SOCIETY HAS A BUSY WEEK

MANY AFFAIRS OF SOCIAL NATURE HAPPEN IN THE HOMES OF CITY

HALLOWEEN CENTER OF INTEREST

Parties Are Given to Celebrate Night of Witches Though the Rain Spoiled Most of Programs Planned

(By Meta Finley Thayer)

One of the attractive affairs of the week was the Five Hundred party with which Miss Neita Harding entertained the Bachelor Girls and a few friends Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding. Yellow was the predominant color for decorations, being carried out in chrysanthemums, autumn leaves and Japanese lanterns, and the refreshments were in keeping with the Halloween season. The prizes were beautiful, the fortunate winners being Dr. Guy Mount and Miss Dolly Pratt.

Miss Harding's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenneth Stanton, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Mount, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton B. Harding, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie, Mrs. Neita Barlow Lawrence, Miss Dolly Pratt, Miss Wynne Loney, Miss June Charman, Miss Hester Dannemann, Percy Caulfield, Charles Parker, Dr. Guy Mount, Russel Watrous, Dr. Van Brakle, Lee Harding.

The King's Daughters had tea with Mrs. L. A. Morris Friday afternoon and the afternoon session for their Christmas Bazaar to be given early in December. Those attending were:

Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. H. S. Mount, Mrs. A. C. Warner, Mrs. Herbert Vernet, Mrs. A. L. Beattie, Miss Hester Dannemann.

Mrs. H. S. Moody will be hostess of this society next Friday afternoon.

The Philaetha class of the Baptist Sunday school gave a Halloween party Friday evening with the Baran class as their guests. The party took place at the home of Miss Ona Renner, one of the Philaetha girls. The rooms were elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and jack-o'-lanterns, and the refreshments partook of the nature of Halloween. Those present were: Mrs. Olmstead, Mrs. Rugg, Miss Daisy Coulson, Miss Isabel Van Brakle, Miss Maud Moran, Miss Genevieve Capen, Miss Anna Conkin, Miss Ruth Kunzman, Miss Ona Renner, Kenneth Latourette, Leo S. Burdon, George Edwards, George Ott, Louis Conkin, Wesley Milliken, Mr. Schindis, Mr. McAnulty, Mr. Latourette.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hugh Roberts entertained a number of friends Thursday evening at their home in Jennings Lodge. Their attractive new bungalow has recently been completed and the occasion was in the nature of a house-warming. Halloween decorations prevailed throughout the rooms, and bright dahlias gave an additional touch of color. Seven tables of "500" were played, the handsome prizes being awarded Miss Mabel Moore and Mr. George Ostrom, the consolation prizes going to Mrs. Jennie Jones and Mr. A. McFarlane. Mr. George Ostrom on behalf of the guests, presented Mr. and Mrs. Roberts with a beautiful set of china, in appreciation of many services rendered the community. The host and hostess were assisted by their son and daughter Arthur and Bess Roberts.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Losey, Mr. and Mrs. DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. George Ostrom, Mr. and Mrs. William Cook, C. P. Morse, Shelby D. Shaver, S. F. Scripture, H. M. Hayes, Donald MacFarlane, Arthur Roberts, Mesdames B. M. Hart, Mrs. B. Bruehert, Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. H. J. Robinson, Misses Doris DeLong, Bess Roberts, Alice MacFarlane, Mabel Morse.

BOARD OF WATER COMMISSIONERS ELECTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL

C. SCHUBEL

Fred McCausland, Chris Schubel, and John W. Loder are members of the new water board that has been elected by the city council to take the place of the old board that it believes it has discharged.

The new board has not yet assumed the duties of the office and probably will not now until after the courts have determined the questions at issue and the authority of the city council to discharge the former members. Until those points are determined, the authority of the board cannot be effective, it is said, and the plan still remains more or less without control. C. H. Caulfield, Joseph E. Hodges, and James Reake were the members of the former board.

AN ANSWER FROM LEADING WOMEN OF THIS CITY

"Our attention has been called to an attack on the prohibition movement by Mrs. Dunlavy of Portland. Some of us who worked with her in the suffrage movement regret to see her reproducing as new, arguments as old-worn as the old stock ones against woman suffrage: that, prohibition don't prohibit is like the argument that 'women don't want the ballot.' How do you know until it is tried?"

