NO PLAYERS INJURED FORECAST SAYS RAIN

OREGON WASHINGTON HAS RE MARKABLE FEATURE

HOWEVER, THE GAME WILL BE PLAYED REGARDLESS

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 17.—One of the most remarkable features of the Oregon-Washington game staged here Saturday was the fact that there was not one substitution, that of Cornell for Beckett, early in the first quarter Cornell was to have been injected into the game at a later period, but Coach Bezdek thought he saw a chance to get the jump on Washington, and sent in his regular quarter.

Considering the fact that Miller, the big Washington left half, Parsons and Cornell, of Oregon, were all suffering from earlier injuries, the fact that no changes were made is considered remarkable.

As far as Dible is concerned, he had no reason to make a change, as he had his best men in the game, and the score was so close until near the end of the game that he didn't dare take a chance with any of his subs.

Oregon was about in the same boat. Naturally, Oregon was the under dog, and up until the fourth quarter, with the score tied, it was placed on the defensive the greater part of the time. DeZoto could have pitched no one and strengthened his team. No one knew this better than he.

MAGNATE IS SILENT

As expected, there were announcements of no deals between Cleveland and Portland at the meeting at Columbus which ended Thursday. In fact, but two were pulled off at the meeting by Coast Leaguers which have broken into print and Hap Hogan gets Chelette, a Western League pitcher, and Bill Leard, Oakland second baseman for two years.

What Portland players will be sent to Cleveland is not known. Neither will they be until Walter McCredie returns to Portland, in all probability.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 17.—Although there is every indication of rain tomorrow, the grounds at Recreation Park are in good condition as yet and President McCredie announced this morning that unless there was an unusually heavy rain-fall tonight or tomorrow morning, the game would surely be played.

Naturally, on a wet diamond, the major league stars will not take the chances they would on a dry field, but the majority of fans are anxious to get a glimpse of the big league stars and do not expect them to put up a wonderful exhibition in the field and at bat.

One of the feature stunts which the players have been pulling before the game is in taking fielding practice without a ball. They go through all of the stunts which are usually performed, but no flying pellet is seen. It is said to be something way out of the ordinary in baseball.

It has definitely been decided that Schalk, Speaker, Hal Chase, Russell and Faber will leave the White Sox at Seattle and not make the rest of the tour, while the Giants will leave Fromme, Snodgrass and Tesreau behind, while Mathewson and Meyers left the team at San Francisco.

The probable lineup of the teams will be as follows:
New York—Snodgrass, cf.; Magee, lf.; Lobert, 3b.; Doyle, 2b.; Merkle, 3b.; Doolan, s.; Donlin or Thorpe, rf.; wingo, c.
Chicago—Weaver, s.; Rath, 2b.; Speaker, cf.; Crawford, rf.; Chase, 1b.; Schaeffer, 2b.; Evans, lf.; Schalk, c.

N. Y. SHOW OPENS

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—After the warming up session of Saturday, the National Horse show got under way today for six days and nights of real business.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN MYSTIFIES HUNDREDS.

The world loves mystery, and plenty of mystery surrounds Mme. Pearl Tangley, the woman "Who tells things" and who is telling things at the Bell Theatre this week. Judging from her performance last evening which was witnessed by hundreds, it is safe to say that should she have lived years ago, when witchcraft was in effect, her life would have been in danger. Her performance is full of that occult lore that had been handed down from remote ages. Last evening she performed feats almost incredible. Blindfolded, seated in the center of stage she called numbers that one in the audience had written without even seeing the writings, the gentleman or the blackboard. She called dozens of names of people in the audience and told them "just what they wanted to know. Some asked about business, others about love, one woman asked "is my husband true?" Pearl told her a plenty. Tonight, possibly, she will give a statement regarding a mysterious case that has mystified the city officials for years. It was announced last evening that she would hold a special meeting for ladies only Friday at 2:30 and no men would be allowed. Poor man, how he will suffer! We wager that the ladies will find out many little "personal" things about their husbands.

