ANOTHER CLUB PLAN "SEERESS" ANSWERS MANY QUESTIONS

GLADSTONE, TOO, WILL HAVE ATHLETIC BODY

The latest proposed athletic club in Gladstone. No meeting has been held yet but it is thought that by the middle of next week those interested can get together and an organization worked out.

The new club will probably turn out athletic teams which will compete with other clubs in this part of the county. Regular meetings will be arranged and officers elected, it is thought, at the first meeting.

SPORTING BRIEVITIES

Next year's British amateur golf championships will take place on the royal St. George's place. "Play will start May 18," reads the announcement.

An instance of collegiate originality was shown at Stanford, where 1000 students celebrated the victory over California by a bonfire.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 14.—Washington University (St. Louis) football team ended today its hard work in preparation for the game with Missouri Saturday.

Washington had a football eleven weighing close to 2000 pounds.

In case Cornish should not be able to play any more this year, Yale will be hard put for a first class quarterback.

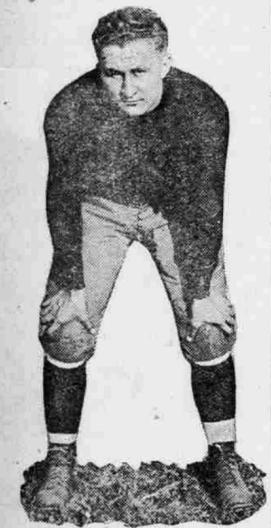

It is said the Western league managers contemplate the dropping of Wichita and Topeka from the circuit.

GAME IS POSTPONED

The game between Barclay and Eastham, which was to have been played Friday, has been postponed. The latter team failed to show up on the grounds at Gladstone for some unknown reason.

"This city is just entering into a space of three years that will mean prosperity, increased population, and it is safe to state that the population will increase several thousand during that time," this statement was made today by Mme. Pearl Tangle, the Seeress, which or whatever she may be termed who appears all next week at the Bell Theatre. Mme. Tangle is a woman with strange mental powers, while no claims are made to the supernatural, still her demonstration is enough to convince the most skeptical. At Savory Theatre, Eugene, several weeks ago, fully three thousand were turned away, Friday when she gave a special meeting for the ladies, over 527 attended. It was she who solved the Williams murder case at San Bernardino, Calif., by advising the sheriff to examine the contents of Mr. Williams' trunk, who was accused of poisoning his aged wife. By carrying out her suggestions, the police found a bottle marked poison, which dealt a hard blow to Williams' defense. During her engagement at the Bell commencing Monday she will advise her audience on any question they care to ask. If you want to know about personal affairs, business, love, lost or stolen articles, one needs simply to write their question at home on any paper, take it to the theatre and she will call everything and give her answer without seeing the writer or the paper upon which one writes. The press and public speak highly of her, and no doubt her work here will create much interest. The small seating capacity of the Bell will never hold the crowds at her opening performance.—Adv.

FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

August 15, 1913.
Mr. Willis J. Abbot, New York:
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have just had an opportunity to examine your book, "Panama and the Canal." It is an admirable volume—the story is most interesting, the illustrations are profuse and illuminating and the workmanship is excellent. The book is worthy of your reputation and of the gigantic engineering enterprise which has put Panama on the World-Map.

Thanking you for the pleasure and instruction which the book has given me, I am, very truly yours,
W. J. BRYAN.

FROM THE MAJORITY LEADER IN THE SENATE.

August 18, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—Your new book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose," is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever." The mechanical execution is unsurpassed, and you have made a great contribution to Panama literature. It should be in the hands of everybody, and especially those who are not able to visit the Isthmus in person. After reading your splendid descriptions and looking at the fine illustrations no one can fail to have a complete and accurate knowledge of every subject concerning the Isthmus and the Canal of any possible interest.

Yours very truly,
JNO. W. KERN.

FROM A WELL-KNOWN OHIO SENATOR

August 15, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is a very valuable contribution to the bibliography of a country, which is bound to be an object of increasing interest to the people of both Continents. Yours very truly, T. E. BURTON.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE HOUSE COMMITTEE

August 15, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have examined with great pleasure and admiration your exquisite book on Panama. Of all the works relating to that matchless enterprise with which I am acquainted this product of your genius is most excellent and satisfactory. As a contribution to history, geography, literature, artistic arrangement and illustration it is a triumph of art.

Yours truly,
W. C. ADAMSON.

FROM AN ILLINOIS CONGRESSMAN.

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I am delighted with your book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most valuable publication on Panama yet issued. You have thoroughly popularized the entire matter. I think I have read everything published on the subject of Panama and the Canal, and in my study of the subjects connected with the Canal I have spent many days on the Isthmus of Panama. Your book appears at a most opportune time. I know of no information of real value on the subject which is not contained in your book. You have rendered a great public service. The book is written in a charming manner, and you present the intensely interesting romantic history connected with that part of the world as no one else has yet been able to do. I know of no other book of travel appearing in recent years so interesting and valuable as this. Very truly yours,
HENRY T. RAINEY.

FROM A LOUISIANA SENATOR.

August 25, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is one of the most thorough works of its kind that has come before me, and on its face it shows the result of untiring efforts on your part. It appears to be remarkably well arranged, and I am sure it contains an exhaustive fund of information.