Can't Cure Every

"Prohibition has not yet absolutely prohibited murder, or theft, or graft, but it has reduced all of them to a minimum. It has never absolutely prohibited intemperance, but it has taken whiskey out of the list of respectable beverages.

"Mrs. Dunlavy belongs to a past era, when every body drank as a matter of course. Her argument belongs to primitive conditions when an ox-team was a common vehicle and local amusement halls were limited to bar-rooms.

Today it takes the steady eye and hand to guide the electric car, no drunkard need apply. Life is at stake. Today, no longer the mass of our youth prefer the click of glasses in a smoky saloon—clear-eyed and clean, by hundreds they flock to the picture shows, the most formidable rivals of the old time saloon. There the boy takes his best girl, the husband his wife and children, where all enjoy the scene together.

Happy Families.

No state in the union shows a happier development of family life than Kansas, where ice cream resorts have become vertebrae gardens for harmless social gatherings. Legitimate business absorbs the dimes and nickies that once went to swell the coffers of gin dealers.

"$10,000 a year is all the argument our Oregon City whiskey friends present. $10,000 a year for scattered homes and broken hearts. $10,000 a year for ragged, neglected drunkards' children to whom benevolent people regularly send gifts of charity. $10,000 for the poor women of this town who go out by the day's work at scrub brush and wash tub to feed their drunken husbands, and worse than fatherless children, $10,000 a year for the privilege of filling drunkards' graves and placing new widows on the pension list.

Build Stores, Not Saloons.

"The homes these mothers, industry needs these men, the community needs these children to report in the ranks of future success. The law says 'Thou shalt not lay pitfalls for the unwary.'

"Brother saloon-keepers, turn your saloons into stores, markets and shops. We will all be more than ready to lend a helping hand to give you a new start into lives of usefulness. It is not you but your business that we oppose.

"Dr. McLoughlin, the venerated founder of this city, was the first prohibitionist in Oregon. Seventy years ago he purchased and destroyed the entire cargo of a visiting rum ship to prevent it falling into the hands of the people. 'An Indian drunk is a demon,' he said. 'Is a white man drunk any better?'

TO BOOST ALL THE COUNTIES IN VALLEY

Plans for a permanent organization are being rapidly completed which will take charge of the big display to be made at the Panama Pacific exhibition in 1915. At a meeting held in Albany the latter part of this week which was attended by representatives of all the eight counties, great enthusiasm was shown and arrangements were made for a meeting to be held at Salem on November 13.

The Clackamas county representative was O. E. Freytag, publicity manager of the Oregon City Commercial club, and he returned with a glowing account of the work planned by the new organization. "It is the only way which will work out for the exhibit in 1915," said Mr. Freytag to a representative of the Enterprise. "Instead of eight separate exhibits, there will be one big showing. It is foolish to try to draw county lines in a matter like this exhibit. When we boost Clackamas county, we boost Marion or Lane county and they benefit as much as we. But if we go together and get the pick of this great valley, then we can make a showing that will be the center of attraction for the entire exhibit."

"Daddy" Blower, of Portland, visited friends in Oregon City Saturday.

As a republic or democracy, Mexico indeed seems a hopeless case.

CARVER TO ASK FOR FRANCHISE

NEW ROAD WANTS RIGHT-OF-WAY THROUGH STREETS FOR ITS LINE

TO BE ELECTRICALLY EQUIPPED

Proposed Franchise Gives Permit to Use Any Sort of Motive Power But Steam—Common User Clause

Stephen Carver will ask the city council at its next meeting to grant a franchise for his electrical line through the heart of the city, specifying certain streets he wishes included in his right of way.

The line would run on Center street from the northerly boundary of the city, thence along Center street in a southerly direction to Fifteenth street, thence along Fifteenth street westerly to Water street thence along Water street to the southerly terminus of that highway.

The proposed franchise also provides that the line may use any form of power with the exception of steam and that the cars shall travel through the city at not to exceed 15 miles an hour but to be at all times to the control and regulations of the city council.

The construction work is to begin within three months after the franchise is passed and cars shall be operating upon the line within 18 months thereafter. It also contains a common user clause for the Clackamas Southern Railway and runs for a period of 25 years.

The matter will be submitted to the city council at its next meeting when the road will apply for the franchise along the lines it has outlined.

ALBANY SEES GOOD IN ITS PROHIBITION

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 1.—Thirty business men of Albany came to Salem last night to aid in the fight to make the town "dry." A big mass meeting was held at the Armory, over which Mayor Steeves, of this city, presided, all the speakers predicting that the capital city after next Tuesday would be arrayed with the prohibition cities of the state.

