

HORSE SCARES; MAN IS HURT

ANIMAL DASHES DOWN THE STREET AND DRIVER IS THROWN

BONES ARE BROKEN BY BAD FALL

Shoulder is Fractured in Two Places and Deep Gash Shows Behind Ear—May Be Internal Injury.

P. C. Ensminger, an employee of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, was severely injured in a runaway down Washington street Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock.

Mr. Ensminger was driving through this city with his son on the way from Portland to Canby and was going along Seventh street when the latter went into Little's store to purchase supplies, leaving the father alone in the buggy.

Left alone in the buggy, the older man made an effort to jump, but his feet became tangled and he plunged head long to the street.

Mr. Ensminger is about 55 years old and is a resident of Portland. His son is about 24 years of age. They had never had trouble with their horse previous to their accident Tuesday and are unable to explain the cause of the runaway.

Reporters late Tuesday night show that the condition of the injured man is somewhat better and may not be as serious as first thought, as the internal injuries may be slight.

PARENTS, TEACHERS, HAVE JOLLY TIME

The Parents' Teachers' association, of Canby, had a pleasant afternoon last Friday when they entertained the teachers and mothers of the community at the schoolhouse.

Mrs. Bowland also made a short talk, presenting some new ideas as to how to get uninterested mothers to attend the meetings.

The next meeting will be held at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon, October 3, at 2:30 o'clock. All interested in the work are earnestly requested to be present.

SUFFRAGETTES REFUSE TO PAY THEIR TAXES

LONDON, Sept. 30.—For refusing to pay contributions to the state under the national workmen's insurance law, a long list of prominent suffragettes are to be prosecuted as soon as the government's lawyers finish preparation of the cases against them.

The refusals are a part of the suffragettes' determination to resist taxation without representation. One woman, Mrs. Kate Harvey, already has been sentenced to two months in Holloway prison for her failure to stick the required stamps on her gardener's insurance card.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

MILWAUKIE, Ore., Sept. 30.—(Editor of The Enterprise)—In view of the interest being taken at the present time, in the future water supply for Oregon City, I would like to make a few suggestions.

First: Is the upper Clackamas river available for water supply in this county? If it is available is there any reason why Oregon City with its surrounding territory, all of the north side of the Clackamas river and all of the west side of the Willamette river, in Clackamas county, could not be bonded to build a pipe line? It seems to me that an independent water system would be much better than for the whole country to depend on getting Bull Run.

The interest that is now being manifested in Lane county, the Guard says, will, if continued insure a system of public highways of which every citizen will be proud.

STOCKHOLDERS MUST PAY BILL

sidered by railroad officials generally as of great mortal value in the work of collection on deferred payments for stock. The court held that the stock was taken by Vick and that he must pay for it.

Grant B. Dimick, B. N. Hicks and O. D. Eby were counsel for the road, while C. D. Latourrette represented the defendant. The case was hard fought through the court and every feature of the law involved was tested in order to make of it a test case and a precedent in other matters of the same nature where other stockholders are interested.

VARSITY STUDENTS LEARN HOW TO HANDLE BUSINESS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Sept. 30.—One more college year is likely to see the associated students of the University of Oregon entirely out of debt. Graduate Manager Arthur Geary, of Portland, who retired last Saturday reduced the debt from $2400 to $1800 during his 13 months' handling of student body finances, and laid a foundation whereby the incoming graduate manager, Dean Walker of Independence, Ore., will be able to clean up the remainder in a single season.

The Associated Students, under the system of student government at the university, are taught to feel full responsibility for the expenditures they make and to handle their business affairs in a businesslike way. Their credit, consequently, has become correspondingly better; in fact, is now as good as that of any well-conducted business institution handling the same volume, which is perhaps $15,000 a year.

Men Are Afraid. William Shehan reported that he had induced two men to come to the city to live, but that, when they heard of the typhoid situation here, they refused to leave the East, where they felt that they were safe from the infection.

The question of a deputy sealer of weights and measures has been taken up with County Judge Anderson and it is possible that the court will appoint some one of the present county officials to take charge of this work under the new state law.

The civic improvement committee, of which Dr. J. A. VanBrakie is chairman, made its report showing the work done during the summer. The barn ordinance passed by the council was commended as an improvement in the administration of city sanitation, the protection of food from flies; and further plans for a steady campaign along sanitary lines were included in the report.

WIFE SHOTS FORMER HUSBAND; MAY DIE

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Frank H. Ivy, a real estate dealer, was shot and probably fatally wounded early today by his divorced wife, Mrs. Edith M. Ivy.

After Mrs. Ivy had shot her former husband she dropped her revolver and fled. Ivy crept to where the weapon lay, seized it and fired a shot after the woman, inflicting a flesh wound in her thigh.

Ivy was taken to the receiving hospital. Surgeons there said the bullet had penetrated his abdomen, and that he had little chance to recover. Mrs. Ivy was arrested and taken to the central station, where her wound was treated.

Mrs. Ivy was divorced from the man she shot, March 17, 1904. Ivy married and lived with his second wife and their two children.

The first Mrs. Ivy drove to his home in a taxicab, called him to the door and opened fire. Harry Alvin her chauffeur, held her until the police came.

The far-flung Oregon apple is evidenced in this item, from the Salem Statesman: "Wiley B. Moores, formerly city recorder of Salem, now traveling in the east, has written friends here that he has recently partaken of two big red Oregon apples in one day and that one was eaten in Canada and the other in the United States.

DRYS START OUT ON THEIR HUNT FOR NAMES ON PETITION

PLANS ARE FULLY WORKED OUT

Association Has its Campaign Mapped and Forces Have Been Ordered to Move For First Work

Petitions have been placed in circulation for a dry Oregon City and the matter will come before the voters on Tuesday, November 4, 1913, the date of the special referendum election ordered by the last legislature.

The local "dry" forces are well organized, with Attorney Charles H. Dye as chairman and F. B. Schoenborn as secretary. At a meeting held in the First Presbyterian church Monday night, plans for the coming "dry" campaign were discussed and a vigorous effort will be made to place this city in the "dry" column under the local option law. There are 10 saloons in Oregon City, from which the municipality derives a revenue of $10,000 per year.

The association that has been formed to take Oregon City out of the "wet" column is said to have its plans fully matured and will leave nothing undone to insure the success of the movement at the November election. They have been working quietly, with little publicity. A majority of the local churches are interested in the plan.

Irish invalids on board ships, leaving Dublin for Lourdes, France, for the annual pilgrimage to the shrine, where it is said that thousands are cured of their infirmities every year. The pilgrims from Ireland this year numbered about ten thousand, while fifteen thousand came from Paris alone. The shrine at Lourdes is one of the most notable of all the Roman Catholic shrines and the thousands of crutches, canes and other aids to cripples which have been thrown away by those who have been cured are on exhibition at the shrine. The exodus from Ireland each year is constantly growing larger, showing the tremendous influence and faith in the Roman Catholic church still dominant in the "Emerald Isles."
