COMPANY L ATHLETIC CLUB TO BE FORMED

Company L, the local national guard organization will have a club, to be called the "Company L Athletic Club," and the plans of Captain Blanchard are carried out.

Already preliminary meetings have been held, plans have been made, and the regular organization will take place within a few days.

All the members of the company, about 63, will be members of the club and be free from any dues or taxes. Captain Blanchard plans to accept about 40 outside men so as to bring the total enrollment up to 100.

They will hold regular weekly meetings and several times a month will pull off smokers. The local commander figures that there is no Y. M. C. A. in this city and that a club of this kind would fill a long felt want.

An instructor will probably be imported from Portland to take charge of the athletic side of the work.

HIS OLD SCHOOL SPIRIT NEVER LEFT HIM

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 30.—Calling upon him to travel clear across the continent to help his alma mater down the Yale university eleven, Harvard has asked Hamilton Corbett to assist in the coaching of the crimson eleven for the rest of the season. Corbett received a wire from Coach Houghton Monday morning and departed for the east Monday night, revealing that the old college spirit never lapses.

ENGLISH GOLFERS FIND OREGON KNOWS GOLF

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 30.—Vardon and Ray, the English golfers, found H. K. B. Davis and E. Chandler Egan their Portland opponents, as hard as any matches they have found in their tour. In the 36-hole four-handed match played on the links of the Waverly Country club today, Egan and Davis held their opponents to 2 up in the 36 holes played.

It was a day of wonderful playing on the part of all four and when the noon halt was called the representatives of the Portland club had the match 4 up at 18 holes.

MULTNOMAH AND SAILORS TO FIGHT IT OUT

One of the closest games in the season in local sportdom will be played Saturday when the Multnomah eleven will meet a delegation of husky sailors from Bremerton navy yard. Both sides have been plugging away for several weeks and are confident of victory.

SPORTING BRIEVITIES

Lincoln high, of Portland, clinched the Portland interscholastic title when they walloped Portland Academy to the score of 12 to 0.

Dolan is hopeful of seeing O. A. C. hand one to Oregon.

Down in Portland the newsboys are organizing a basketball team.

The White Sox landed on the Giants to the tune of seven to one the middle of this week. Scott handled the ball for the White Sox.

Several baseball players are starting a fight for "freedom." They claim that they will not sign contract until their demands are granted.

ALL-BLACKS DEFEAT NEVADA 55-0

RENO, Nev., Oct. 30.—Scoring with absolute certainty and running rings around their opponents, the New Zealand All-Blacks put up a fine exhibition of the rugby game here this afternoon and defeated Nevada 55 to 0. Only once was their goal in danger but the ball was immediately kicked out and within half a minute later carried across the Nevada goal.

DANCING CLUB CLOSES SEASON

DELIGHTFUL PARTY IS HELD AT BUSCH'S HALL BY WILLAMETTE CLUB

REORGANIZATION NEXT WINTER PLAN

Miss Helen Painton Entertains Her Friends at Halloween Affairs At Batdorf Hall—Decorations Are Novel

(By Meta Finley Thayer)

The Willamette Dancing Club gave one of its delightful parties last evening, closing the 1913 season. Busch's hall was simply decorated for the occasion, the mirrored walls reflecting the many handsome gowns worn. The music was by Prasp's orchestra.

The closing party proved so successful in every way that plans are being made for reorganization of the club.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McBain, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. Harry Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Mount, Mr. and Mrs. Livy Stipp, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Logus, Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Pratt, of Portland; S. J. Manning, Miss Sidonia Shaw, Harold Swafford, Miss Nellie Swafford, Ralph Parker, Wallace Mount, of Olympia; Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Morris, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Messner, Mr. and Mrs. George Swafford, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hendry, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mulvey, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Legler, Jos. Hedges, Miss Eva Albrecht, Lloyd Harding, Miss Neita Harding, Homer Hallowell, Miss Iva Harrington, John Busch, Miss Hazel Tooze, J. Risley, Leighton Kelly, Mrs. Meta Finley Thayer, Mrs. Augusta Warner, William Burns, Miss Eva Burns, Lionel Gordon, of Portland; Miss Madge Brightbill, Harry Gordon, of Portland; Miss Florence Grace, Orin Moore, Miss Silcox, Kent Moody, Miss Martin, Wallace McCord, Miss Ruby McCord, Thos. Burns, L. C. Williams, Miss Fraker, Lorraine Ostrum.

One of the charming Halloween affairs of the week was the dancing party given Wednesday evening in Batdorf hall, near Meldrum, by Miss Helen Painton and Miss Winnie Kern. The hall was decorated with all the suitable Halloween novelties and about forty-five couples enjoyed the evening, a number of Oregon City high school students being among the guests.

The high school orchestra, with Miss Florence Grace as pianist delighted the dancers with their special music.

Mrs. Frederick W. Bruechert, with her two children, Elizabeth and William, have returned from a six weeks' trip through the East, where they have been visiting relatives and friends.

HAGAMANN WANTS DOPE; THAT'S ALL

H. W. Hagemann, of Logan, Thursday night denied that he had filed any protest whatever to the actions of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in the Preserve at the headwaters of the Clackamas and contends that he simply asked the interior department for information as to the water flow and the elevation of the stream source.

