Happy Days Give Up Fish Pies for Another Year of Grief in School—Many Things Great Last Moments

MISS BESSIE captured the heart of John Van B. Blake, who was a local hero among Madison's, when he went to town yesterday.

When the K.B.W. school opened on September 3rd, about 150 students streamed into the Falls Grammer School, and Loganburg, and other schools. The larger number of the students are in Loganburg, as the school is larger and more attractive.

The school is at present attended by about 500 students.

In Loganburg, the school is a bit larger and more attractive than in the Falls Grammer School, and Loganburg, and other schools. The larger number of the students are in Loganburg, as the school is larger and more attractive.
