

VOTERS CHANGE COUNTY CHIEFS

laughter and comment when known friends of the former county court entered to cast their ballots. The polls closed at eight in the evening, and counting the ballots started immediately. By ten o'clock there was little doubt as to the outcome, and when the returns from Maple Lane, Oak Grove, New Era, Highland and other strongholds of the recall came in it was seen that the lead Judge Beattie had in other sections would not suffice to save the day.

At midnight Judge Beattie issued the following statement:

"I concede my defeat, and cheerfully bow to the will of the people as expressed at the polls. I believe that my defeat lies solely in the fact that such a small percentage of the voters went to the polls to cast their ballots. However, the majority is to rule, and I will do nothing to contest the result. I simply wish to say that I thank those who supported me for their expression of confidence, and for their going to the polls to express their sentiments in the matter."

A peculiar feature of the election is that the newly elected commissioner is at present under indictment by the grand jury for selling intoxicating liquor on Sunday.

The Clackamas recall is the first in the state. A recall was attempted in Klamath county some time ago, but resulted in the retention in office of the county official against whom charges were made by a vote of three to one. A recall has been attempted in Hood River county, but owing to alleged imperfections in the law has been referred to the legislature.

The returns by precincts, as far as received, are as follows:

Table with columns for Precinct, Anderson, Beattie, Blair, Smith. Rows list various precincts like Colton, Viola, Abernethy, Marquam, Molalla, West Side, Maple Lane, Sunnyside, Oak Grove, Willamette, Oswego, Sandy, Gladstone, Mill Creek, Harding, Canemah, Wilhoit, Beaver Creek, Trualatin, Estacada, Canby, Eagle Creek, Damascus, Needy, Killin, Barlow, Highland, Clackamas, Springwater, New Era, Bull Run, Macksburg, Pleasant Hill, Harmony, Milwaukie, Oregon City, Precinct 2, Precinct 3, Precinct 4, and Totals.

Anderson defeats Beattie in 39 out of the 44 precincts in the county by 331 votes; Smith defeats Blair by 461 votes. Anderson ran 6 votes stronger than Smith, Beattie ran 139 votes stronger than Blair.

Grouping all counts together, the recall carried by 795 votes in the 39 precincts upon which these returns are based.

AGED WOMAN DIES IN HUSBAND'S ARMS

Sitting in her chair at home talking to her husband, Mrs. Catharine Wood suddenly darted up, fell into his arms, and died there before a physician could be summoned or the neighbors notified, Friday night.

As soon as word could be received in Oregon City from Damascus, Dr. M. C. Strickland and Coronor Wilson went to the home Saturday morning. The physician decided that death was due to natural causes and that she had been subject to heart trouble for some time.

Mrs. Wood was the wife of Dalin D. Wood and was about 70 years of age and had lived in Oregon a large part of that time. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon.

OLDEST CHURCH BECOMES MODERN

fathers have officiated at its services in the years that it has stood on the outskirts of the early settlement. Of this number, there are now living Rev. P. Gibney at Villa Maria, Right Rev. James Raw, at Beaverton, and Rev. A. Hillebrand, the present pastor, who, since July 4, can look back upon a pastorate of 25 years and a church that has grown rapidly and steadily ever since he took charge of its affairs.

Unique in many other ways, this church has in its membership representatives from seven of the world's nations and includes on its rolls those from the English speaking countries, Germany, France, Poland, Slavonia, Lithuania, and Bohemia.

"The church is now in a splendid condition, spiritually," said Father Hillebrand, "as is proven by the faithful and constant attendance of the membership at the Sunday services and the excellent standing of McLaughlin Institute, erected in 1907, where there are now about 240 pupils, nearly 40 of whom are from non-Catholic homes."

During the present year, another enlargement of the church has been made by moving the tower and sides of the structure still further out in order to maintain the original shape of the cross that was designed by the pioneers. The church was designated cathedral when the first Archbishop P. X. Blanchet gave it the name and took to himself the title of Archbishop of Oregon City, a rank that was afterwards approved by the authorities at Rome.

At 10:30 o'clock Sunday, a parade of the children of the school will be formed and the members of the Catholic Knights will also take a prominent part in the services. Archbishop Alexander Christie will officiate while Bishop Lawler will deliver the dedicatory sermon. Bishop Lawler is an old schoolmate of Father Hillebrand and both were ordained as priests on the same day in the American college at Louvain. The choir, under the direction of B. T. McBain, the leader, and Miss Lou Draper as organist, has arranged a special musical service for the occasion.

