CITY OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER.

DISTINCT LOSS TO CLACKAMAS COUNTY Theodore J. Gary, county school superintendent of Clackamas county, has resigned, following his election as instructor in English in the Trades School of Portland, at a salary of $1350 per annum.

Last Tuesday the people of Clackamas county, by a vote of 2172 to 2961, sustained the referendum on the bill enacted at the last session of the state legislature increasing the salary of the county superintendent of Clackamas county from $1000 to $1600.

Clackamas county has lost a good school superintendent. Mr. Gary's wide experience in matters educational entitled him to greater consideration at the hands of the people of this county.

In a recent letter to a man in Oregon City, J. H. Ackerman, president of the Oregon State Normal School at Monmouth, and formerly state superintendent of public instruction, referred to Mr. Gary as "one of the strongest county superintendents the state of Oregon has ever had."

Mr. Gary in a shining example of a man who has made lemonade out of lemons that have been handed to him. His salary in his new position will be greater per month than he asked from the people of Clackamas county, and he will be in line for promotion to better places in the educational world.

The Enterprise wishes Mr. Gary every success in his new work. His

Shorter Enlistment Would Attract Most Desirable Men to Army

By Major General LEONARD WOOD, Chief of Staff of the United States Army

TO train an educated man, one accustomed to having his body obey his mind, requires a MUCH SHORTER PERIOD than to train an uneducated one.

Obviously it will take longer to teach what we might call the mechanics of soldiering to the man with a pick, who has to pause for a second to think when you speak to him, than to teach them to a ball player, whose mind has been trained to ACT QUICKLY AND TO MAKE THE BODY RESPOND INSTANTLY TO MENTAL IMPULSES.

But two years, we think, is ample to teach the essentials. I advocate a THREE YEAR ENLISTMENT, with a provision that the man who is certified by his company commander as competent in a lesser time may take his discharge forthwith and PASS TO THE RESERVES.

I BELIEVE IT WILL ATTRACT THE MOST DESIRABLE CLASS OF MEN TO THE ARMY, MEN WHO WANT TO PREPARE THEMSELVES TO BE OF SERVICE TO THE COUNTRY IN TIME OF WAR, BUT WHO CANNOT SPARE THE TIME FOR A LONG ENLISTMENT.

The reservist should be assured that he is to be absolutely free in his movements, to come and go as he wills, only keeping in touch with his command by reports during his period on the reserve list—five years—with the exception that he is to RETURN TO DUTY WITH HIS UNIT IN TIME OF WAR, and that he is to report once in two years for physical examination and for not less than five nor more than ten days' training in the field.

At the expiration of his five year period on the reserve list he goes off the list in favor of younger men who have come in by discharge from the army.

high moral character, coupled with his progressive educational ideas, will make for him a prominent place in the educational life of Portland and of the state of Oregon.

THE SHOW-ME The greatest progress in scientific farming in the SYSTEM United States has been through the introduction of experiment and demonstration farms, employment of farm advisers for counties and the organization of big clubs, canning clubs, garden clubs, cotton clubs and corn clubs.

But when the policy of showing the farmer was adopted there came an instant change. The man who through use of scientific methods raised twice the average crop on land with whose history his neighbors were familiar immediately attracted attention.

The organization of clubs among the boys and girls, with attractive prizes for the best display of products, has succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations of the Columbus movement. It is the healthiest form of rivalry that could be aroused in any community and in many counties practically all the farmers' boys and girls are enlisted in the competition.
