HOBOES ARE MARCHED

Eleven hoboes were marched to the corporate limits by the police and told that if they ever returned the city would give them a heavy jail sentence to teach them a lesson. Early Thursday morning the night officers gathered in the tramps from the cars in the freight yards and landed them in the jail.

When the municipal court was call ed later in the day, they were warned to leave the city and stay away under threat of the imposition of a severe

JEROME'S QUEST OF

SHERBROOKE, Aug. 28.—Harry K. Thaw's lawyers, successful so far in keeping their client in jail, safe from the immigration authorities, rejoiced tonight when they received word from Quebec that the trip of William Travers Jerome to see Sir J. Couin, provincial premier and attorney-general had been in vain. Mr. Jerome, leader of the New York state forces seeking Thaw's return to Matteawan, accompanied by Deputy Attorney-General Franklin Kennedy, America, and by Huntley Bros Co. is left here last night, hoping to lay before the premier facts that wou'd persuade him to sweep aside the commitment on which Thaw is held in sirl with the Auburn hair is on every Sherbrooke and place him in the package. hands of the immigration authorities.

PALACE OF PEACE GIVEN TO COURT

THE HAGUE, Aug. 28.-The cere monies connected with the official transfer of the Palace of Peace from the Carnegie Foundation to the Council of the Permanent Arbitration Court and its official dedication began oday in the presence of four hundred invited guests, including the 140 judges of the Arbitration court, mempers of the diplomatic corps, representatives of foreign governments and Dutch officials. The ceremonies of the transfer were quite simple.

Address in French M. von Marnebeck, the president of the Carnegie Foundation, delivered an address in French, transferring the completed structure to the court, and the minister of foreign affairs made a brief speech of acceptance. There was some music and singing by a choir and then the invited guests inspected the palace and the grounds.

The dedication proper will take place tomorrow, when, to commemor ate the occasion, the University of Leyden will bestow honorary degrees upon Senator Elihu Root, who will be represented by Dr. James Brown Scott, secretary of the Carnegie Endowment; on Lewis Renault, perma nent French delegate of the Hague Tribunal; on Alfred Fried, the Viennese pacificist; and posthumously on the late T. M. C. Asser, the former Dutch minister and councillor of state.

Dutch Style The Palace of Peace stands in a six teen-acre plot, once the garden of a royal castle, facing a shady avenue halfway between The Hague and Scheveningen, the famous Dutch seaside resort. The purchase price was nearly $300,000. The building is designed in Dutch style, occupies a space 269 feet square, enclosing a large court. In front is a mide terrace and back of it a fine park. Each promin ent nation has furnished some decoration, ornament or material for the (old Brethaupt ranch).

BARGAINS IN TITLES.

Plenty of Foreign Countries Where

You May Find Them. Although foreign countries do not openly advertise their readiness to do business with those who aspire to affix a handle to their names, the fact is generally recognized that a considerable traffic in titles is carried on.

The tiny republic of San Marino, which does a roaring trade in titles of nobility at fixed rates, devotes a great part of the profits to the maintenance of its foundling and orphan asylum. It will make you and all your heirs or only your male heirs, if such is your desire, a duke for $5,000 or an earl for $3,750.

An idea of the traffic done in titles may be gathered from the fact that a German firm trading in Sweden sends out a circular marked "Private and confidential" offering to secure any orders and decorations required.

The orders of St. George vary in price in different countries. In Sicily it costs $375 and in Bavaria more than twice as much, but you may become a Knight of Montenegro for as little as $75. The king of Greece does rather a prosperous business with the Order of the Redeemer, which can be had for $250, while Servia bestows the Order of Takova for a like sum. The Prince of Monaco has for disposal the Order of the Star, for which he asks $175, and for $50 less one can secure the Order of the Sun of Nasr-ed-din from the shah of Persia. Although titles cannot be bartered in England, it is, of course, an open secret that a generous contribution to a place in the peerage. Apropos of this, it is interesting to note the fact that Franz Kossuth, the son of the famous patriot, charged the Hungarian government with receiving no less than $1,450,000 by selling baronet titles. Another phase of this traffic in titles is revealed by carefully worded advertisements which have appeared in London papers from time to time, offering for sale the titles of impoverished noble families of France. It is not so long ago since three titles, two of which were French-one a count and the other a marquis respectively-and one of Pearl Heater and Erma Smith, who an Austrian prince, were put up for have been spending their vacation sale in London, the prices ranging from $200,000 to $500,000.-London Stray Stories.

Douglas' Saying About Vermont. Stephen A. Douglas, who was born at Brandon, Vt., originated the oft quoted saying, "Vermont is a good state to emigrate from." This double edged saying, which con tains a compliment and a knock, is a good example of Douglas humor, which always had in it a peculiarly Vermont quality. It is said that Douglas' actual words were these: "Vermont is a good state to be born in, a good state to be educated in and a good state to emigrate from." This made the remark more of a "knock" than it is in its usual and more summary form. But when Douglas uttered it the audience of Vermonters received it with roars of laughter.-New York
