STAFFORD

The Delkar brothers are busy hauling wood since their return from their enjoyable outing at the seashore.

Alfred Thomas and others, also, are hauling wood.

John J. Gage spent a week at the old home and put a new roof on his father's granary, returning to his home in St. Helens on Tuesday.

Mr. Weddle threshed about half a ton of white beans from his little place, which J. G. Gage and his father bought their year's supply of him, paying 5 cents per pound.

It is reported that Mr. Pomperine sold his hops last week for 20 cents per pound. Others held for a little advance.

Mrs. Powell went to Portland, Monday, returning on Tuesday. She has let her plow land to Fred Baker at a cash rent of $5.00 per acre.

Mr. Aerni's new shed to his barn is proving quite a convenience. Mrs. Nemech has improved from her recent illness but is yet unable to use her broken leg.

They are drying prunes at the Rabble place, also at Wm. Schatz, both places having a dry house.

The school this year is composed almost entirely of little folks, under the 8th grade, as the higher grades were mistakenly cut out this year, and numbers who are just at the right age to take an added interest in their books and not old enough to send out from the parents' care and counsel, are condemned to stay at home with only the rudiments of an education to fit them for their life work, which leads the think mind to ponder whether the old system of attendance until the pupils was 20 years old and no grades were not the better way, especially for country schools, as the writer can recall the names of several who acquired what might truly be called a good education, who acquired it in the ungraded country school.

MARQUAM

J. C. Nicholson and wife, of Molhawk, Lane County, was one of many who took the opportunity to celebrate the opening of the Molalla railroad, also come by way of Marquam, calling on friends and relatives.

P. J. Ridings had an auction sale last week. He had already moved his family to Cottage Grove, where he had bought property.

Mrs. Cathrene Jones died at Marquam after a lingering illness for months. She died September 26 and was buried in the Miller cemetery, September 27. A large crowd attended the funeral.

Wm. Nicholson is hauling lumber for his mother, Mrs. Roberts, to build a house to replace the one that burned down recently.

Mrs. Altha Roberts' house caught fire from a spark on the roof September 24, and was a total loss. John Young, of Silverton, has rented his brother Ed Young's place, and has moved his family out here.

Mr. Parv, the band instructor, will soon leave. He has been a great help to the young people in teaching band music.

EFFORT.

Nothing can be accomplished in the work of this life without effort. Nothing that is of real worth can be achieved without courageous working. Man owes his growth chiefly to that active striving of the will, that encounter with difficulty, which we call effort, and it is astonishing to find how of an results apparently impracticable are thus made possible.—Samuel Smiles.

LOSS OF APPETITE

Is the first sign of disorder and decay. The usual loss of appetite is often caused by functional disturbances in the stomach. The stomach fails to do the work required, the appetite is gone, and the body suffers from lack of nourishment. Such a stomach needs to be cleaned and sweetened. Meritol Tonic Digestive is made especially to assist the stomach to digest food, and promote a healthy appetite. This remedy is sold on our positive guarantee, and we ask you to give it a trial. It is a genuine tonic. Jones Drug Co., sole agents.

Diamond Cutting.

The brilliant is generally considered the finest form of diamond cutting. The top of the brilliant consists of the table an eight sided facet in the center—surrounded by thirty-two smaller facets, which reach to the girdle, the thin edge separating the crown from the lower part of the stone, called the pavilion. The pavilion has twenty-four facets, terminating in a small facet called the culet. The best stones are cut so that less than one-third of the whole is above the girdle.
