

DANGEROUS LOBBY EXISTS IN CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—A canvass of the members of the house and senate committees which have been investigating President Wilson's assertion concerning the existence of a dangerous lobby in Washington, showed today that both reports will sustain the chief executive's charges. Former Congressman Cole of Ohio and former Congressman Littlefield of Maine are the only witnesses yet to be heard by the house committee, which probably will prepare its report next week. The senate committee will continue taking evidence for another fortnight.

REST HURTS WIZARD MORE THAN WORK

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Sept. 13.—Thomas A. Edison, who is ill at his home here, has been ordered by his physician never to take another vacation and has been ordered to remain away from his laboratory for another two weeks to recuperate from his recent fortnight in New England. This was Edison's first vacation in eight years and according to the doctor the aging inventor is more tired out from his holidays than he ever was from working 20 hours a day. It is said today that his condition is improved.

SEVEN SISTERS DRIVE AWAY BIG BUSINESS

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 13.—President Wilson's "seven sisters," as the anti-corporation laws he put through before leaving the state are known, are held to be responsible for the big decrease in fees received in this state during the month of August. The state collected only $5700 from this source during the month just passed, while in August a year ago the fees amounted to $21,000. There were 105 corporations organized here in August of this year. In the same month last year there were 150.

It was said here today that a lot of the corporation business which New Jersey originally got now goes to Delaware, Maine and other states with liberal incorporation laws.

SOLDIERS CHARGE CROWD OF MINERS

CALUMET, MICH., Sept. 13.—Troopers with drawn sabers charged a crowd of striking miners and strike sympathizers in Eighth street today. Many persons, including a number of women, were knocked down and trampled by the horses and a number were injured. The clash followed a gathering in the street as a demonstration of sympathy with the strike. The military authorities have prohibited such assemblages.

The mine owners' refusal to arbitrate their differences with the miners had caused the Western Federation officials to order a peaceful demonstration. There was a tremendous turnout in response to the call, the streets were jammed, traffic was tied up, and the police finding themselves powerless, appealed to the militia. The commander, complying, cleared the streets with cavalry.

It is said that John McGraw, the Giant's boss, has not abandoned hope of putting over a trade, whereby he can land Ed Konetchy, of the Cardinals.

PURE WINE WILL BE THING OF THE PAST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Wine-pure wine—is to be a thing of the past under the pending tariff bill in the opinion of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, formerly chief chemist of the government. In an appeal published today he calls to arms all the patrons of all the looser palaces of all the big cities, as well as those who value wine for wine's sake, to join in battle against the senate change that, in his opinion, would permit of adulteration of fermented grape juice.

"Let the people who are interested in the purity of the products," he appeals, "immediately protest against this outrageous attempt to debauch the wines of this country."
The objection of Dr. Wiley is based on the provision that permits the addition, "before, during or after fermentation," of sugar, or water, not to exceed 20 per cent, of the total of pure fermented grape juice. This, Dr. Wiley contends, lets down the bars to all descriptions of adulteration as no one can tell the original quantity of original fermented grape juice after the adulterations have been added. "It only remain now," says Dr. Wiley, scornfully, "for the senate to define whisky as an alcoholic beverage made of natural spirits, burnt sugar and synthetic flavors, and beer as a beverage made of any old thing that will ferment and embittered with anything that is bitter from capsicum to aloes, to complete the debasement of American beverages."

GENERALSHIP SHOWS IN BRITISH MATCH

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 13.—Again the old saying that a "match well made is half won" comes to the fore in the negotiations between Freddie Welsh, British lightweight champion, and Willie Ritchie, world's title holder for their twenty-round world's championship battle in this city on the afternoon of September 20, 1913.

In this case, the generalship of Harry Pollock, Welsh's manager, stand out strongly throughout the entire history of the match. Pollock appears to have carried almost every point, despite the fact that he was handling a challenger instead of a champion.

Pollock's Scheme
Pollock put Welsh at a low weight, and then allowed him to build up to 142 before starting active work. On the basis of the low weight actually made by Welsh, Pollock insisted upon the battle being staged at 133 pounds and forced Ritchie, lightweight champion, to ask for a higher poundage.

Ritchie came here with Eddia Graney in mind as the third man in the ring. Pollock absolutely refused to accept Graney, but did not make his decision known until Ritchie was in Vancouver and the men were preparing to draw off the articles. Then Pollock forced the Ritchie interests to name Jim Griffin, who, with Biddy Bishop of Tacoma, formed the two Pollock stood ready to accept.

Movie Rights
Finally came the moving picture rights. Pollock had his mind all made up several weeks ago regarding the exploitations of the pictures, in which Welsh owns 30 per cent. However, he stalled along, keeping Ritchie on the anxious seat for the last week, only signing the picture contracts and posting his final forfeit of $3,750 last night.

During the entire week Ritchie has been haunting the offices of the club, keeping engagements made by Pollock as late as 10 o'clock at night, while Welsh has been quietly training and getting his regular sleep. As a result, Ritchie is at least a week late in starting his training, and Welsh, instead of being looked upon as the under dog, appears to have a first-class chance to enter the ring in better shape than the world's champion.

In McQuillan, Cooper, Adams and Robinson, Pittsburg has four pitchers who are among the dozen flingers leading in the National league.

A GENEROUS OFFER

Your Money Refunded if Parisian Sage Doesn't Banish Dandruff

Pretty strong talk, perhaps you'll say, but it's honest talk, every word of it, because if Huntley Bros. were not absolutely certain, if Huntley Bros. did not know from actual results obtained they could not make such a generous offer.
Parisian Sage can now be obtained in every town in America. It is guaranteed to stop falling hair and itching scalp.
It is the ideal, delightful, rejuvenating hair dressing that makes hair grow in abundance. Parisian Sage is a prime favorite with women, because it keeps the hair brilliant and fascinating, is daintily perfumed, and is not sticky or greasy.

Presentation by the OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE

Willis J. Abbot, the versatile writer on International subjects and author of many books of history and travel; spent months in Panama and the Canal Zone in the preparation of this volume. He collected at first hands the complete history of the great Canal, with a wealth of historical data concerning Panama which has never before been written. The result is a human interest story of this beautiful land its people from the early days when Columbus tried to find a natural waterway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, down to the present time.

Our Special staff photographers made the hundreds of beautiful views with which practically every page of this exhaustive book is illustrated.

The well-known artist, E. J. Read, made the sixteen sumptuous water-color studies which are reproduced by the latest color processes on specially made paper.

The Panama Canal, the greatest engineering achievement of the world's history, cost more than $400,000,000 It links the two greatest oceans, and becomes the most important factor in peace and war. So where is the red-blooded inhabitant of this globe that does not feel vitally interested in it. Truly it is the wonder of this progressive age!
