STILL WANT TO MOVE ELEVATOR

PETITION GOING ROUNDS TO GET COUNCIL TO CHANGE SITE OF STRUCTURE

WILL BE PRESENTED IN FEW DAYS

Boosters For New Scheme Have All Sorts of Reasons Why Other Streets Would Be More Advantageous

Petitions are being circulated through the city asking the council to reconsider and move the elevator from Seventh street to a new location on Eighth street.

The plan of the boosters for the new scheme is to get the petitions in condition to offer to the council at the next meeting on Wednesday evening. The contention is that the city owns its approach to the elevator at the head of Eighth street and that there would be no property to condemn or any preliminary legal fights to be fought through before the elevator could be completed.

It is also contended that the new postoffice will be at Eighth street and that the upper end of the street will be one of the important business sections of the city within the next few years and just as convenient as the present location.

The promoters of the new scheme plan to have the matter ready for the consideration of the council within the next few days. It is believed that the cost of the foundation is so small that the city could afford to make the change even at this late date and that it would be less expensive in the end than if the case is fought through with Mrs. Sarah Chase and the courts should find that the board of reviewers did not assess her damage high enough to cover the actual loss that she will suffer by the construction of the elevator and the opening of the street through her property.

WILLAMETTE HOLDS SPECIAL ELECTION

The city council of Willamette meet in a special meeting Monday and set November 17 at the date of the election to vote on their new charter.

There has been considerable mix-up for the past year in regard to the city charter, and it has been decided to settle the discussion by putting up an entirely new charter before the people.

In most respects the new charter is the same as the old, excepting in regard to the tax limit. Under the old charter the limit was placed at 15 mills while under the new it is placed at three.

The present tax assessment of Willamette is three mills which is one of the lowest in the county.

MILWAUKIE ALSO TO GET NEW POSTOFFICE HOME

MILWAUKIE, Ore., Oct. 27.—A joint stock company will be formed here to erect a $4000 fire-proof building on Monroe near Front street to be occupied by the Milwaukie postoffice December 1. The land is a single lot 50x100 feet located on the west side of the bank building on which a ten-year lease was made with the owner.

Work on the building will be started at once. An appropriation of $1800 has been provided to get modern furniture for the office. Automatic lock boxes will be used. About 300 will be installed. Milwaukie will have one of the best postoffices of any small town in the state.

WE DON'T WANT MORE TERRITORY, SAYS WILSON

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 27.—Declaration that the United States never would seek another foot of territory in conquest was voiced today by President Woodrow Wilson in opening the Southern Commercial congress here.

"And the United States," he continued, "must see to it that no other nation gains any territory on this hemisphere."

President Wilson hailed the completion of the Panama canal as "the emancipation of the Latin-American states from foreign control."

VAN BRAKLE SEEMS READY FOR FIGHT

Despite an adverse opinion from the attorney general of Oregon holding that he is disqualified and cannot hold the office of secretary of the Clackamas County Board of Health, Dr. J. A. Van Brakle seems to welcome the medical fight.

As soon as aware that Deputy District Attorney L. Stipp had filed in the circuit court a complaint in the nature of quo warranto, asking for his removal and alleging that he is not qualified under the laws of Oregon, to exercise the duties of his office, his attorneys J. N. Seivers and U'Ren & Schuebel offered to accept service on the complaint and will conduct the trial on behalf of the acting health officer.

Attorneys Clarence L. Eaton and Joseph E. Hedges will appear as counsel for the state of Oregon, their contention being that the county health officer must be a person competent to properly diagnose cases and if necessary to quarantine, and administer drugs and in general to carefully look after the sanitary condition of the county and the health of its people—a work which they assert an osteopath cannot properly accomplish unless he is a graduate of a "reputable medical college" as prescribed by statute.

DESERTION AGAIN BASIS FOR DIVORCE

Two suits for divorce were filed in the office of the county clerk Monday. Henry H. Yost brought suit against his wife, Madalena M. Yost, charging her with desertion. They were married April 21, 1912 at Salem.

HUERTA STILL PRESIDENT DESPITE ELECTION

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—The election yesterday resulted just as everyone had expected.

It was clear today that not enough votes were cast to elect a president. The congressional candidates who received majorities will get together, it was expected, and declare themselves elected—Huerta approving.

Then they will declare that the presidential, as distinguished from the congressional, election was invalid and ask Huerta to remain at the head of the government until another election can be held. This will be whenever Huerta wants one.

Persons familiar with the Mexican constitution said they did not see how the congressional election could be called valid and the presidential election void, in view of the fact that the presidential and congressional candidates were voted for on the same ballots. Practical politicians replied, however that this was a mere detail which would not be permitted to stand in the provisional government's way.

