GAME TO DRAW CROWDS

MANY OREGON CITY PERSONS WILL ATTEND GAME

From present indications it is probable that several hundred persons from Oregon City will attend the Washington-Oregon game next Saturday. Sent reservations for the game are being made from all over the state and it looks as if there will be a record breaking crowd.

If the present weather conditions continue all week, Multnomah field will be in fine shape. On the last two occasions that Washington has played in Portland the ground has been soggy. Bud Young, Washington's quarterback, will not likely be in the game as he was expected a short time ago. Young is not recovering as quickly as it was thought he would.

Reports from Seattle and Eugene state that both elevens are bucking down to hard work. Coach Dobie, witnessed the Oregon-O. A. C. game, and is working his players on Oregon's plays. Bezdek, however, did not uncover many of his trick plays in that game.

Harry McArdle, the San Francisco utility man, says that Bobby Davis reminds him of Babe Ruth, the way he scoops the ball out of the dirt.

The Princeton football eleven, which had been recuperating from the Harvard game at Atlantic City, returned to Princeton today and indulged in a short signal drill.

Hill Military Academy, is the first school in the Portland interscholastic league to start basketball practice. It began last week.

Coach Edmunds gave his Washington University football squad strenuous work this afternoon for the game with Missouri here next Saturday. The substitutes received much attention today.

Harvard's varsity eleven rested today after their successful battle against Princeton Saturday.

Frankie Burns draws the line at no one. He has at all times stood ready to meet any and all—that is to say, all except some that cannot be met for good and sufficient reason.

BUD TO FIGHT RIVERS

Bud Anderson and Joe Rivers will fight 20 rounds in Los Angeles Thanksgiving day before Tom McCarey's Vernon fight club.

This was practically settled with the easy defeat of Leach Cross, by Willie Hitt in New York last night. Had Cross held the champion even he would have been given the match; the details being practically settled upon, McCarey figured that defeat would lessen Cross' drawing powers and opened negotiations with Donald in order to be protected all around. Manager Donald telegraphed from Medford this morning to Anderson telling him that he could have the match, and Bud immediately answered that everything was all right so far as he was concerned. He is now awaiting an answer from Donald, who is negotiating with McCarey and Joe Levy, Rivers manager, over the guarantee and weight.

FANS TO SEE CLASSY BOUTS AT M. A. A. C.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 11.—Drawings for the Pacific coast boxing championships to be staged at the Multnomah club Thursday and Friday nights will be made tomorrow evening. No other entries were received last night, except that Vancouver, B. C., Commercial Athletic club entered Scoble, 125 pound boxer, in the 125 pound class. Chairman Frank expects one or two late entries today.

Portland fans will be given a fine list of bouts both evenings. The preliminary bouts should be equally as good if not better than some of the final events. There will be many close bouts in the 115, 125 and 135 pound classes.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 11.—The Princeton varsity eleven was given 45 minutes of hard practice this afternoon by a scrub team, the latter using Yale formations exclusively. The scrubs also wore blue jerseys and from a distance showed up like the Yale team. The coaches spent most of yesterday drilling the substitute players in the Yale formations.

SH-H! LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN FADED GRAY HAIR---USE SAGE TEA

Sage Mixed with Sulphur Restores Natural Color and Luster to Hair.

Why suffer the handicap of looking old? Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use; but listen, avoid preparations put up by druggists, as they usually use too much sulphur, which makes the hair sticky. Get "Wyeth's," which can always be depended upon to darken beautifully and is the best thing known to remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. By using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can possibly tell that you darken your hair. It does it so naturally and evenly—you moisten a sponge or soft brush, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, which requires but a few moments. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes glossy and lustrous and you appear years younger. GLADSTONE GIRL BECOMES BRIDE

MISS RUTH LEETE IS MARRIED TO PORTLAND MAN AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

MRS. MYRON MEYERS ENTERTAINS

Friends Gather at Home For Evening of Progressive Whist—Dinner for Latourette Family

(By Meta Finley Thayer) Miss Ruth Leete, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Leete, of Gladstone, and Mr. Dennis Crabtree, of Portland, were married Sunday morning in St. Steven's Episcopal church in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The bride wore a smart, blue tailored gown and black picture hat. A reception was held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Leete on the Clackamas, the rooms being elaborately decorated with Oregon grape, chrysanthemums, carnations and potted plants.

Mrs. Crabtree, who came to Gladstone from Idaho two years ago, has an extensive circle of friends in this part of the state, and the groom is a well known contractor of Portland. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree will reside in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Latourette gave a family dinner at their home on High street Sunday, for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Latourette and little daughter Allene Louise of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette and son Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Latourette, and John R. Latourette, of Portland.

The Women's club will hold one of their interesting meetings Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. D. C. Latourette will address the club on "Bible as History."

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold a bazaar in the church parlors during the afternoon and evening of November 19th. A musical program by the children will be a feature of the afternoon.

