Occasionally a commercial drummer prevents his modesty from crowding to the front.

A man always says things behind his wife's back when he is hooking up her dress.

The best way a girl gets out of a two who marries for a home is a chance to cook for boarders.

A few feminine tears or a shower of rain doesn't amount to much, but how a man does hate a flood?

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

OREGON CITY, Ore., Oct. 23.—(Editor of the Enterprise)—We hereby certify that the statements of this morning's Enterprise that Councilman Tooze at the council meeting last night, denounced the plan for the Clackamas pipe line; that he denied ever saying the Englebrecht well water was pure; that he declared that it was the duty of the council alone to hunt for a pure water supply; or that he denied having been asked for the test reports, are all false and in our judgment malicious, and we further hereby endorse Mr. Tooze's position on the water question entire.

Very truly,
L. P. HORTON,
FRED METZNER,
CHAS. S. NOBLE,
W. A. LONG.

OREGON CITY, Ore., Oct. 23.—(Editor of the Enterprise)—"Mill Worker" must certainly have gone out of his way to discover the "deplorable" conditions that he describes in this morning's issue. I have lived on Main street for over three years and have gone up and down that thoroughfare very frequently in season and out of season, alone or with my wife, or daughter.

During that time very few intoxicated men have been in evidence, extremely little boisterous profanity and certainly no "filthy" language which could offend the ears of the most fastidious lady.

What obtains within the precincts of the saloons and pool rooms dependent saith not as he does not frequent such establishments but, certainly, Main street is as quiet and free from anything obnoxious as the principal thoroughfare of any well regulated community. I am constrained to make these remarks in defense of our beautiful city, the demeanor of whose inhabitants containing the usual per centage of good, indifferent and bad will compare favorably with any town of its size in the United States.

SLUGGISH PRICES REPORTED IN HOPS

Several low-priced sales of hops of several days ago but little made public, so that there is but little snap to the trade. Purchases were shown several days at 21 and 23 cents a pound, and the latter for the best quality, but today the best bids are 22c and there is no keenness among the buyers to take hold, even at that figure.

There is almost total lack of inquiry from abroad; in fact the English trade is not even inclined to answer cables from this side.