Isn't the immodesty of evil-mindedness in the carping critics of women's apparel rather than in the woman?

PRETTY WEDDING IS CELEBRATED

SCOTISH CLANS GATHER AT PARTY

Bobbie Burns Society Has Big Time and Hall Blossoms Out in Brilliant Colors For Event—Gypsies

(By Meta Finley Thayer)

An event of much interest to friends throughout the state was the marriage of Miss Mary S. Barlow to Mr. Henry Jasper Wilkins, of Portland, Sunday afternoon at Miss Barlow's home in Rose City park. Rev. Wm. G. Elliot, Jr., of the First Unitarian church performed the ceremony.

Miss Barlow was beautifully gowned in silver gray crepe de chine trimmed with silver and rose point lace, and carried bride roses. The only attendant was Miss Mildred Huntley, who wore white embroidered marquisette and carried Kilkenny roses. The party entered the living rooms, where the ceremony was performed, to the wedding march, played by Mrs. Cass Tull.

Clematis, chrysanthemums and cosmos formed the decorations, which were extremely beautiful.

A wedding repast was served at the home of Mr. Wilkins, adjoining that of the bride, the guests being seated at small tables handsomely decorated with carnations and ferns.

The bride is a member of a famous pioneer family, and her interesting personality has won for her an extensive circle of friends on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins left on the Shasta Limited for San Francisco and will sail on the Sengo Maru next Saturday for a five months' trip through Japan, China, and the Philippines.

Those attending from Oregon City were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount, Mr. and Mrs. Elderton, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nason, Mrs. Mary E. Barlow, Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Mrs. C. G. Huntley, Mrs. Anna Howard, Miss Mildred Huntley and Ralph Miller.

The many friends of J. A. Roman will regret to learn that he is very ill of pneumonia at his home in Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Roman is a member of Meade Post G. A. R. and attended the Gettysburg reunion, after which he spent some time visiting relatives in Philadelphia, returning to his home very recently. A reception which had been planned in Mr. Roman's honor has been necessarily postponed.

The Bobbie Burns society had a gird and Scotch Hallowe'en party last evening in Willamette hall. Shaded lights grilling jack-o'-lanterns, autumn leaves and baskets of red apples, carried out the Hallowe'en idea, while the Scotch and American flags reminded one that the occasion was international. The programme follows: Remarks . . . Chief William McLarty Duet . . . Mrs. Green and Mrs. Cooper Reading . . . Mrs. McLarty Song . . . Master Kenneth Woodward Reading . . . Mr. P. Forbes Solo . . . Mrs. Angus Matheson Club swinging . . . Mr. Robert Warner Song . . . Falls City Quartette

Members of the Willamette club and their friends are anticipating with much pleasure the dancing party which this popular club is to give on Friday evening in Busch's hall. Hallowe'en decorations will be a feature and Prasp's orchestra will furnish the music.

The Gypsies were entertained Saturday evening by Miss Zida Goldsmith at her home on 14th and Main streets. Miss Helen Daulton won first prize for "500" and Mrs. Keith was awarded the consolation prize. Dainty refreshments were served, the guests being seated at a large table, the center of which was a miniature Japanese garden. Various Japanese decorations prevailed in the living rooms also.

Those present were: Miss Aimee Bollaack, Miss Cis Pratt, Miss Helen Daulton, Miss Emily O'Malley, Miss Beuss Daulton, Mrs. Thos. A. Keith, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. J. Nelson Wisner and Mrs. M. D. Latourette.

WEST TO MAKE FIGHT TO HOLD STATE LAND

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 27.—Governor West announced today that he would make a fight to retain for the state several thousand acres of land, valued at about $1,000,000, embraced in a grant of 1869 to aid in the construction of a military wagon road from the navigable waters of Coos bay to Roseburg.

The federal government has brought suit against the Southern Oregon Company, successor to the Coos Bay Wagon Road company for the forfeiture of the land to the United States. Governor West has prepared a bill which he will ask one of the Oregon representatives in congress to introduce.

The glamorous, sun-glinted haze of languorous autumn days turns leisurely, behold, to every hue of gold!

Misses Cello and Bertha Goldsmith assisted in entertaining the guests.

The Oregon City Alumni association gave a delightful reception to all the teachers of the Oregon City schools Saturday evening at the high school building. The rooms were elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and jack-o'-lanterns. Refreshments were served cafeteria style, after which the guests enjoyed an impromptu programme and spelling match. A large number were present.

Miss Ida Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Williams, of Clackamas, and M. J. Chobessy were married on October 23rd at the home of friends in Sacramento, California.

The bride is popular in Portland as well as in her home town, and the groom is a member of the firm of North & Sturgis. Mr. and Mrs. Chobessy will be at home after November 10th at 369 Broadway, Portland.