Mayor Gilbert and other residents of Albany who spoke declared that putting the licensed saloon out of business had been of great benefit to the municipality. They denied that prohibition had made taxes higher and insisted that the people had been more prosperous than ever since the city voted out saloons seven years ago.

TAMMANY IS IN BAD THROUGH NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—In many respects the city campaign now drawing to a feverish close, greatly resembles the one of four years ago.

In 1909, Tammany was conceded on all sides to have a walkover. At the last moment, William Randolph Hearst introduced himself, headed a ticket of his own and elected the fusion nominee outside of Gaynor, who was more of a trial than a comfort to Tammany.

WELL MEANT BUT FUTILE

REAL CONVICTS REDUCED TO FORT OF AMATEUR TO GET INSIDE FACTS

COULD NOT GET BEYOND SURFACE

Never Penetrated into the Deeper Circumstances of the Life of a Man Inside of Federal Prison Walls

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 1.—The effort of Thomas M. Osborne, who served self-imposed sentence at Auburn prison to learn at first hand the psychological effect of penitentiary life among the prisoners, was characterized today as well-meant, but futile, an article in Good Words, the paper printed in the Atlanta Federal prison.

"This article under the heading 'An Amateur Convict,' said Mr. Osborne's trip to prison with a strict logical effect of penitentiary life among the prisoners, was characterized today as well-meant, but futile, an article in Good Words, the paper printed in the Atlanta Federal prison.

"The article adds, however, that 'though this penitentiary Columbus really may have gained some ideas about physical influences in jail, he really got no deeper than the surface of the influences in which all bona fide convicts must live.'

WETS PULL OFF ONE MORE FUNNY IDEA

With all of the "arguments" of the saloons, a letter has been sent to each of the voters of the city calling their attention to the "reasons" for voting the city wet again at the forthcoming election.

The petition is signed by 27 names, none of whom are banks, manufacturing establishments, lawyers, doctors, or others who are interested in the moral elevation of the community.

Following are the names of the signers: Frank Busch, C. W. Pope, J. B. Fairclough, Charles Schram, W. L. Little, J. J. Tobin, Wilson & Cooke, Hogg Bros. A. L. Beattie, T. H. Brightbill, C. W. Friederick, G. E. Griffith, James Addins, C. T. Toole, F. C. Gadske, Geo. Reddaway, G. H. Young, Charles J. Hood, E. B. Anderson, A. H. Schram, R. Petzold, H. D. Larsen, William Gardner, T. P. Randall, E. L. Johnson, J. M. Tracy, Sr.

SPECIAL SERVICES ON AT CHURCHES

Today is "Everybody go to church Sunday."

Everybody in Oregon City, or in the whole of Clackamas county, for that matter, is urged by the pastors to attend services in an Oregon City church today. Through the co-operation of the local ministers, special programs have been arranged in all the churches and an active campaign has been carried on to advise the people of this section of the plan.

Every effort will be made to pack the churches with great throngs and from present indications every church in the city will have a record attendance. It is probable that every seat will be filled and even the standing room taken up, according to the local church workers.

Mrs. C. H. Meissner left Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avison, of Ellensburg, Washington. Mrs. Meissner's little son accompanied her.

Old Porfirio Diaz knew his Mexicans.

CLACKAMAS CHICKEN

BEAT'S SISTERS WITH SIZE OF ITS PRODUCT

There is a certain college-bred hen down in Benton county who claims world's championship when it comes to the number of eggs she can lay in a year. But it takes a plain Clackamas county chicken, without the benefits of a college education and the careful getting of university professors, to produce the world's champion egg.

Bettie shines forth in her simple glory in the barn yard of a Clackamas county farmer. Unconscious that she probably holds a world's record, she lives her simple life free from the careful attention and complex life of her Benton county sister.

The egg that Bettie laid measures eight and a quarter inches in circumference one way and six and a half the other. She is owned by Mrs. Clara E. Smith, of Mulino.

BINGHAM FUNERAL HOUR IS CHANGED

The funeral of George Bingham, who was shot near Medford Tuesday, will be held at Salem Tuesday at 2 p. m. o'clock under the direction of the Salem lodge of Elks.

While the funeral will be under the direction of the Salem lodge, Oregon City will be represented by a large delegation.
