10,000 Yards of Loom Ends at 4 1/4c Yard

THESE LOOM ENDS ARE BETTER THAN ANY WE HAVE HAD HERETOFORE IN LENGTH AND QUALITY.

Loom Ends means goods wanting in lengths, slight discoloration or a coarse thread in some fabrics. They are identical in style and designs with the full piece goods. None of these slight flaws matter to the customer, but they prevent the mills or factory from selling goods at a profitable price. Our buyers are bargain hunters. They search the best mills of the country for bargains in immense lots. Some of the swellest modes are bought in this way. Buying sample lots at reduced prices from the mill and selling low is our specialty and shrewd buyers can do well at this store.

RECALLERS ABANDON CHARGES FIRST MADE

county court. At several recent meetings the lie has been passed direct to recall leaders by members of the county court, and in no case has any reply that was at all adequate been made.

Of the original charges nothing is now heard, and for the past week new charges have been daily put forth, to be as quickly answered. The original charges, all of which have either been discovered or satisfactorily answered, now form no part of the agitation; and in their place has arisen merely a storm of spiteful abuse. The natural conclusion of the major part of the public, has been, therefore, that the original charges have been utterly abandoned. Tactics of the recallers seem to show that this conclusion is correct.

SALOONS TO CLOSE TWO DAYS; RECALL

Oregon City will have a long drought of 54 hours because of the recall election on Saturday. Under the state law and the provisions of the Home Rule ordinance of 1911, the saloons will close their doors at 11 o'clock Friday night and no "boozers" will be sold in the city until the opening hour at 5 o'clock Monday morning. Chief of Police Ed Shaw has notified the saloon-keepers of the city that their doors must be closed for more than two days. As the recall election falls on Saturday, the election and Sunday closing laws will prevent all sale of liquor in the city until the following Monday. In order to tide them over the unusually long drought, the people of Oregon City will have to lay in a larger supply before the law goes into effect on Friday night.

JANETTE JAGGAR SEEKS DIVORCE

One of the most sensational divorce cases ever filed in Clackamas county has been entered at the county clerk's office by attorneys Farrington & Farrington and C. M. White, of Portland, in behalf of Mrs. Janette Jaggar, who asks freedom from Frank Jaggar, and who also petitions the court for $1,200 attorney's fees, $100 per month for the care of her minor children, and $6,000 alimony.

The complaint sets forth that she married Jaggar March 31, 1885, and that seven children have been born of the union, of whom there are now living Louis, aged 28, Cora, aged 25; Clyde, aged 17; Florence, aged 13; and Reed, aged 10.

Mrs. Jaggar charges that her husband has treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner and has forced upon her personal indignities.

She asserts further that her husband is the owner of a farm of 320 acres worth at least $30,000, and that he has other property to be value of $100,000; all of which wealth, save the sum of $2,500, he has accumulated since her marriage with the defendant.

Mr. Jaggar has engaged Brownell & Stone and J. E. Hedges to defend him in the suit, and will enter a general denial of all charges.

DEALERS UNLOAD FOREIGN FRUIT

With peaches coming in from all of the local points, the California fruit is rapidly being driven out of the markets and the native product is being freely quoted at the commission houses. Within the next 10 days, the Crawford season will be in full swing through all of the Pacific Northwest. The Dalles has begun to forward its crop of the year with indications that the quality will be better and the supply larger than before.

Wholesalers are making a determined effort to unload their supplies of California Elbertas on the appearance of the local crop in the market. Pears are also appearing from local points with a rather firm quotation in the markets. Chickens are in demand but the supply has kept the pressure even and the price has a firm tone with little indication of fluctuation. The apple demand is strong and trade was brisk Wednesday.

Several local points have reported a better tomato crop this year than usual with a high quality of stock.

When the question of selecting a successor to Charles S. Meilen as president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford arose the attention of alert railroad men everywhere was directed at Howard Elliott, the president of the Northern Pacific. As president of the Northern Pacific Mr. Elliott has been drawing a salary of $75,000 a year. Some months ago he was offered $100,000 a year to become the head of the Missouri Pacific, but he refused, and it was understood at the time that he had hopes of effecting a connection with an eastern railroad.
