by summer weather. Celery is not being offered at less than 75 cents per dozen bunches, and many growers are asking more. Tomatoes are ranging from four to six-bits a box wholesale, and are readily taken at these figures.

Eggs and butter are also holding high, and there is no apparent drop in sight.

Hops are also on the high list, there being no particular inclination on the part of growers to accept contracts at even 20 cents, which is being offered Hop men feel that a 25 cent market will be reached this year, and are ho'ding off for it. It is generally felt, however that when once signing up starts, there will be a sharp break in
