KILL CATARRH GERMS USE BOOTH'S HYOMEL

Try the sure and most effective way to reach the raw, tender, inflamed mucous membrane infested with catarrh germs—use Hyomel. You breathe it—no stomach dosing.

If you suffer from raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, husky voice, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat or any other symptoms of catarrh—breathe the germ-destroying air of Hyomel. It acts directly on the inflamed membranes, destroying the disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs and giving quick and permanent relief, or money refunded by Huntley Bros. Co.

The complete outfit, including pocket inhaler and bottle of liquid, costs $1.00. Extra bottle of liquid, if later needed, 50 cents.

BUSINESS POOR IN THE CATTLE MARKETS

Receipts for the week at Portland stock yards have been: Cattle 1143, calves 85, Hogs 3901, sheep 4573.

Although cattle liquidation has been a third less than total for same period last week, beef values have not been lifted appreciably, so demoralizing was the condition of the market ten days ago. However, the decrease in receipts was the very panacea the trade needed, and while no general rise in prices was consummated a few strong bids for an occasional load of prime steers or cows showed the underlying steadiness to the market.

Monday and Wednesday were the only days which were factors in better prices. The remainder of the week's business was transacted in poor grade stock of which there was a large quantity. Generally the cattle market is steady to a shade firmer than it was seven days since, and the outlet for strictly prime steers and cows is better.

Top quantities are steers $7.00 at $7.35; cows $6.00 and $6.50; heifers $6.50 at $6.75; calves $8.00 at $9.00; bulls $5.50 at $5.75.

Depression hit the swine market late in the week, but was not entirely unexpected. Portland has been 25 to 40c higher than other American markets for ten days and has maintained strength up to Thursday of this week. Prime light hogs sold steady at $8.20 first half, but buyers refused to bid that price at the close and tops dropped to $8.20. Trade opinion is not so optimistic as the week comes to a close.

Mutton and lambs sold strong and freely supported the high price range established a few days ago. Prime yearlings at $4.75; old wethers at $4.50 and ewes at $4.10 were sheep house features. Lambs were strong at $7.75. Receipts comparatively light and demand exceeded supply. All prices stead to firm and trade brisk.

Livestock, Meats BEEF—(Live weight)—steers 7c; cows 6c; bulls 4 to 6c. MUTTON—Sheep 3 to 4c; lambs, 5 to 5 1/2c. POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 13c; old roosters 9c; broilers 13c. SAUSAGE 15c lb. PORK—11c. VEAL—Calves 12 to 13c dressed, according to grade. APPLES—59c and $1. DRIED FRUITS—(Buying)—Prunes on basis 4 for 35 to 40c. ONIONS—$1 per sack. POTATOES—65 and 8c in car lots. BUTTER—(Buying)—Ordinary country butter 23c to 25c. EGGS—Oregon ranch, case count 38c; Oregon ranch candled 40c. Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:

HIDES—(Buying)—Green salted, 9c. OATS—(Buying)—$23.00 and $24; wheat 77c and 78c; oil meal selling $38; Shady Brook feed $125 per cent. CORN—Whole corn $36; cracked $37. SHEEP PELTS—75c to $1.50 each. FLOUR—$4.30 to $5. HAY—(Buying)—Clover at $8 and $9.00; timothy $12.00 and $13.00; oat hay best $10 and $11; mixed $9 to $13; Idaho and eastern Oregon timothy selling $30; valley timothy $12 to $14. FEED—(Barley)—Shorts $26; bran $23.75; feed barley $30 to $31.

At the Portland Theaters LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

COHAN & HARRIS PRESENT THE FARCE COMEDY, "STOP THIEF" AT HEILI G, WEEK NOV. 9.

THE LOSS OF THE WEDDING PRESENTS IS DISCOVERED, AN EXCITING SCENE FROM ACT I IN "STOP THIEF". The well known theatrical firm of Cohan & Harris will present Carlyle Moore's brilliant farce comedy success, "Stop Thief," at the Heilig Theatre, 11th and Morrison streets, for seven nights, beginning Sunday, November 9, with special price matinee Wednesday and Saturday. Mail orders are now being received from both in and out of town. The boxoffice seat sale will open Friday, November 7, for the entire engagement.

"STOP THIEF"

Carlyle Moore, the author of "Stop Thief" the play being talked about by all America, has, in presenting his dramatic surprise, apparently shattered all the traditions of the stage, and the public seems to glory in his work. This in view of the fact that his farce has been written in true dramatic form into which he has woven many terse melodramatic moments of the most thrilling nature, and accomplished all of this so skillfully that the result is a source of great enjoyment.

