

Council Would Curb Despotism of City's Mayor

The council wants the mayor curbed. It believes that the city's chief executive should not have the right to hire and fire the employees of the city without the consent and approval of the other city fathers.

This agitation along this line does not refer to Mayor Jones. The present mayor has let the council do all of the work that the charter provides shall fall upon his shoulders, although he has taken the active part in it after the council has given its consent to the program that he has outlined.

The members now want the voters of the city to approve a suggested amendment to the city charter that will enable them to take a stand in all changes that the mayor may make against any of the city employees. The agitation is merely an outgrowth of the case now before the circuit court. If it is decided to submit the matter to the people of the city it will be done at the same time that they are asked to vote on the amendment authorizing the council to fix whatever salaries are right for the officers of the city.

DOMINGO MUST USE EMERGENCY BRAKES

SANTO DOMINGO, Oct. 8.—The American Minister to the Dominican Republic, James M. Sullivan, has indicated the warring factions in this country sign a peace pact and the revolution headed by General Horatio Vasquez against the government of the provisional President, Jose Berdas Valdez, is at an end.

The American minister's action is the first successful application of the United States government's new Latin-American policy with regard to the Dominican Republic, which is to the effect that force of arms never again can settle any question in this country.

Mr. Sullivan has made it known that the last civil war in this republic has been fought. In the future any uprising, he says, will be stamped out as criminal without a conference between the opposing factions, the United States government supporting the constitutional authority against force, regardless of the merits of the issue.

A Three Headed Town. When the town of Tolono, Ill., was settled the question of a name arose. The site chosen for the town was at a point where three farms "cornered."

After considerable discussion it was proposed that the town be named after the three men who originally owned the site. How to manage the name was a problem at first, but finally some genius suggested that only the first two letters of each name be used. This was agreed to, and the name Tolono came into existence.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Stands For Mary. Boy—Cow is a noun, feminine gender, third person singular and stands for Mary.

"Stands for Mary?" asked the master in astonishment. "Yes, sir," responded the urchin, with a grin. "for if the cow didn't stand for Mary how could Mary milk the cow?"—London Evening

Solved! The perplexing question had arisen many times during their brief matrimonial experience, and again Mrs. Flint asked her young husband if he thought they could get along without the cook. "I think so, dear," he answered. "Why, if the worst comes you can do the cooking, and I can get my meals at a restaurant."—Denver Republican.

Fish, Chicken and Veal. Raw pullet, raw veal and raw fish make the graveyard fat. This is hundreds of years old. A New York caterer (perhaps the most efficient in the city) said to me: "There are three important articles of food that must under no circumstances be served underdone. They are fish, chicken and veal. By chicken I mean all poultry of a domestic nature. All game birds should be rare. You want to be a little careful about lamb too. Give it plenty of cooking."—New York Press.

His Only Chance. "Why did you shake your fist at the speaker?" "Well," replied the congressman, "I didn't want the whole session to slip by without my having made a motion of some kind."—Philadelphia Ledger.

BUYERS DEMAND THAT ALL EGGS BE GRADED

Although the prices of eggs in Portland have advanced from 2c to 3c a dozen, local dealers report no change in prices here. One of the most significant features was the announcement that eggs are to be graded more carefully in the future.

This difference is natural in view of the fact that the pullet eggs are so much smaller than the others. The price is so extreme that complaint is heard when buyers are given a large per cent of the small size.

More than SIX HUNDRED Illustrations INCLUDING RARE AND BEAUTIFUL WATER COLOR STUDIES

Interwoven with the beautiful word pictures in this large volume are hundreds of photographic reproductions, accurately portraying the scenes described in the text. Many of these pictures represent scenes far removed from the path of the ordinary tourist—views of the jungle—of the almost uncivilized natives who reside within the borders of the Zone, but who are quite unknown outside of their own little world because of the difficulty in reaching them. Such pictures are rare and are to be found only in this volume. Beautiful large colored plates abound throughout the book. These are reproduced in splendid full pages from water color studies made by E. J. Read, the well-known artist, who spent months in the study of Canal scenes. No book of similar character contains such a wealth of magnificent color.

NEZ PERCE LANGUAGE WILL BE TAUGHT

PENDLETON, Ore., Oct. 8.—Pendleton is to have a school wherein the Nez Perce Indian language will be taught and wherein the students will be the business people of the city.

Rev. J. M. Cornelison, for 13 years a missionary among the three tribes on the Umatilla reservation, will open the school in response to a demand from merchants, lawyers, bankers, and clerks who have daily dealings with the Indians.

Rev. Cornelison plans to open his school Friday, October 17, and to hold classes weekly, or oftener if the students desire, through the winter.

With proper diligence, he declares, the average business man can secure a working knowledge of the language at that time.

The Nez Perce language is by no means an easy language to learn according to the missionary, who himself spent two years of his life and $1500 to master it. Neither is it a simple language, he says. "It is as highly inflected as the Greek or Latin language," said Rev. Mr. Cornelison today. "The endings of the nouns depend upon the cases and the verbs have regular forms of conjugation."

The Indian, as a rule, is a purist in speaking. He knows no rules of grammar or syntax, but he seldom makes a mistake. The Nez Perce is very interesting language.

Many have already signified their attention of entering the class.