Twenty little lads and lassies made merry at the Painton home near Meldrum Tuesday, when Miss Mary Jane Painton entertained a number of her schoolmates. The home was gaily decorated for the occasion and the children enjoyed music, games, and story telling by Mrs. Painton. After delicious refreshments were served by the little hostess's sisters, Miss Helen and Miss Doris, an impromptu program was given by the children, which proved very delightful to all.

CANAL FORTS MAY PROVE TO BE WORTHLESS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—That a secret test last fall proved the fortifications about the Panama canal were worthless was learned here today, following an announcement that the Atlantic fleet would assemble off Panama in February for a series of maneuvers to put the fortifications to another test. Many changes have been made since the test last fall, and many government officials, including President Wilson, contemplate attending the maneuvers.

BARDE & LEVITT SHOWS PROFIT

RECEIVER DECLARES DIVIDEND FOR A LARGE CROWD OF HUNGRY CREDITORS

ADMINISTRATION COST IS HEAVY

Estimated Legal Steps Taken Will Run Bill Up to More Than $10,000 Before Estate Has Been Closed

Barde & Levitt has declared a 25 percent dividend for the creditors and another one is in sight that will soon be divided among those to whom the company owes money.

B. N. Hicks, referee in bankruptcy, Monday authorized the declaration of the dividends for the benefit of the 173 creditors of the concern. He also signed a permit authorizing the sale of $20,000 worth of stock in the concern of Barde & Son, of Portland, to raise cash for the satisfaction of the creditors of the concern.

It is estimated that the costs of administration of the bankrupt estate will be fully $10,000. The management of the four stores has entailed the appointment of receivers at each place and a keeper of the stock at a high salary. This has added to the cost and the total will run close to $10,000, it is now estimated.

It is believed that another dividend will be declared later by the purchaser and authorized by the receiver but just how much this will be is still uncertain.

HUMANE SOCIETY IN ANNUAL MEETING

The Clackamas County Humane society held its meeting Monday night in the Bank of Oregon City at which officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Miss Anita McCarver was elected president for the fifteenth time as was George A. Harding to the office of vice-president. The secretary Mrs. E. G. Caulfield was elected and E. G. Caulfield was chosen treasurer again for his fifteenth year of office. The new directors were Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Caulfield and George A. Harding.

The president delivered a report of the work done through the year in which she recommended that an officer be secured to report the cases of cruelty that have come to the attention of the society and assist in making the arrests and prosecuting the offenders. She mentioned several instances of cruelty to animals that have come to the attention of the organization and said that many others had been reported. She also favors a campaign of human education through the city and county for the protection of dumb animals.

Mrs. Ray E. Cole, of Portland, formerly Miss Bertha Long, of this city, was in Oregon City the fore part of the week visiting friends and relatives.

ORDINANCES TO BE ENFORCED

LIVE WIRE COMMITTEES HAVE MEETING AND PLAN FOR CLEAN-UP OF CITY

TO INTRODUCE NEW REGULATIONS

Want a Food and Market Inspector and May Get a Woman if Measure Passes Council—Other Schemes

Beginning at once, enforcement of the barn ordinance that has been recently passed by the city council will be started under the supervision of the police and health and the civic improvement committees of the Live Wires.

At a meeting Monday night, it was decided to begin the prosecution of all violators of the ordinance and to see that the sanitary conditions of the city were improved as lies within the power of the city under the provisions of the ordinance that had been passed.

The committees will also ask the council to pass through as soon as possible ordinances for the collection of garbage and one appointing a food and market inspector who will have charge of all of the supplies that are sold through the various food houses of the city.

It is possible that this inspector may be a woman, if the ordinance is passed for the women of the city have been eager for the passage of such an ordinance and have made suggestions to the various committees of the Live Wires showing that the interest in such an ordinance is general among them.

On November 6, the two committees will have a luncheon at which time additional plans for the improvement of the city will be outlined and a program worked out.

JUNK DEALER HELD BY JUSTICE COURT

S. Hoffman, a dealer in second hand goods, was arrested Monday on a charge of buying stolen property.

Under the complaint that was filed in the court of John N. Seivers, justice of the peace, he is said to have purchased the brass that was taken from the property of the Crown-Columbia paper mills several nights ago. The mills have several times reported the loss of property on the water front and have called the attention of the police to some small thefts that have been committed there. Only a few days ago, two men were arrested in connection with the loss of goods from inside one of the mills.

RED ROCK ROADS.

The road systems of the Panama-Pacific International exposition will form a part of an artistic color scheme. A material that will be widely used will be the "red rock" indigenous to California, the rich tint of which will lessen the glare and add to the warmth and color of the grounds.