The Ladies of the Congregational church will hold a Christmas bazaar in the assembly rooms of the church on December 12th. A fine display of needlework is planned.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church held its regular meeting in the church parlors Tuesday evening. After the usual business matters were disposed of, a box was packed with fruit, jelly and clothing for the Industrial Home in Portland. This home has recently been built by the Women's Missionary societies, and is doing splendid work.

Mrs. Myron Meyers (Miss Clara Koerner) entertained with progressive whist Saturday evening at her attractive new home in Rose City park. Miss Nell Caulfield was the fortunate prize winner. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Meyers' hospitality were: Miss Marybelle Meldrum, Miss Vera Phillips, Miss Nell Caulfield, Miss Genevieve Capen, Miss Ruth Brightbill, Miss Vada Elliott, Miss Olga McClure, Miss Bertha Koerner, Miss Lenore Elliott.

Thursday afternoon, November 27, is the date decided upon for the marriage of Miss Mabel Moore to Mr. Harry Hayles, of Portland. Among the many affairs planned for the pleasure of the bride-elect are Mrs. F. H. Robert's luncheon on Wednesday and the theatre party, which Miss Mollie Rose is to give on Saturday afternoon, followed by a tea in Portland. On Sunday Hon. and Mrs. H. H. Emmons entertain at their Portland home in honor of Miss Morse, Mr. Hayles and Mr. Morse, who has recently returned from his Seaside home.

The West Side Improvement club will meet Thursday evening in West Linn city hall. Attractive folders are being printed, setting forth the advantages of Willamette, West Linn and vicinity, and they will be ready for distribution at this meeting.

Mrs. C. E. Meyers was happily surprised Monday evening when about forty-five friends associated with the Methodist Episcopal church called at her Gladstone home. The occasion was the birthday of the honor guest, who was the recipient of some handsome table linen, J. I. Safford making the presentation speech.

Washing While Traveling. Sir Francis Galton held that washing when on a journey has its drawbacks. In the "Art of Travel" he remarks that "there is no denying the fact, though it be not agreeable to confess it, that dirt and grease are great protectors of the skin against inclement weather and that therefore the leader of an exploring party should not be too exacting about the appearance of his less warmly clad followers. Daily washing, if not accompanied by oiling, must be compensated by wearing clothes. A dog will sleep under any bush and thrive there so long as he is not washed, groomed and kept clean. There must be a balance between the activity of the skin and the calls upon it, and, where the exposure is greater, there must the pores be more defended."—Landon Globe.

Excising the Stolen Goods. An orchestra leader who has a faculty for detecting reminiscences made himself unpopular with the composer of an opera of serious pretension recently. It had been decided that the performance must be shortened, and the members of the orchestra had been assembled to make some cuts in the score. "Now," said the leader, "we will begin by shortening the overture." "What shall we leave out?" asked the concert master. "Those thirty-two measures beginning with 'Carmen' and ending with 'Rigolotto.'"—New York Post. FIRMER TONES IN ALL EGG MARKETS

Firmer tones are reported in the egg markets and the quotations are better than they have been of late. Chickens are not brisk and the demand for them has been light. The tone is also weaker at the commission houses. Cauliflower is high with fair receipts in the local markets with extra prices paid for fancy goods. California lettuce is not much in demand and the stock that has been received here is not of the best quality.

Getting Back. "Why do you insist on trying to sell me beefsteak and beans and buck-wheat cakes?" demanded the barber. "I told you all I wanted was two fried eggs."

"Well, I was in your shop yesterday," retorted the restaurant man. "All I wanted was a shave, but you bulldozed me into a shampoo, a foam fizz and a tonic rub."—Pittsburgh Post.

PANAMA AND THE CANAL

In Picture and Prose
By Willis J. Abbott

Greatly Reduced Illustration of the $4 Vol. (size 9x12 in.)

PANAMA AND THE CANAL IN PICTURE AND PROSE EDUCATES AS WELL AS ENTERTAINS

Willis J. Abbott, the author of this book, takes you in at the front door of Panama, tells you the time when Columbus searched for a natural waterway to the Pacific Ocean, brings you up through the centuries of revolution and warfare, and on through to the realization of the greatest achievement of this day and age. He tells you of the people and the country, of the past as well as the present, and even dips into the promises for the future. The great story is inspiring—filled to the full with local color and human interest—a story that will live as long as the great canal itself.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 1, 1913. M. D. Reynolds, says:— This is to certify that I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism since 1894. Contracted the disease while working with a snow plow on the railroad. For several years I have been obliged to use crutches a great part of the time. Having used three boxes of the Meritol Rheumatism powders, I have thrown away the crutches and am now almost fully recovered. It certainly has done wonders for me and I heartily recommend it. M. D. A New York jokesmith has written a new libretto for one of Verdi's operas. The next we know some sure fire sharp from Tinpan alley will be tinkering up the music.

And now Dr. Dubbe or some other eminent scientist says Mother Eve was fashioned from Adam's backbone. We deduct that a spineless mollycoddle has therefore a strain of Adam in his makeup.