"I n "Stop Thief," Mr. Carlyle has made his characters fit the lightning like rapidity of the play's action. The wealth of incident comic, tragic, pathetic and melodramatic is cattered through the three acts with lavish prodigality.

One of the many charms of Mr. Moore's work. He always does the logical thing. That is to say, just as the audience has decided that a certain course of action is bound to follow, he ingeniously makes use of one wholly different and much more effective. And it is all done so quickly and so plausibly that the wonder is how it was all brought about.

"Stop Thief" comes to the Heilig with the endorsement of New York, they having accepted it as a play out of the ordinary and accorded it a run of nearly one year. It will be revealed to us by a company of excellence and the fact that it is another Cohan & Harris success gives assurance that the scenic setting will be in keeping with the thoroughness as to detail. Special price matinee's will be given on Wednesday and Saturday during this engagement.

DIVORCES GRANTED

Divorces were granted in the circuit court by Judge J. U. Campbell Saturday to Annie Millar against William Millar; Jennie M. Zutter against Samuel H. Zutter, dismissed; Minnie Hensley against James R. Hensley; and Catherine M. Lefler against Thomas O. Lefler.

BELVA MORRELL

THE LION AND THE MOUSE

Starting with the matinee Sunday, Baker Players will present all next week, Charles Klein's famous drama "The Lion and the Mouse," which is familiar by reputation at least in every household in the land. It is one of the few really big plays of the past dozen years, but in all that time has been played in stock here but once before. It requires a company of exceptional ability to correctly portray its strong characters and intense dramatic scenes—just such an organization as Manager Baker has this season, and its production next week will be one of the treats of the year. The dominant character in the Lion and the Mouse is one John Burket Ryder, a hard and powerful king of finance, who has just ruined and crushed a certain judge who dared oppose some of his schemes. Impediment through great political influence on the part of Ryder will mean death to the elderly Judge Rossmore, and to try to prevent this his daughter, proceeds against the great lion in her own quiet but effective way. It is the fable of the great lion and the little mouse, and although the little mouse's victory is a bitter pill at first, it is through it that Ryder finds his first real happiness and peace after all. The third act is one of the most dramatic in climax and dialogue ever written. The role of the mouse will be played, of course, by Dorothy Shoemaker, and that of the lion by Louis Leon Hall with Edward Woodruff as Jefferson Ryder, the lover. The usual Baker matinee's will be played Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday and the popular bargain night Monday.

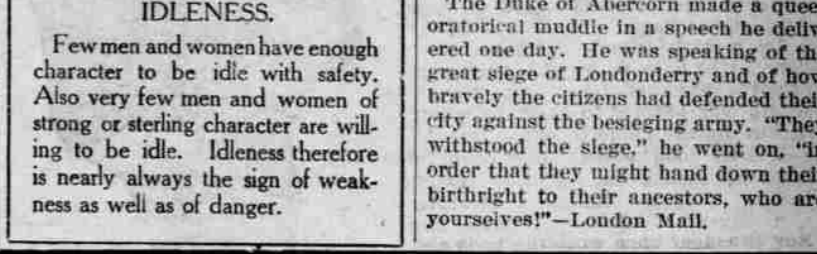

IDLENESS.

Seven men and women have enough character to be idle with safety. Also very few men and women of strong or sterling character are willing to be idle. Idleness therefore is nearly always the sign of weakness as well as of danger.

A Dual Ball.

The Duke of Abercorn made a queer oratorical muddle in a speech he delivered one day. He was speaking of the great siege of Londonderry and of how bravely the citizens had defended their city against the besieging army. "They withstood the siege," he went on, "in order that they might hand down their birthright to their ancestors, who are yourselves!"—London Mail.

CORRECT FOR EITHER IN-DOOR OR OUT-OF-DOOR WEAR

Since, to a degree, simplicity is the rule this season, many of the well-cut designs, showing long, straight lines, are equally as appropriate for afternoon teas and matinees as for street wear. A fact that makes for economy and a saving of time as well.

The lines of the "new" figure show a more or less of a slope to the shoulders and broad lines in waist and hips and often at the knees. 7789 and 7710 is especially suited to these lines, showing, as it does, the drop-shoulder and a slight fullness at the waist. A bit of drapery on each side of the skirt is simple and graceful.

The frilling of net filling in the neck and the diagonal closing of the blouse is another effective touch.

One of those quaintly figured stuffs that fairly "make" a gown is used here. The design could also be fashioned of one of the modish velours or ratines effectively. A figured charmeuse or a brocaded satin are also good suggestions if the frock is intended solely for afternoons. An attractive folded girdle in a bright, harmonious shade and an inset of the same satin at the bottom of the skirt are individual notes that give distinction.

No. 7789—sizes 32 to 42. No. 7710—sizes 22 to 30. Each pattern 15 cents.