He says that he had no idea of protesting over the alleged shutting off of the intake of the Oregon City line or any line that was proposed. He merely wanted information from the department, he says, and he thought that the place he went for it was the proper place to get it.

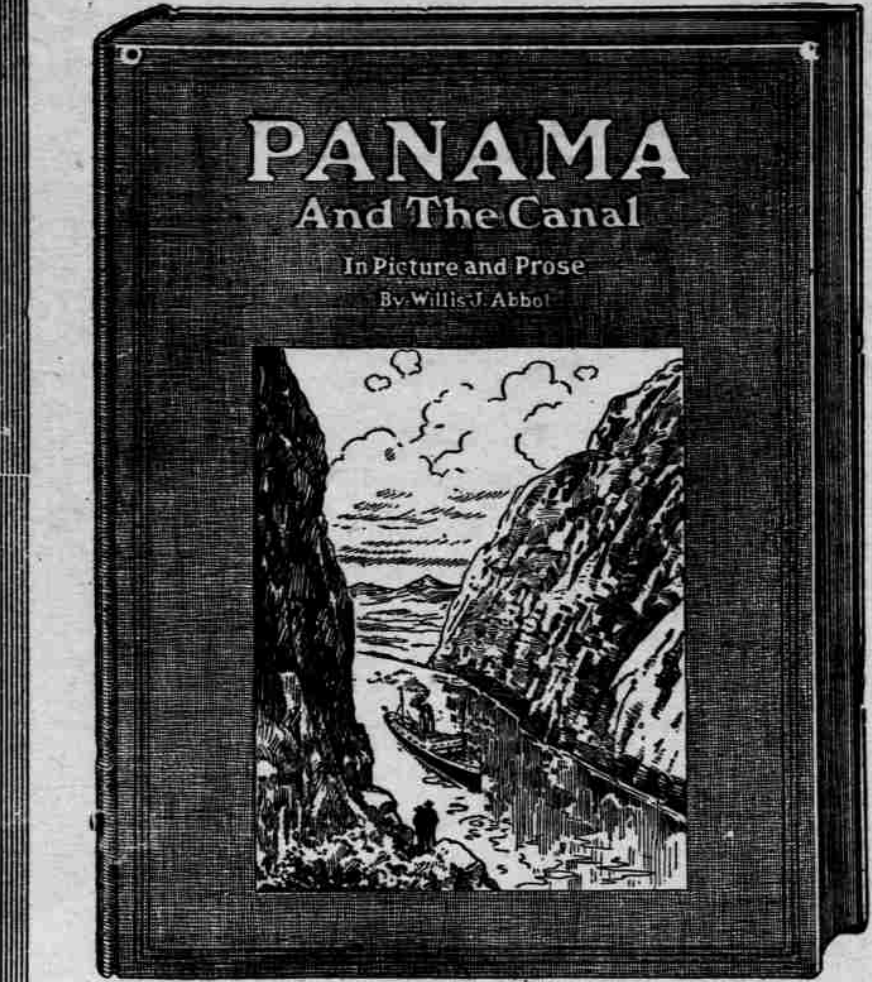

He further says that he plans to get all of the information that he can on the water source for the city and that he is as much interested in having good water here as any other booster for the new line.

It is reported that Huerta may resign. But would that do any good? Even Thaw has been out of print and forgotten by nearly everybody lately.

Already Sulzer has been offered "big money" to lecture. A governor removed through impeachment is a novelty, and doubtless would "draw" for awhile.

CALLAVAN LANDS ON POLITICAL TRICKERY

J. E. Callavan, candidate for councilman from the third ward, has publicly denounced the effort to class him with the wet and now says that he is, was, and always has been a supporter of the cause of prohibition.

In a statement issued Thursday night, he says that there has been some effort made to align him with the wet forces and that he is neither in sympathy with the saloons nor has he ever supported their cause. He believes in prohibition and will conduct his campaign for office on that platform.

It's easy to fill empty heads with hot air.

THE SMART SEPARATE COAT A FASHION DEMAND

Straight, simple, almost severe of line are many of the long, separate coats. Others are belted and trimmed to give the effect of a suit. With the increasing popularity of the one-piece dress a coat of this sort is almost a necessity. The soft velours and fur fabrics appeal as cold, crisp days approach, but the smooth stuffs and tweeds and serges are always appropriate.

One of the smartest and most practical of this style of coats seen this season was of brownish tweed, an almost invisible mixture, collared and cuffed in tobacco brown broadcloth. This is an excellent suggestion for 1913. This model would also be attractive in a bright blue velours de laine, with collar and cuffs of scarlet. In size 16 7/8 requires 3 3/4 yards of 41 inch material with 1/4 yard of contrasting stuff.

A dainty, graceful afternoon dress for the boarding school girl is shown in 8011. The skirt is a peg-top and the blouse opens over a natty little surplice vest. This may be developed most effectively in printed taffetas, bringing out some of the new color combinations—blues, greens and brick reds, with a plain color for the vest and cuffs.

Size 16 may be made with 4 1/4 yards of 36 inch material.

No. 7982—sizes 14, 16, 17 and 18.

No. 8011—sizes 14, 16, 17 and 18.