Very sincerely,
JOS. E. RANDELL.

FROM A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN SENATOR

August 22, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—My wife and I spent a most delightful Sunday in going over your magnificent book on Panama. We had visited the Isthmus last Christmas and were familiar with the different places, which lent an additional charm to the work. It is about the most "readable" book I have had hold of for a long while. Sincerely yours,
WM. S. KENYON.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS

August 13, 1913.
Dear Abbot—I am fascinated with your book, as I was with the Isthmus itself. This spot, where the nations meet, is of rapidly increasing interest. It will be a pleasure resort as well as a commercial center. It is fortunate that one so well equipped as yourself has written just at this time the story of this interesting place. You have caught its spirit, its romance and beauty. The wealth of pictures adds greatly to the interest of your vivid descriptions. Very truly yours,
MILES POINDEXTER.

SENATORS

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE

August 19, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—I am greatly pleased with your "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most interesting and attractive work on Panama I have ever seen. It contains the complete story from Columbus to the present, and I have no doubt it will be readily recognized as the most useful compilation of facts relating to our Canal interests in Panama now published. Its wealth of illustrations as well as its attractive presentation of related facts makes it a very valuable addition to my library.

Sincerely yours,
CHAS. F. TOWNSEND.

FROM CHAIRMAN OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INDIAN AFFAIRS.

August 19, 1913.
Mr. Abbot's work on "Panama and the Canal" is the most interesting and valuable publication relative to the Isthmian Canal that has ever come to my notice. Its careful preparation is especially evidenced by its completeness of detail, involving infinite pains in research. The story is an inspiring one, and the narrative is related in a most pleasing style. Both as a literary and historical production of great value, and as a model of typographic art, its place in any library ought to be assured.

UNIVERSAL ENDORSEMENTS

FROM THE WELL-KNOWN WISCONSIN SENATOR

August 20, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have had opportunity only to glance through "Panama and the Canal" and to observe how profusely and beautifully it is illustrated. It is pleasing and attractive in appearance, and when I have opportunity to read the text I am confident that I shall find it, like other productions of your pen, both entertaining and informing.

Cordially yours,
ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE.

CONGRESSMEN

FROM AN INDIANA CONGRESSMAN

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Willis—With a great deal of pleasure I have read your new book on Panama. Its artistic finish and fascinating literary style combine to make this story of Panama the most attractive and comprehensive. I heartily congratulate you on this picture and prose history of the Isthmus, for the eyes of the world are now centered on this our greatest national endeavor, and as everybody interested wants comprehensive information on this world-famous enterprise, you have surely given to students and the reading public generally a new beacon light of history with a fascinating descriptive thrill in every page. Your friend,
HENRY A. BARNHART.

FROM A NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN.

August 20, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I desire to congratulate you most heartily on your latest book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose."

A book of this kind is usually regarded as a picture book, and surely this one is most beautifully illustrated. But your book could be regarded as a picture book if one were to regard it from its letter press alone. I found it packed with information about the world's most wonderful canal, about the people there and the tropical conditions and about the ruins and the history that tell of Aztec and Toltec days, and the later amazing adventures of Balboa, Cortez and their handful of Spanish companions, who mixed their private business of buccaneering with an authorized business of exploring. I think the style in which you have written is most clear and flowing, and altogether this book is by far the best presentation of this much-talked-of subject that it has been my good fortune to find. Sincerely yours,
HENRY GEORGE, JR.

FROM A FLORIDA CONGRESSMAN.

August 22, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—I have looked over your book on Panama and the Panama Canal very carefully, and I consider it the best book on the subject that I have ever seen. The descriptions and illustrations are excellent. I am greatly pleased to be able to add it to my library. Yours most truly,
FRANK CLARK.

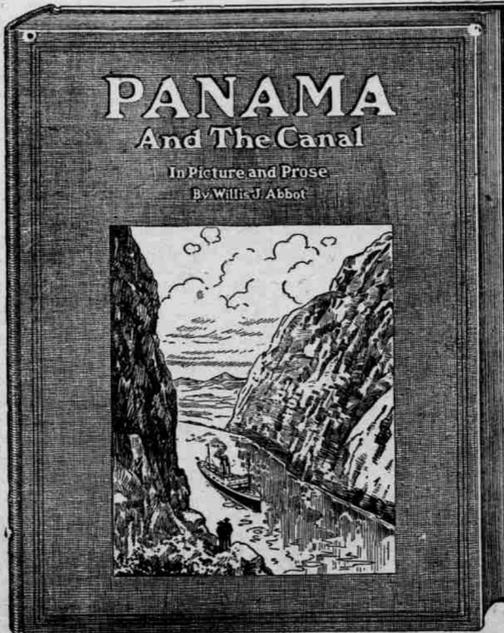

FROM AN ALABAMA CONGRESSMAN.

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have just examined your excellent book entitled "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose," and I assure you that I am delighted with it from cover to cover. The style and diction are entertaining, the illustrations are beautiful, and the subject matter is full of instruction and replete with information. This contribution entitles you more than ever to the grateful appreciation of your admirers. With best wishes, I am your friend,
JOHN L. BURNETT.
