

BANDITS WORK IN CITY LIMITS

scene, deputy sheriffs came pouring over to East Portland, and Special Agents Ed Wood and Dad Hunter, of the Harriman police, took charge of the man-hunt that began. After an investigation the train went on its way, and he and police and other officers started "combing" the gulch for the bandits.

Detectives Hyde and Vaughan, of the Portland bureau, standing behind one of the buttresses of the Twelfth street bridge, heard somebody rustling in the bushes, and proceeded to empty both their revolvers in the direction of the noise. After doing this they investigated, but found nothing but torn-up earth and the spent lead. By midnight the various searching parties concluded that the bandits had made their way to the city, and the search was transferred to the North End saloons.

This is the third hold-up in Sullivan's gulch in the last three years. Both of the others have been successful, and the men concerned were never caught. Though passing through the heart of the residence district, the gulch is filled with brush, and affords many excellent chances of escape to other parts of the city.

The police of Oregon City were on the lookout for a 1911 model Packard, numbered 1895, in which the robbers of the Soc-Spokeans Limited are thought to have escaped from Portland after holding up that train in the heart of the city shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday.

Tom Word, sheriff of Multnomah county, notified the officers here that two men had escaped in an automobile after the robbery and that one of them had black hair somewhat streaked with gray. No better description was given to the officers here but they watched the streets of the city for a car that would give them a clue identity of the robbers.

THAW ARRESTED IN DOMINION

COATICOOK, Que., Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw is under arrest here. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Dupey this afternoon as a fugitive from justice and was remanded to Sherbrooke jail. He will appear before Justice Mulvena, extradition commissioner, probably tomorrow.

In charge of officers, Thaw left here shortly after 2 o'clock for the Sherbrooke jail. He said he would resist any attempt to take him to the New York state boundary line.

The final disposition of the prisoner, however, rests with the Dominion government.

Thaw was arrested this morning at Hermenegilde-Garford, a village here. He drove into town at 2 o'clock this morning, having engaged a farmer to bring him from Hereford, where he left a Maine Central train last night. He admitted his identity, and complacently declared that he could not be extradited, as he had committed no crime.

Northwestern Hotel Men at Duluth

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 19.—Nearly three hundred proprietors of hotels in Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas, many of whom are accompanied by their ladies, have arrived here to attend the three days' session of the Northwestern Hotel Men's association, which opened here today. After the convention those in attendance will take boat trips on the great lakes, some going to Buffalo, some to Chicago.

To be Host to Twenty Thousand.

VERSAILLES, Ky., Aug. 19.—Every man, woman and child on Johnson N. Camden's four-thousand-acre estate in Woodford county, not far from here, is busy today with the preparations for tomorrow, when the millionaire owner of the estate expects to be host to an army of probably twenty thousand and Kentucky farmers and their wives. The invitation was extended to all farmers and farmers wives of Kentucky, but it is believed that not more than twenty thousand will accept Mr. Camden's hospitality. To feed the visitors there will be plenty of burros and barbecued beef, mutton and chickens together with the trimmings as customary among Southern farmers. The gathering will also have a practical object. Agricultural conditions and suggestions for the betterment of the farms will be discussed by several noted authorities on farming who have consented to deliver informal addresses.

Mrs. J. J. Tobin, of the Electric hotel, returned with her family Tuesday from an outing at Newport.

KENTUCKY ELKS HOLD REUNION

COVINGTON, Ky., Aug. 19.—This city is again decorated in honor of the thousands of Kentucky Elks and their ladies who are gathered here for their annual state reunion. An interesting program has been arranged for the three days of the reunion and there will be something going on every minute. This morning was devoted to the registration of the visiting Elks and their ladies at the Elks' home on West Fifth street. In the afternoon the reunion was formally opened and the keys to the city were presented to the visitors by Brother George E. Phillips, mayor of Covington. For the evening a ritualistic contest for the prize degree banner is on the program, together with a band concert on the grounds of the Elks' home. Business meeting will be held tomorrow and Thursday morning, while the afternoons and evenings will be devoted to pleasure.

OHIO IS AFTER BOOTLEGGERS

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 19.—One of the most important matters to be discussed and voted on by the annual meeting of the Ohio Liquor League which opened a two day's session here today, will be the resolution proposed by the state president, William Seckel, of Cleveland, to levy a monthly per capita tax of 25 cents from all retailers for the purpose of maintaining a bureau to ferret out illegal traffickers in liquor. It is believed that the strict enforcement of the new state liquor law will force a number of retailers out of business and incidentally prove an incentive for some to engage in bootlegging or the maintenance of speak easies. The resolution referred to was suggested with a view of suppressing this illegal traffic.