Sonderclass Trial Races MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Aug. 16.—Elimination trial races for the German-American sonderclass competition began off Marblehead today. It is expected the trials will occupy three days. There are nine boats entered and of these the three making the best showing will be named to meet the three German boats in the international contests next month.

Bennington Battle Anniversary MONTPELIER, Vt., Aug. 16.—Today was the 136th anniversary of the battle of Bennington, and in accordance with custom the day was observed as a legal holiday throughout Vermont. The battle of Bennington was one of the most important of the revolution and is generally recognized by historians as the turning point of the war. It made the victory at Saratoga possible, which in turn encouraged France to recognize the independence of the American colonies.

PRACTICAL ARTS EXHIBIT LARGE

In all parts of Clackamas county, the children of the public schools are preparing for the exhibitions of their work that will be held in nine of the districts. In each of these places the work of judging and assembling the exhibition has been left in the hands of a superintendent especially appointed and the children have begun to take an unusual amount of interest this year.

County Superintendent Gary has received reports that show him the fairs this year will be larger and better than ever before and that the districts will have a great many more samples of the school work than they have had in other years. The divisions of domestic science and art, manual training, agriculture, and gardening will be particularly well represented and premiums have been offered for the best examples of the work of the school districts.

In all, there will be nine of these county shows. The first will open at Oswego on next Saturday. The others will be held as follows: Estacada, Sept. 6, H. M. James, superintendent; Wilsonville, Sept. 18, Mrs. M. C. Young; Molalla, Sept. 19, 20, Editor Taylor; Logan, Sept. 20, Maphala A. Gill; Sandy, Oct. 3, 4, Asa Thomas; Canby, C. F. Romis, Sept. 24, 27; Milwaukie, Mrs. Maggie A. Johnson, date not fixed; Oregon City, Mrs. E. W. Scott, date not fixed.

Among the many features of these fairs will be the Shearer contest at Estacada where 20 children of the schools will enter a contest for the best chickens produced from the settings of eggs furnished sometime ago. The completion of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern will be celebrated at Molalla and the fair and school exhibits will be held there at the same time.

The people of Lakeview have just voted to erect a new school building in that district and to employ Miss May Dickerson as the teacher. A determined effort will be made to make this the best year the school in that district has had.

PAYS FOR BEATING HIS FATHER-IN-LAW

It cost Harper Klock ten dollars to beat up his father-in-law, M. C. Kimley, and when he paid the fine to Justice Stevers Saturday he said it was worth it. Klock was arrested some days ago by Constable J. Frost upon complaint of Kimley, and in a hearing on the case in justice court it appeared that the father-in-law's suggestions as to what his son-in-law should do had not been pleasantly received. Harper Klock admitted that "he made a pass or two at the old man," but said he hadn't hurt him, as he had run away. Kimley, on the other hand, denied that he had run away. "I saw the young fellow wanted to fight," he told the court, "and I knew of a good level spot about fifty feet behind where we were standing, and I backed off to that place. If he wanted to fight I was going to give him a good fight. I was just trying to get to this level place, and not running away."

"Yes you were," interjected Klock. And when the court assessed the fine he seemed glad to pay it.

FRIENDS ATTEND FUNERAL OF PROMINENT PIONEER In the presence of a large number of friends from all parts of Clackamas county, the funeral of R. M. Cooper, for 17 years a resident of the county, was held at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. The Grand Army of the Republic of which he had been an active and prominent member for a number of years took part in the services which were conducted by Rev. Milliken, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment was made at Mountain View cemetery.

Mr. Cooper had been postmaster at Carus for 13 years and was well known throughout the county. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. "THIS IS MY 26TH BIRTHDAY" Congratulations to: Cardinal Rampolla, 70 years old today. Julia Marlowe, the celebrated actress, 43 years old today. Caroline Bartlett Crane, a pioneer advocate of woman's rights, 55 years old today. Congressman Robert F. Broussard, of the Third Louisiana district, 49 years old today. Congressman Benjamin G. Humphreys, of the third Mississippi district, 48 years old today. Congressman Richmond P. Hobson, who aspires to the seat of the late Senator Johnston of Alabama, 43 years old today.

