GARY TURNS IN HIS RESIGNATION

DECIDES TO QUIT AFTER VOTERS REFUSE TO INCREASE HIS SALARY

GETS A BIG CHANGE IN PORTLAND

Old Glory of Prophet Not Without Honor Save in His Own Country Applies to School Official Here

Theodore J. Gary, for the past five years county superintendent, has resigned.

Turned down by the people at the polls, he has accepted a better position with the Trades School of Portland as instructor of English and will assume the duties of the place after November 17. The resignation was submitted to the county court Friday afternoon after the court has heard several cases on school matters and had taken them under advisement.

The request that he had made of the people for an increase in salary was turned down by a vote of 2172 to 2961. He had asked that it should be increased from $1000 to $1600 and the request was denied. The new position will pay him $1350 annually and will give him opportunities for promotion that could not come in his present line of work.

For many years, he has been connected with the rural school work of the county. He has been a teacher in the country schools during part of that time and has served as principal at Milwaukie, five years at West Oregon City, and three years at Willamette. He was considered one of the authorities of the state on matters that pertained to the work in the country schools of the state and educators generally give him credit for placing the system in this county on a basis that ranks well with the other counties of this and other states.

ELECTRIC LINE HAS FILED ITS MORTGAGE

The Mohlia Electric company has filed with County Recorder Dedman a mortgage for $50,000 to cover the cost of some improvement work that it has in mind and for the building and maintenance of the line.

The mortgage is protected by the property of the company and is filed with the recorder to gain ready money for the construction and improvement work of the road. It is made out in favor of the Portland Trust company in return for the cash which the concern finds that it needs for the line.

In some cases the pension is much preferable to the hospital.

He was born in Scotland and came to Oregon in 1883. He has always been prominent in local affairs, having been, besides a Mason a member of the Grange.

He leaves his wife and one daughter, Mrs. O'Donnell, of Seattle.

CANBY BOARD ADDS TO SCHOOL FURNISHING

CANBY, Ore., Nov. 7.—(Special)—The school board is adding as rapidly as possible to the equipment of the school house and has lately purchased a fire gong, which was used for the first time Wednesday morning, when everyone was out of the building in slightly over two minutes, all though no marring of the fire drill had been given. It is expected that after a few more drills this time can easily be cut in half.

A large new revolving globe will be purchased within a few days, that will be at least eighteen inches in diameter. A number of new desks have been purchased with in the past week and it is hoped to have them installed in the high school at the beginning of next week.

The board bought a number of new desks at the beginning of the year and though it had more than enough but the enrollment has been so large that all had been filled up. Two large clocks will be purchased and placed in the halls of the building this coming week, so that the correct time may be secured in the building, as there has been no official time that was accessible in the past, it has led to some confusion.

The Ladies Aid society met Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bradford for an all-day session. At noon a delightful dinner was served. They worked for the coming bazaar which is to be held about the first of December. About sixteen people were present and a large amount of work was accomplished.

Dr. A. T. Murdy has completed the finishing of his new offices in the Masonic building, where he has moved the last of this week.

EPISCOPAL RECTOR RETURNS TO CHURCH

Reverend C. W. Robinson, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church has returned from his leave of absence in the east. He spent the summer at Newport, R. I., where he was married. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will take up their residence in the rectory of the church and he will preach at the morning and evening services at the usual hours Sunday. He was a delegate to the general convention of the Episcopal church at New York during the first three weeks in October.

It is thought the next move will be the "passing of the buck" by President Wilson to congress, on the Mexican war situation. That will lead to a war of words, if not to one of bloodshed.

Bold Young Boes Try To Beat Way Over On Train

"Honest, Mr. Policeman, we never tried to do anything wrong. Please, let us go home. We were only after the little ride and if you keep us here all night, by the time we get back home, we will lose our jobs."

These were the words that were poured into the ears of night Officer Cook and Woodward Friday evening by five boys whom the policemen caught riding on the beams of a Southern Pacific train. They were decent appearing boys, according to the police, and told stories of homes in Portland where worried mothers and angry fathers waited for the return of their wandering sons.

The would-be "boes" boarded the train that passes through this city at nine o'clock and planned to return on the 10:47 p. m. o'clock train. However, their plan was nipped in the bud, for the officers saw and arrested them as soon as the train stopped in the yards.

Seeing that this was probably the first offense of the young culprits, and aware that more harm than good would be done by confining them in the jail over night, Officer Cook escorted them to the city limits and showed the boys the way to Portland.

CROWDS WATCH HIGH SCHOOL PRODUCTION

Two full houses at the Star theatre Friday night enjoyed the high school entertainment, given for the benefit of the Hesperian, the school paper. Every seat was taken, and, although the exact amount of money secured for the school magazine is not yet known, the two performances surpassed the expectations of the students.

There was a one act play, "A Matrimonial Mixup," which secured laugh after laugh from the audience. Misses Grace Spieker, Leola Fisher and Roberta Schabel were the three girls who formed the cast.

Two choruses sang, one "I'll Get You," and the other "Millions of Girls and Millions of Boys."

Girls of the school sold candy and various other little side attractions, probably added to the unique and original features of the evening.