New Walk Built

The cement walk leading from Mechanical Hall to the Farm Mechanics building is about completed. This is the first of the system of travelways designed to unite more closely the building groups of the Oregon Agricultural college.

New White Slave Centre.

ROME, Aug. 19.—Driven from England, France and other countries of Europe by rigorous police administration, white slave dealers have found their way to the new Italian colony of Tripoli, where the infamous traffic is attaining hideous proportions. A man known to the police as one of the most notorious white slave traffickers in Turin, where a number of houses have flourished under his management, set up a big branch establishment in Tripoli. His victims were procured in all parts of Europe, Africa and Egypt. The authorities got on the track of the organization through a young French woman who escaped from his clutches. As a result of her revelations six of the principles of this white slave trust have been arrested in Tripoli, and two others in Turin.

Varnished Furniture.

White spots on varnished furniture caused by heat or moisture can be removed by rubbing with a cloth dampened with alcohol. Care must be exercised not to make the cloth too wet, and the spot must be rubbed until it is dry. As the alcohol evaporates quickly, the rubbing does not have to be continued very long. If the article has been revarnished or is heavily coated with varnish much more alcohol must be used and the rubbing must be kept up longer.—New York Telegram.

DO IT NOW.

When you've got a job to do,
Do it now!
If it's one you wish was through,
Do it now!
If you're sure the job's your own,
Do not hem and haw and groan—
Do it now!
—Frank Farrington.

Optical Illusion.

Polly's Pies.

You ought to see wee Polly's pies!
She takes a bit of dough
That cook allows her, and she tries
To roll it out "just so."
But she must handle it a lot
Before it fits her part.
And pie crust does show every spot
When hands aren't spick and span.
And pies, to be quite flaky, need
The very lightest touch.
The crust is very tough indeed
If it is handled much.
And when wee Polly's pie is made
She feels a sad surprise
When Cousin May says, "I'm afraid
I dare not eat rich pies."
But Aunt Estella takes a piece
And says: "Is this for me?"
You're very kind, dear little niece.
I'll take it home for tea."

Second Trial for Dr. Smith.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 19.—To-morrow will begin the work of drawing a venire for jurors for the second trial of Dr. Arthur B. Smith, the Springfield physician who is charged with poisoning his wife. Dr. Smith has been confined in jail here since last November, when he was arrested on a charge of first degree murder. Mrs. Florence Caviler Smith, his alleged victim, died suddenly March 18, 1912. Though her death caused considerable comment, for she was said to have been in excellent health, no suspicion was aroused until Dr. Smith, on October 1, married Miss Mabel Merchant at her former home in Newton Highlands, Mass. Miss Merchant was for several years a nurse in the Springfield hospital, and she was called in many cases by Dr. Smith. A few weeks after the marriage the county officials ordered an examination into the cause of the death of the first Mrs. Smith. The body was examined and as a result of the medical examination Dr. Smith was indicted for the murder of his wife. His first trial took place last spring and resulted in a disagreement of the jury. The second trial is scheduled to begin early next month.

Georgia Fruit Growers Meet

CLAYTON, Ga., Aug. 19.—The annual summer session of the Georgia State Horticultural society was formally opened here by President Berkman, of Augusta, in the presence of a large gathering of fruit and nut growers from nearly all sections of the state. Clayton, being in the heart of the Georgia apple belt, the general discussions will mainly deal with the general subject of apple varieties, planting, culture, seedling, grafting, budding and marketing. Many noted authorities on apple culture are among those attending the meeting and will address the members of the society upon the subjects under discussion.

The Blue Laws.

The so-called blue laws of Connecticut were the invention of one Samuel Peters, a Tory, who, driven from this country on account of his disloyalty during the Revolution, published in London in 1781 a book entitled "General History of Connecticut," in which the laws in question were set forth. The code of laws which this book contains has been proved to be fabrication. There were no such laws in Connecticut or in any other part of New England.—New York American.

A Diplomatic System.

"To what, sir," we asked a middle aged, happily married man recently, "do you attribute the success you have made of your married life?"

"Tis a bit of elementary wisdom, my son," he replied. "When my wife is in the wrong I agree with her, and all is well. When she is in the right I argue against her. She emerges triumphantly, proves me foolish, feels good all day—and again all is well. Learn this, my son, ere you marry."—Cleveland Leader.