SPORTING BREVITIES

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 17.—The Portland All Stars, a team composed of the best players from several Portland football teams, met a crushing defeat at the Clarke county fair grounds yesterday afternoon at the hands of the St. James Athletic club team. The final score was 32 to 0.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 17.—Announcement of the postponement of the Frankie Burns-Johnny McCarthy 20 round contest here from November 21 to November 24 was made today.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 17.—Packer McFarland is considering a trip in to California to do battle there with Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul sensation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Amateur Athletic union was scheduled to elect officers here this afternoon.

Managers Plowden Stott of Multnomah and Walker of Oregon have agreed on Roscoe Fawcett as referee of the Thanksgiving day game.

Build a House in an Hour.
Houses go up rapidly in Porto Rico, where many families insist upon having a new home once a year and set aside an hour or so at the end of each summer to gather material and construct a new winter residence. Four men can build a Porto Rico bark house in about fifty minutes, spending half the time to gather the material. Its four corner posts are cut from the trunk of a fallen cocoa palm, a light frame of saplings is built about them, and the whole structure is covered with flat pieces of the dried bark of a royal palm, bound together with strips of banana and cocoa fiber.—Popular Mechanics.

Fish Test.
The sure sign by which to tell fresh fish is the eye. If the eye is clear the fish is fresh, but if it is sunken and shrunken you may be certain that the fish is not fresh, even though the gills look red.
One can hardly eat too many apples.

Too Hasty.
"I feel like a perfect ignoramus in your presence, Mr. Crichton," said the young woman who possessed the art of battery. "You play, you sing, you are an accomplished linguist, you draw—really, you have all the accomplishments that I lack."
"Oh, Miss Taurus," he protested, with becoming modesty, "really I'm not that clever!"
Afterward he wondered if he had said the right thing.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

This is to certify that I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism since 1894. Contracted the disease while working with a snow plow on the railroad. For several years I have been obliged to use crutches a great part of the time. Having used three boxes of the Meritol Rheumatism powder, I have thrown away the crutches and am now almost fully recovered. It certainly has done wonders for me and I heartily recommend it.

Fine Air.
"You never know how a patient is going to follow your advice."
"What's gone wrong now, doc?"
"I told a man to go to some secluded spot daily and practice deep breathing. What spot do you suppose he picked out?"
"I'll give it up."
"A place back of the gas house,"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Well Reasoned.
A schoolteacher was asking if they could tell what part of the body was the most ill used.
One little boy snapped his fingers, saying:
"Yes, mum; I know."
Teacher—Well, Tommy, what is your answer?
Tommy—The eye.
Teacher—Why?
Tommy—Because it is under the lash all day and gets a good hiding at night.

A man may be fairly human and yet refuse to get excited over a football game.

INDIANS WILL PROBABLY COME

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 17.—Although nothing definite has been heard from Coach Warner, of the Carlisle Indians, regarding the western tour, Manager Stott, of Multnomah, feels certain that the redmen will come.
Warner was supposed to make up his mind last Saturday, but Stott held a conference with Coach Bender, of Washington State, here yesterday, and they both were of the opinion that the reason Warner had been holding off was to see what kind of showing his team would make against Dartmouth Saturday.

My Dear Sir—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" whets my anticipation of visiting the Canal this Winter after the water has been turned in and when the Fleet is to go through. PUBLIC OFFICIALS

FROM A LEADING PROGRESSIVE SENATOR.
August 13, 1913
Dear Mr. Abbot—I am fascinated with your book, as I was with the Isthmus itself. This spot, where the nations meet, is of rapidly increasing interest. It will be a pleasure resort as well as a commercial center. It is fortunate that one so well equipped as yourself has written just at this time the story of this interesting place. You have caught its spirit, its romance and beauty. The wealth of pictures adds greatly to the interest of your vivid descriptions. Very truly yours, MILES POINDEXTER.