TEACHERS FORM CLUB PLAN LOTS OF FUN

Eight teachers of the city have organized into a society of their own and named it the "S. P. U. club." They plan to meet twice a week during the year and to have entertainments and good times together during their sessions.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays of the school year, the club will have some sort of fun and frolic planned for the entertainment of the members and a few friends whom they intend to invite. The officers are Miss Mildred Burley, president; Miss Elizabeth Busch, vice-president; and Miss Ellen Brodie, secretary.

Here's What World's Highest Wireless Tower Looks Like

THE world is full of so many wonders nowadays that the original seven shrink into utter insignificance. Here is one of the many modern wonders. It is the highest wireless station in the world erected solely as such. It is located in New Jersey, along the Atlantic coast, and the Marconi company uses it for transatlantic messages. The tower is higher than the government towers at Arlington, but, of course, lower than the wireless station on the top of the Eiffel tower in Paris. The New Jersey tower is between 600 and 700 feet high.

NEGOTIATIONS NEAR AN END

LIND SEES TASK IS ALMOST FRUITLESS ONE AND THAT HUERTA IS DOGGED

TIME HAS NOW COME FOR ACTION

Embassy Hopeless and Gloom Has Filled Halls of American Legation at Mexican National Capital

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7.—Unwilling to admit another failure on the part of Washington to bring about the elimination of President Huerta, John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, nevertheless failed today to manifest any enthusiasm over the prospect that Huerta would resign. From his manner and his conversation he believed negotiations were nearing an end.

There was nothing at the American embassy today to indicate that a more favorable turn in events is expected and that is reason to believe that an ultimatum, in its full diplomatic sense, soon will be handed to Huerta, the time limit being brief. It is expected this new document will be so written as to bring an end to the relations between the two countries before November 22, the date fixed for the convening of the new congress, unless Huerta sees fit to agree to the terms of the Washington communication.

DISTRICTS WANT AN INCREASE IN LAND

Several applications for changes in the district lines of the school districts were before the county court on Friday. The people of Jennings Lodge, Cherryville, and Stone districts have asked the court for changes in their lines that would give them larger areas of territory and that would add more children to their public schools.

The question of the Jennings Lodge application was discussed at a recent mass meeting of the people of the Gladstone district. The proposed cut would take in some of the latter territory and would bring it into the district of the Jennings Lodge school. The people of Gladstone seem to more or less approve such a move as the land proposed to be cut lies close to the neighboring district and is far from the other building. The matter was taken under advisement by the county commissioners.

Even a democratic congress is shamefully wasteful of time. Both the tariff and the currency bill could and should have been passed weeks if not months ago.

Ambassador Page may have felt worried about being the only man at the British royal wedding without gorgeous uniform and decorations, but anyway he was not put out of the building therefor.

Big Hearted Chief Pities A Hound Locked in Jail

Whining and wagging his tail at every sound of footsteps, a fine big hound is waiting for his owner to become and claim him. The dog will be killed within the next two or three days unless his master can be located.

He seems to understand that his life is the price he will pay for his master's lack of interest. He spends most of his time in the darkest corner of his dark and gloomy cell, never leaving it save when some noise is heard and then, with the glad hope of liberation in his mind, he rises and trots across his prison to the door, only to be disappointed.

Chief of Police Shaw has put off, time after time, his duty of killing the hound in the hope that its owner would come and claim him.

BUY CANBY HOTEL

Word has been received in this city that Mrs. Herman Miller, formerly of this city, has purchased the Canby hotel from Mr. and Mrs. S. Hinderlie and has taken immediate possession. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been living near Adkin's mill for the past two years but in Oregon City previous to that time. The new owner has been in the hotel business for some time, having been connected with some of the larger hotels in the state.

COP RETURNS

Charles Noblit, of Needy, was in the county seat Friday on business. He is a former Oregon City man, having been, at one time, a member of the local police force.

CLASSMATES FOLLOW BOY'S BODY TO GRAVE

The funeral of Shelby Shaver was held at the Congregational church Friday morning at 11 o'clock. The services were extremely impressive. Besides a large number of Jennings Lodge people in attendance, there were many Oregon City friends of the young man present, and the junior and senior classes of the high school attended in a body. The church was crowded to capacity.

Rev. George Nelson Edwards delivered an able address and was followed by a short talk by Rev. H. N. Smith of Jennings Lodge, a neighbor and a warm personal friend of young Shaver, who spoke highly on the character and ideals of the popular high school boy. Special music was rendered by the Congregational quartette.

The pallbearers were all high school "pals" of the deceased, and all were grief-stricken as they bore the remains of their former comrade away.

The floral tributes, which came from friends in Oregon City, Gladstone and Jennings Lodge, were most beautiful. Young Shaver was graduated from the Oregon City High school in the class of 1913. He was working in the S. P. shops in Portland, preparatory to entering college next fall. Shaver was a general favorite with all who knew him and was a young man of much ability and promise. He has lived with his grandmother at Jennings Lodge since the death of his own mother several years ago, and it was at this place he met his tragic death Tuesday evening, when he was struck by an Oregon City car. The body was laid to rest in Riverview cemetery in Portland.

Mrs. T. P. Randall will be hostess of the next Friday afternoon. Members of the Minuet club, which flourished a couple of years ago, are planning to reorganize. Their dancing parties were among the most enjoyable ever held here and this reputation will doubtless be more firmly established by those to be given during the winter. As many members of the club dance but infrequently, an instructor is to be engaged to assist the
