MARGARET ANGLIN IN SHAKESPEARIAN PLAYS AT HEILIG THEATRE OCTOBER 20, 21, 22.

AT THE HEILIG

The attraction at the Heilig theatre, 11th and Morrison streets, for three nights and special price matinee Wednesday, beginning next Monday night, will be Margaret Anglin and an incomparable company of classic actors in elaborate revivals of three of the most delightful comedies of Shakespeare, which will be presented in the following order: On Monday night and at the special price Wednesday matinee, "Twelfth Night" will be the bill, with Miss Anglin as Viola. On Tuesday night, Miss Anglin will be seen as Katherine in "The Taming of the Shrew" and on Wednesday night as Rosalind in "As You Like It." As the heroine in these comedies, Miss Anglin has received the highest critical praise. In his review of the performances, the San Francisco Bulletin described them as "Shakespeare glorified."

Another attractive feature is the lighting effect. The company in support of Miss Anglin is one of superlative strength. Prominent in its roster are Fuller Mellich, Ian MacLaren, Eric Blind, Sidney Greenstreet, Ruth Holt-Bonstean, Wallace Wildecorn, Harry Barto, Florence Wollersen, Max Fisher, Lillian Thurston, E. Y. Backus, Max Monteleo, Sally William, Roy Porter, Donald Cameron and twenty others. Mail order for seats received now. Address letters with check to W. T. Fangle, manager Heilig theatre. Box office sale opens Friday, October 17th. Mail orders will receive precedence.

London's Gunpowder Alley.

The city coroner, who commented upon the "funny" name of Gunpowder alley toff Shoe lane and confessed that he had never heard of it, may nevertheless have heard of it, and in this alley also lived the notorious astrologer, Lilly, the Shrotopher of "Hudibras."—London Chronicle.

THE SMART TAILORED SUIT HAS A FIRST PLACE IN THE WARDROBE

Smart, simple, of good lines, there is nothing more becoming to the American woman than the tailored suit. This has always been true, and despite its change this season from strictly tailored to semi-tailored lines, the suit continues to be indispensable to the smart wardrobe.

Many of the skirts are draped, many show the double or triple skirt, others again are perfectly plain. The coats are sashed and vested, and often there is a novel collar or attractive cuffs that add to the effect.

Materials are most attractive—velours de laine plain or self figured; duvetyne, which is as supple and rich as velvet, and numerous novelty stuffs that are exceedingly smart.

Tweeds in almost invisible mixtures are modish for morning wear.

A smart suggestion for 7998-7994 is navy blue velours de laine striped in matter blue with white collar and vest. To copy 7998 in size 36 it requires 2 3/4 yards of 36 inch material. In size 24 7994 requires 2 3/4 yards of 36 inch material.

7998—sizes 34 to 44 inches bust measure. 7994—sizes 22 to 36 inches waist measure.

OPTIMISM PREVAILS IN CATTLE MARKET

Receipts for the week at Portland stock yards have been: Cattle 1931, calves 412, hogs 3151, sheep 3921, horses 42.

Optimism has ruled the cattle market this week and prices are five to ten cents higher than they were six days ago. Prime steers and cows were in demand and sold quickly. Best load of steers averaged $8.00 early in the week. Other top sales were $7.75 to $7.80 and $7.90 in small quantities. Butcher stuff had a good outlet and buyers filled orders with some choice cows, bulls and stags. Bulk cow top was $6.50 and $6.75 with one load at $6.90. Steer range closed $7.50 at $7.75 and bulls $5.00 and $5.50. A slight flurry on Thursday eased prices off about a nickel but the stock offered was not extra choice. By and large the beef situation has been very favorable.

Portland's swine market can always be depended upon for surprises. It sprang a new one this week by advancing a full dime to $8.75 and this advance was made notwithstanding a total receipt as large as that of last week. Outlet has greater capabilities than the trade anticipated and the run was disposed of at sellers' prices. Swine weights were better also, and quality averaged high. Bulk of light swine sold at 8.25 to $8.65. Heavy weights $7.25 to $7.50.

Mutton buying was limited to ewes, as yearlings and old wethers were not offerings. A strong ewe top at $3.90 was established and three full carcs went over the scales a (that figure). The lamb market was quiet to Wednesday and then set a new October record by going to $5.50 for an extra choice lot of Washington stock, representing the tail end of the 1913 lamb run from the Cascades. Bulk lamb top on average good grades is steady $5.00 to $5.25.

CLUB WILL MOVE TO CENTER OF STREET

The home of the publicity department of the commercial club will be moved to the middle of Eighth street against the bluff and will not be located upon county property.

The intention of the Weinhard estate to erect a new $12,000 postoffice on the site that is had donated to the city for publicity purposes until it needed the land for a building has forced the club off of the grounds. It was first suggested that the building be located in one corner of the county grounds, but H. S. Anderson, county judge, could not see that the building would improve the general appearance of the property.

A storm of protest was also aroused through the city on the ground that it would spoil the appearance of the county property and it is now probable that the county court will not permit the building there. The city has, however, allowed it a temporary home in the center of Eighth street against the bluff.

GET-RICH-QUICK WALLINGFORD

There are few people who have not read and thoroughly enjoyed the famous Wallingford stories which have been published in the magazines and in book form the past few years; and the comedy founded upon them by George M. Cohan has proved to be one of the most successful this prolific author has given a greatly public always seeking a new sensation and something to get a good hearty laugh from. It will be presented by The Baker Players all next week beginning with the usual Sunday matinee. Cohan has taken for his plot the episode of the covered carpet tacks and introduces all the familiar characters including Wallingford himself (some what different from the big financier of the stories) headle Daw himself, Anny, Bessie the black waitress at the hotel, Lamb, Harkins, Donahue the detective and all the rest. Instead of the usual failure of everyone to make money except these two bunco artists, he has forced them to make a success of their wild scheme in spite of themselves, turn honest, marry and become model citizens. There are four lively acts and the scenes take place at the town of Battlesbury, which they find a dead village and make over into a thriving metropolitan city full of rich and contented citizens; Citizens whom they had planned to fleecy and then make their usual "get away" from at the critical moment. The comedy is a scream from start to finish and the cast is one of the largest seen on the Baker stage this season. The production is also unusually large and important. It is a play everyone will enjoy to the limit and will continue all week with the usual matinees Sunday, Wednesday (bargain day) and Saturday as well as the bargain night Monday.

OFFICIALS SAY BOMB REPORT IS SILLY

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—Government officials today characterized as "supremely silly" the report that the Zeppelin "L 2" was destroyed yesterday by a boom dropped on it from an aeroplane hovering at a higher altitude than the dirigible.

a thing and no such thing was suspected, they said. There were aeroplanes in the air at the time of the explosion on the Zeppelin but their pilots were all known and even to imagine that any of them would have sought the dirigible's destruction was ridiculous.

Most experts were of the opinion that a magneto spark ignited the gas in the big bag which supported the three gondolas and their passengers. Lieutenant Baron Von Bluei, the only person on board the "L 2" who survived the Zeppelin's fall, died last night in great agony.