FROM THE MAJORITY LEADER IN THE HOUSE.

My Dear Mr. Abbot—The book is a graphic presentation of the facts concerning this greatest of all modern contributions to the world's progress and the amity of nations. Your style of treatment makes it as interesting as it is informative, and it will be prized both by those who have visited the Canal Zone and those who have that great pleasure yet in view. Sincerely yours, O. W. UNDERWOOD.

SENATORS

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Dear Mr. Abbot—I am greatly pleased with your "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most interesting and attractive work on Panama I have ever seen. It contains the complete story from Columbus to the present, and I have no doubt it will be readily recognized as the most useful compilation of facts relating to our Canal interests in Panama now published. Its wealth of illustrations as well as its attractive presentation of related facts makes it a very valuable addition to my library. Sincerely yours, CHAS. F. TOWNSEND.

FROM A WELL-KNOWN DEMOCRATIC SENATOR.

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—Your book upon Panama is splendidly illustrated and written, and I have enjoyed it very much, besides getting from it a great deal of most valuable information. Very truly yours, JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS.

FROM THE MAJORITY LEADER IN THE SENATE.

August 18, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—Your new book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose," is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever." The mechanical execution is unsurpassed, and you have made a great contribution to Panama literature. It should be in the hands of everybody, and especially those who are not able to visit the Isthmus in person. After reading your splendid descriptions and looking at the fine illustrations no one can fail to have a complete and accurate knowledge of every subject concerning the Isthmus and the Canal of any possible interest. Yours very truly, JNO. W. KERN.

FROM A WELL-KNOWN OHIO SENATOR

August 18, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is a very valuable contribution to the bibliography of a country, which is bound to be an object of increasing interest to the people of both Continents. Yours very truly, T. E. BURTON.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE HOUSE COMMITTEE

August 15, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have examined with great pleasure and admiration your exquisite book on Panama. Of all the works relating to that matchless enterprise with which I am acquainted this product of your genius is most excellent and satisfactory. As a contribution to history, geography, literature, artistic arrangement and illustration it is a triumph of art. Yours truly, W. C. ADAMSON.

FROM AN ILLINOIS CONGRESSMAN.

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I am delighted with your book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most valuable publication on Panama yet issued. You have thoroughly popularized the entire matter. I think I have read everything published on the subject of Panama and the Canal, and in my study of the subjects connected with the Canal I have spent many days on the Isthmus of Panama. Your book appears at a most opportune time. I know of no information of real value on the subject which is not contained in your book. You have rendered a great public service. The book is written in a charming manner, and you present the intensely interesting romantic history connected with that part of the world as no one else has yet been able to do. I know of no other book of travel appearing in recent years so interesting and valuable as this. Very truly yours, HENRY T. RAINEY.

CONGRESSMEN

FROM AN INDIANA CONGRESSMAN

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Willis—With a great deal of pleasure I have read your new book on Panama. Its artistic finish and fascinating literary style combine to make this story of Panama the most attractive and comprehensive. I heartily congratulate you on this picture and prose history of the Isthmus, for the eyes of the world are now centered on this our greatest national endeavor, and as everybody interested wants comprehensive information on this world-famous enterprise, you have surely given to students and the reading public generally a new beacon light of history with a fascinating descriptive thrill in every page. Your friend, HENRY A. BARNHART.

FROM A NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN.

August 20, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I desire to congratulate you most heartily on your latest book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose."
A book of this kind is usually regarded as a picture book, and surely this one is most beautifully illustrated. But your book could be regarded as a picture book if one were to regard it from its letter press alone. I found it packed with information about the world's most wonderful canal, about the people there and the tropical conditions and about the ruins and the history that tell of Aztec and Toltec days, and the later amazing adventures of Balboa, Cortez and their handful of Spanish companions, who mixed their private business of buccaneering with an authorized business of exploring. I think the style in which you have written is most clear and flowing, and altogether this book is by far the best presentation of this much-talked-of subject that I have seen my good fortune to find. Sincerely yours, HENRY GEORGE, JR.

