"THE KERRY DANCE."

O h, the days of the Kerry dancing!
Oh, the ring of the piper's tune!
Oh, for some of those hours of gladness.
Gone—alas, like our youth—too soon!
When the boys began to gather
In the glen of a summer's night
And the Kerry piper's tuning
Made us long with wild delight
Oh, to think of it,
Oh, to dream of it, fills my heart
With tears!
Was there ever a sweeter colleen
In the dance than Elly More
Or a brouder lad than Thaddy
As he boldly took the floor?
"Lads and lassies, to your places!
Up the middle and down again!"
Ah, the merry hearted laughter
Ringing through the happy glen
Oh, to think of it,
Oh, to dream of it, fills my heart
With tears!
Time goes on, and the happy years
Are dead,
And one by one the merry hearts
Are led
Silent now is the wild and lonely
glen,
Where the bright, glad laugh will echo ne'er again.
Only the faint of days gone by in my heart I hear
Loving voices of the past once more
And the sound of the dear old music
Soft and sweet, as in days of yore.

THEY LIKE OREGON CABBAGE IN SOUTH

California's largest market has sent acknowledgment that they never know what first class cabbage was until supplies from Oregon began to arrive there recently.

A number of carloads have already been shipped to the southern trade and every crate of it arrived in perfect condition. According to reports from the southland, the stock was a complete surprise to the trade of the Bay City.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

OREGON CITY, Ore., Oct. 31.—(Editor of The Enterprise)—On November 4th, the taxpayers of Clackamas county are going to vote on the increase of the county school superintendent's salary.

He has charge of 124 school districts and joint charge of 12 joint districts, making a total of 136 school districts; and the supervision of 11,312 school children whose interests he must attend to.

There are 29 teachers in Clackamas county today receiving a higher salary than the county school superintendent. A few of these are: Canby paying its principal $100 per month. Milwaukie paying its principal $115 per month. West Linn paying its principal $115 per month. Willamette paying its principal $111.50 per month. Estacada paying its principal $105 per month.

And Oregon City pays its city school superintendent $1900 annually for practically 9 months work. The county is provided with three supervisors, each drawing a salary of about $1300 annually for practically nine months work; while our county school superintendent, whose responsibilities and amount of work far exceeds that of any of the above mentioned offices, receives a salary of only $1000 annually for twelve months' continuous work.

With the increase of his salary to $1600 annually, the county school superintendent will assume in addition to his regular duties the duties of one supervisor, thus making an actual saving of several hundred dollars to the taxpayers of Clackamas county.

The present salary was fixed in 1899 when there were fewer school districts and the number of school children was less, and the salaries of principals ranked from $47.50 to $80. These positions are now paying salaries from $90 to $115 with the increased amount of work; higher cost of living and increase of teachers salaries in general; that of the superintendent of Clackamas county has remained the same.

Since 1899 the salaries of 22 county school superintendents have been increased. Some of these are:

Multnomah	1899	1913
Jackson	$1500	$2500
Crook	400	1800
Columbia	550	1300
Grant	700	1200

The gross injustice of our county superintendent's salary not having been increased must be apparent to all. And every fair-minded voter will surely cast his ballot in favor of this increase.

Respectfully,
ELNORA G. GINTHER.
(From a teacher's point of view).

OREGON CITY, Ore., Oct. 31.—(Editor of The Enterprise)—The types frequently make the soberest writer shockingly incoherent!

Several distressing examples occur in my article on "The Sterilization Act" in this morning's issue. "Favor every measure" becomes "favor every increase." "Leading to the control of plague, etc.," is transformed into "The somewhat trite dictum, 'the inherent right of every child to be well born,' assumes the inaudible form 'the inherent right of every child to a well body!'" Everyone has heard the sad story of the gentle young poet who wrote: "He kissed her under the silent stars," and killed himself when the types made it "He kicked her under the cellar stairs!"

DR. W. C. SCHULTZE.

WILLAMETTE, Ore., Oct. 31.—(Editor of The Enterprise)—Kingly allow me to correct a mistake published in the morning paper a few days ago, wherein you say that Willamette "has only a three-mill tax." Last year we were assessed ten mills, city tax. The new charter reads that five mills will be levied and an additional five mills if the people want it.

Please publish this at the request of the TAXPAYERS.

WHAT I SAW IN IOWA.

OREGON CITY, Ore., Oct. 31.—(Editor of The Enterprise)—For the welfare of my fellow men, I will tell some of my experiences in Iowa. For twenty-four years I lived in that state and for most of that time was engaged in a work which enabled me to get acquainted with the greater part of the state. I found towns with no saloons,—a clean, well educated, highly respected, Christian population, with nice homes, flourishing business, the people living in peace and plenty.

Then I found some towns where they had saloons; there were dirty streets, broken sidewalks, a class of poor people who had to be supported by the town. Therefore, the taxes were very heavy and most of the time the jails were occupied. Yes, I saw towns in a disgraceful condition, but the saloons in a flourishing condition. The saloons in Iowa produced a bitter fruit—insanity, profanity, poor orphans, poverty and murder.

What the saloon did in Iowa it will do anywhere else and for that reason all the Christian people of Oregon City at this time, should vote the saloon out. I do love the saloon keeper, and they surely deserve a better occupation. While the saloon keeper and the brewer may fear a financial loss from a dry vote, still it will be a gain on both sides.

Mr. Pifer a brewer at Cedar Falls, Iowa, had an experience in this line. In one of the meetings of our church at that town, Mrs. Pifer got converted and without the urging of any man, but by the voice of the Holy Spirit she took an axe, went into the cellar and broke the bottom of every barrel, and then got the men folks to pump out the cellar into the street; and from that day the brewery of Cedar Falls has been closed. Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Pifer's children gave $20,000 to an old people's home at Cedar Falls in honor of their parents. What is possible in Iowa is also possible in Oregon City.

A MATURED ENDOWMENT POLICY

James M. Mark, Oregon City, Oregon.
Policy No. 214911—Northwestern Mutual Life.
$1000—20 year Endowment with 20 year settlement.
Quarterly premium, $12.65 for 20 years.
Cash paid at maturity$1328.39
$12.65 quarterly for 20 years 1012.00
Excess received over all premiums paid$ 316.39
Besides the Life Insurance.
A self compelling way to save money quarterly, so you have $1000.00 and its earnings in 20 years if you live; or $1000, and the additions, anytime, should you die.
Mr. Mark, in a letter regarding the above says: "We received the check for the insurance due and will say we are more than pleased. We feel that it was a very good investment; we paid in $12.65 quarterly for 20 years and we feel that it is almost like finding $1328.39, the amount we received, and will take this opportunity of thanking you for the promptness in paying the same."

Only the Northwestern Mutual Life gives such good results.
