At the Portland Theaters

Last Car Leaves for Oregon City At Midnight.

The Baker Players are piling up one big success after another and have easily earned the standing of the best stock company Portland has ever known. Next week beginning with the usual matinee Sunday, the offering will be Blanche Bates' highly successful comedy, "Nobody's Widow," considered to be one of the cleverest farces of modern times. It is also a Belasco production which places it amongst the highest standard of plays known to the stage of the present generation. It is a comedy, pure and simple, and tells the story of a girl, who travelling abroad marries an English lord on a sudden impulse, and discovering him in the act of kissing another girl on the very day of their wedding, leaves him and writes her friends that he died rather than let them know the truth. Six months later she returns to America and coming to the home of her friend, Petty Jackson to spend a week, runs into her husband. He is a humorous and likeable chap but starts in to win her back immediately. The situations brought about are extremely amusing and the lines most witty and clever. Laughs follow each other in rapid succession as the events proceed. They agree upon a truce and under his threat to expose her, Roxana is obliged to accept him on equal terms with the others. She finally brings him to her feet and then refuses him, so that smarting under humiliations she makes an appointment for a late supper with Betty. Then she is sorry and tries every way to escape the supper but in vain. Roxana discovers them and not knowing the situation is again shocked by his evident perfidy. Left alone together in her room she calmly proceeds to make preparations to remain all night which further complicates matters for she has obtained a divorce unknown to him during the six months separation. In the end, however, matters are straightened out and they are married all over again. It is a comedy so full of action and events that it is difficult to describe but when seen is found to be a source of unbridled amusement. It will continue all week with the usual Baker matinee Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday and the popular bargain night Monday.

Luck.

"Do you believe there is anything in luck?" asked a young man of a philosopher, and the philosopher replied: "Yes; there's a lot of intelligence and method and perseverance in it."—London Mail.

SLIP-ON FROCKS PRACTICAL FOR SCHOOL

Although lines are simple, with a little thought it is easy enough to get away from the commonplace in children's fashions. The quaint patterns in materials which grown-ups are so partial to at the moment are, many of them, quite as suitable and becoming to small folks. Brightly hued plaids relieve effectively dull school dresses and dark coats. Figured silks and challises are especially pretty in the small wardrobe.
For general wear the Balkan dress, slipping on over the head, middie blouse fashion, is one of the most novel and most practical fashions for little girls. The undershirt, to which the skirt is usually attached, allows the weight to depend from the shoulders, an excellent thing for a growing girl. No. 7962 illustrates nicely one of these models with a full length undersleeve of figured net. This dress may be copied for size 8 with 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material and 1 1/4 of contrasting material for undersleeve and sleeves.
Drop-shoulders are as much a feature of small dresses as of large and lend the same style. The sleeves fit in smoothly or are slightly gathered. 7949 may be made dressy by the addition of a folded girlish collar. Brightly stitched belt it is an excellent school frock. Insets of plaid trim and brighten it. For size 10, 2 3/4 yards of 36 inch material will be needed with 3/4 yard of plaid for trimming. Each pattern 15 cents.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and inclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust for dimensions. Address Pattern Department.

Husband's Hair

If it is Thinning Out or Full of Dandruff, Use Parisian Sage

Most men are careless regarding the care of the hair—not until it comes out by the combful do they really take notice. Then it may be too late.

If your husband's hair is getting thin; if he has dandruff or the scalp itches and burns—take immediate action; do not let him become a bald-head.

Get from Huntley Bros. Co. a 50c bottle of Parisian Sage. Rub it well into the scalp every night. The first application will remove dandruff. When the hair stops falling and the new growth appears use every other night until the hair is thick and abundant.

Parisian Sage is a delightful and invigorating hair tonic for men, women and children. It is a scientific preparation based on a thorough knowledge of what is needed by the hair and scalp to keep them perfectly healthy and remove dandruff, stop scalp itch and falling hair. Surely try Parisian Sage.

A Little Circle.

Ethel—This craze for gold seems to me very foolish. Now, a very little would make me perfectly happy.
Jack—How much?
Ethel—Just enough to reach around my finger.—Boston Transcript.

Realism in Art.

Two artists were boasting how they could paint. "Do you know," said one, "I painted a sixpence on the ground one day, and a beggar nearly broke his fingers trying to pick it up?" "That's nothing to what I did," said the other. "I painted a leg of mutton on a stone, and it was so realistic that a dog ate half the stone before he found out his mistake!"

TURKEY DEMAND GROWS HEAVIER

The demand for turkeys is firm and the question of whether the local supply will be equal to it has been raised by the commission men. The chicken receipts have been heavy with the tone rather weak.
Fresh eggs are scarce in the markets though the prices remain low and the tone heretofore generally weak. The onion market is steady with the demand keeping pace with the supplies that have been received.

TRESPASS

All persons are hereby notified not to Hunt, Shoot, or otherwise Trespass on these premises. If they do so trespass they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Smugglers' Philanthropy.
At Broadmoor and Perth, England, the criminal lunatics have a free supply of the most exquisite pipe tobacco, cigars and cigarettes. In fact, they smoke far finer stuff than the average rich man. Yet all this good tobacco costs the government nothing. The smugglers of England pay for the smoking of the criminal insane. It is from her confiscated smuggled tobacco that England fills the tobacco boxes of Perth and Broadmoor.—London Telegraph.

COURTESY.
It has been said that courtesy is to the daily intercourse of life what fragrance is to the flower. It ought to be just as steady, as unconscious, as gently pervasive as that, and it is just as certain to be noticed and appreciated as the rich perfume of a rose or the delicious scent of a lily.

Conceded Fitness.
"This 'Gates Ajar' design is a handsome one," said the tombstone man. "It is just what I want," said the widow. "He never shut a door in all our married life without being told."—Indianapolis Journal.