UNIVERSAL ENDORSEMENTS

FROM THE WELL-KNOWN WISCONSIN SENATOR

August 20, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have had opportunity only to glance through "Panama and the Canal" and to observe how profusely and beautifully it is illustrated. It is pleasing and attractive in appearance, and when I have opportunity to read the text I am confident that I shall find it, like other productions of your pen, both entertaining and informing. Cordially yours, ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE.

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INTER-OCEANIC CANALS.

August 15, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I shall read "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" with a great deal of pleasure, but the pleasure will be largely enhanced by the fact that as a member of the Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals I visited the Canal in October 1911, and the half-tone cuts in the volume recall more vividly than anything else the scenes I visited. C. S. PAGE.

FROM A LOUISIANA SENATOR.

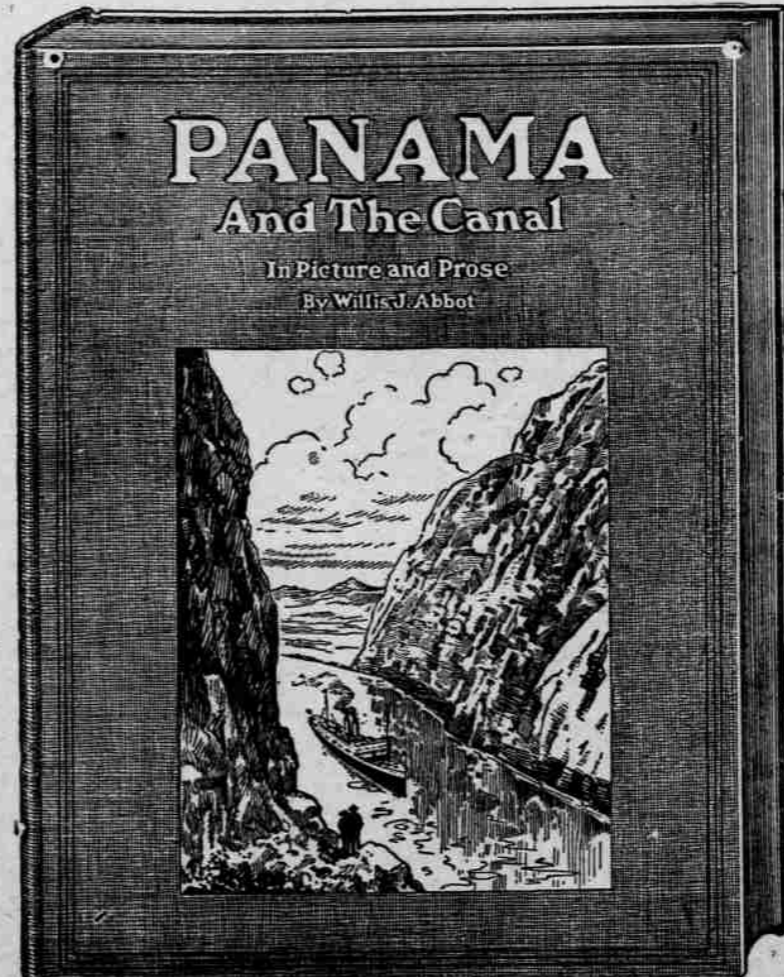

August 25, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is one of the most thorough works of its kind that has come before me, and on its face it shows the result of untrifling efforts on your part. It appears to be remarkably well arranged, and I am sure it contains an exhaustive fund of information. Very sincerely, JOS. E. RANSDALL.

FROM A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN SENATOR

August 22, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—My wife and I spent a most delightful Sunday in going over your magnificent book on Panama. We had visited the Isthmus last Christmas and were familiar with the different places, which lent an additional charm to the work. It is about the most "readable" book I have had hold of for a long while. Sincerely yours, WM. S. KENYON.
