The mechanical execution is unsurpassed, and you have made a great contribution to Panama literature. It should be in the hands of everybody, and especially those who are not able to visit the Isthmus in person. After reading your splendid descriptions and looking at the fine illustrations no one can fail to have a complete and accurate knowledge of every subject concerning the Isthmus and the Canal of any possible interest. Yours very truly.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS

FROM A LEADING PROGRESSIVE SENATOR. Dear Abbot-I am fascinated with your book, as I was with the Isthmus itself. This spot, where the nations meet, is of rapidly increasing interest. It will be a pleasure resort as well as a commercial center. It is fortunate that one so well equipped as yourself has written just at this time the story of this interesting place. You have caught its spirit, its romance and beauty. The wealth of pictures adds greatly to the interest of your vivid descriptions. Very truly yours, MILES POINDEXTER. SENATORS

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERRCE Dear Mr. Abbot-I am greatly pleased with your "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most interesting and attractive work on Panama I have ever seen. It contains the complete story from Columbus to the present, and I have no doubt it will be readily recognized as the most useful compilation of facts relating to our Canal interests in Panama now published. Its wealth of illustrations as well as its attractive presentation of related facts makes it a very valuable addition to my Sincerely yours, CHAS. F. TOWNSEND.

Very truly yours, JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS.

FROM CHAIRMAN OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INDIAN AFFAIRS. August 19, 1913. Mr. Abbot's work on "Panama and the Canal" is the most interesting and valuable publication relative to the Isthmian Canal that has ever come to my notice. Its careful preparation is especially evidenced by its completeness of detail, involving infinite pains in research. The story is an inspiring one, and the narrative is related in a most pleasing style. Both as a literary and historical production of great value, and as a model of typographic art, its place in any library ought to be assured.

UNIVERSAL ENDORSEMENTS

FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF INTERSTATE COM-MERCE HOUSE COMMITTEE

August 15, 1913 My Dear Mr. Abbot-I have examined with great pleasure and admiration your exquisite book on Panama. Of all the works relating to that matchless enterprise with which I am acquainted this product of your genius is most excellent and satisfactory. As a contribution to history, geography, literature, artistic arrangement and illustration it is a triumph of Yours truly. W. C. ADAMSON.

FROM AN ILLINOIS CONGRESSMAN. August 21, 1913

My Dear Mr. Abbot-I am delighted with your book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most valuable publication on Panama yet issued. You have thoroughly popularized the entire matter. I think I have read everything published on the subject of Panama and the Canal, and in my study of the subjects connected with the Canal I have spent many days on the Isthmus of Panama. Your book appears at a most opportune time, I know of no information of real value on the subject which is not contained in your book. You have rendered a great public service. The book is written in a charming manner, and you present the intensely interesting romantic history connected with that part of the world as no one else has yet been able to do. I know of no other book of travel appearing in recent years so interesting and valuable as this. Very truly yours;

HENRY T. RAINEY.

FROM THE WELL-KNOWN WISCONSIN SENATOR

August 20, 1913. My Dear Mr. Abbot-I have had opportunity only to glance through "Panama and the Canal" and to observe how profusely and beautifully it is illustrated. It is pleasing and attractive in appearance, and when I have opportunity to read the text I am confident that I shall find it, like other productions of your pen, both entertaining and informing. Cordially yours, ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE.

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON IN-TER-OCEANIC CANALS. August 15 .1913

My Dear Mr. Abbot-I shall read "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" with a great deal of pleasure, but the pleasure will be largely enhanced by the fact that as a member of the Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals I visited the Canal in October 1911, and the half-tone cuts in the volume recall more vividly than anything else the scenes I visited. C. S. PAGE.

CONGRESSMEN

FROM AN INDIANA CONGRESSMAN

August 21, 1913. My Dear Willis-With a great deal of pleasure I have read your new book on Panama. Its artistic finish and fascinating literary style combine to make this story of Panama the most attractive and comprehensive. I heartily congratulate you on this picture and prose history of the Isthmus, for the eyes of the world are now centered on this our greatest national endeavor, and as everybody interested wants comprehensive information on this world-famous enterprise, you have surely given to students and the reading public generally a new beacon light of history with a fascinating descriptive thrill in every page. Your friend,

HENRY A. BARNHART.

FROM A NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN. August 20, 1913.

My Dear Mr. Abbot-I desire to congratulate you most heartily on your latest book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose."

A book of this kind is usually regarded as a picture book, and surely this one is most beautifully illustrated. But your book could be regarded as a picture book if one were to regard it from its letter press alone. I found it packed with information about the world's most wonderful canal, about the people there and the tropical conditions and about the ruins and the history that tell of Aztec and Toltec days and the later amazing adventures of Balboa, Cortez and their handful of Spanish companions, who mixed their private business of buccaneering with an authorized business of exploring. I think the style in which you have written is most clear and flowing, and altogether this book is by far the best presentment of this much-talked-of subject that it has been my good fortune to find. Sincerely yours, HENRY GEORGE, JR.

FROM A LOUISIANA SENATOR.

August 25, 1913. Dear Mr. Abbot-"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is one of the most thorough works of its kind that has come before me, and on its face it shows the result of untiring efforts on your part. It appears to be remarkably well arranged and I am sure it contains an exhaustive fund of information Very sincerely, JOS. E. RANSDELL.

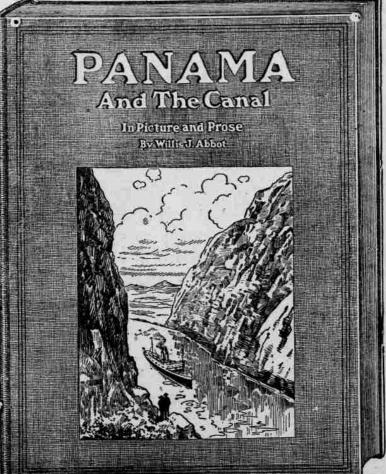

> FROM A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN SENATOR

August 22, 1913. My Dear Mr. Abbot-My wife and I spent a most delightful Sunday in going over your magnificent book on Panama. We had visited the Isthmus last Christmas and were familiar with the different places, which lent an additional charm to the work. It is about the most "readable" book I have had hold of for a long while. Sincerely yours, WM. S. KENYON.
