His Wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, Who Feared Attack.

Photos copyright, 1913, by American Press Association

After Harry K. Thaw's sensational escape from the Matteawan asylum, in New York state, where he had spent five and a half years, fears were felt for the safety of his wife, Evelyn Neshit Thaw. The belief was expressed that Harry Thaw might attempt to take her life, and she was guarded by police in New York city, where she was pluying in vaudeville. It was claimed that Thaw's escape in an automobile from Matteawan to another state protected him from being brought back, as he was in the position of being insane in New York, but sane in any other state. Latest pictures of Thaw and his wife are here shown, the one of Mrs. Thaw having been taken recently upon her arrival from Europe. A general view of Mattenwan asylum is also shown.

The park is a delightful lace for the children, as there are swings. merry-go-rounds, tables for use, and other conveniences. There will be amusements of various sorts. The picnic will be in charge of superintendent Bolwand and Mr. Hollingsworth, his assistant, who will look after the children and see that they have plenty to eat. These gentlemen will be assisted by the women who are associated with them in Sunday school work. A good time is assured.

CHICAGO CUTS OUT NOISE AND CABARETS

Chicago, Ul., Aug. 30.—Every day is to resemble Sunday in Chicago, if some of the new city ordinances which came into effect today serve the pur-pose for which they are intended. Of most general interest and importance is the anti-trust law. This is expected to throw the hurly-gurdy players, organ grinders and mud-gutter musi-cians into the discard and absolutely prohibits the yells and cries of the rag pickers, knife grinders and all streat

Another of the new ordinances is the anti-cabaret law. This forbids the form of restaurant-dance hall entertainment which of late has swept like a great wave from New York to San Francisco and has probably reached the zenith of its popularity in Chl-cago. The law prohibiting the cabaret show makes no discrimination be tween the cheap music hall and the fashionable and high-priced restaurants and hotel cafes.

Thanks to another of the ordinances into efect today it will now be posible for a Chicagoan to use the telephone without getting Jones' mothr-in-law on the line when he wants the druggist. Nor will the sweet-voic-ed central longer ignore the importunities of the subscriber who gets hot under the collar after calling a quarter of an hour in vain for a number. All of these little worries of life are expected to be abolished as a result of the establishment of a new te'ephone complaint an service bureau for which the city has appropriated $10,000. The new bureau is expected to hear every grievance of once and give full satisfaction.

A union of telephone operators, composed exclusively of women, has been organized in Shreveport, La.

The British Medical association is seriously considering the adviability of organizing as a labor union.