DEMURRER IS FILED J. E. Hedges, attorney for the defense, filed a formal demurrer Saturday in the Jaggar case alleging that the plaintiff, Janene Jaggar, had not stated facts enough to constitute a cause of action, against Frank Jaggar. The complaint charges cruelty and inhuman treatment. The date for the hearing on the demurrer has not been fixed.

Itching Scalp Easy to Get Rid of by Using Parisian Sage, the Guaranteed Hair Invigorator. Just as long as you have dandruff your head will itch. It's the little microbes that are gnawing down into the hair roots. It may take a long time for these persistent pests to get down to the vital part, but when they do, they will destroy the life of the hair in a very short time. If you want to stop itching scalp and drive away dandruff, you must first kill the dandruff germs or microbes. Parisian Sage will do this. Just get a 50c bottle today; relief will come immediately, and if at the end of two weeks your itching scalp and dandruff have not disappeared, you can have your money back. Parisian Sage is also a delightful hair tonic, and is used by refined women who desire fascinating, lustrous and luxuriant hair. A large bottle only costs 50 cents at Huntley Bros. Co. and drugists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every boy's list. HUNTLEY BROS., Druggists

BUSY WEEK AHEAD FOR UNCLE SAM

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 16.—The Mexican situation and the proceedings of congress relative to tariff and currency legislation will continue to claim a large share of public attention during the week. Brig. Gen. Edgar Z. Steever, who has been handling the border situation along the Rio Grande, will be placed on the retired list Wednesday on account of age. On the same day another prominent officer of the army, Brig. Gen. Marion P. Maus, will retire upon his own application under the 40-year service clause.

Lord Haldane, Lord Chancellor of England, will sail for New York, Saturday. After a few days in New York he will proceed to Montreal to deliver the annual address at the convention of the American Bar association.

Important conventions of the week will include the annual meeting of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, at Butte, the annual convention of American Life Insurance companies, at St. Paul, and the annual meeting of the National Negro Business League, at Philadelphia. Events of the week abroad will include the celebration of the 83rd birthday anniversary of Emperor Francis Joseph, the meeting of the International Peace Congress at The Hague, the sixth International Fisheries congress, which will meet at Rockingham, N. H., the annual Pronty carnival and celebration at Chocoma, Wyo., and the opening of the Canadian National Exposition in Toronto.

CARDINAL RAMPOLLA'S 70TH BIRTHDAY ROME, Aug. 16.— Cardinal Rampolla, who, of all the members of the Sacred College is probably the closest friend and warmest supporter of Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Ireland and other leaders of the liberal element of the Roman Catholic church in America, is receiving congratulations in anticipation of his seventieth birthday, which comes tomorrow.

For many years Cardinal Rampolla has wielded immense influence in Vatican circles, though this influence is not now so great as formerly, owing to the ascendancy of the reactionaries. He was the papal secretary of state under Leo XIII, and under that pontificate he was perhaps the most influential and powerful force in the Catholic hierarchy. But for his extreme liberalism, which was offensive to the conservative members of the college of cardinals, it is believed that he would have been selected to succeed Leo XIII in the pontificate.

Cardinal Rampolla is quite as famous for his learning as for his ability as a diplomat and statesman. He is the author of the best works extant upon the traditions of the Greek church, and upon the infallibility of the pope, and some ears ago he published a notable volume on the historical accuracy of the story of the Maccabees.

EMPEROR OF SORROWS TO HAVE BIRTHDAY MONDAY VIENNA, Aug. 16.—Francis Joseph, Emperor of Austria and king of Hungary, will be eighty-three years old Monday, and all parts of the empire are preparing for the customary celebration of the anniversary. The venerable emperor is reported in good health, though the feebleness natural to one of his years has of late become quite perceptible. He is passing the summer, as usual, at his beloved Ischl, where he still occasionally shoulders his rifle and tramps over the hills in search of game.

Of all the figures in contemporary history, that of Francis Joseph is at once one of the most magnificent and the most pathetic. With a long and eventful life behind him, a life overcast by disasters that would have unseated a feeble ruler, and saddened by sorrows that would have broken down a weaker man, the emperor in the evening of his days still bears the burden of the dual crown unbowed.

The close personal attention with which he has followed the course of events in the Balkans the past year and the promptness and vigor with which he has acted when such action seemed necessary have amazed even those who are best acquainted with the marvelous energy and mental qualities possessed by the aged ruler.
