SECOND GAME WANTED FIRST PLACE IN DOUBT

OREGON-O. A. C. GAME WOULD BE GREAT ATTRACTION

In order to play off the the 10 to 10 tie between the two schools, an attempt is being made to bring Oregon and O. A. C. together for the second time. The plan is said to be meeting with favor from the students of both schools and it is believed that with the showing made last Saturday, the largest crowds of the season would attend the game.

Next Saturday and Saturday, December 6, are the dates suggested. Negotiations for the game were opened when Mark C. Weatherford, an Albany attorney, and graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, called up the athletic authorities of that school. William Eagles, at whose suggestion the teams buried their differences and met here last year, and who has served as chairman of the Albany committees on arrangements both years, telephoned to the University of Oregon manager and coach. The suggestion is said to have met with instant approval at the university and some of the agricultural college authorities also received it enthusiastically.

SALEM-CORVALLIS WANT THE VALLEY CHAMPIONSHIP

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 18.—With a record of four high school games played and on defeat, the Corvallis High school team is making a strong bid for the valley high school championship, and now is trying to arrange for a game with Salem High next Saturday.

The Corvallis High's line has not been crossed by a high school team and the team has defeated Eugene 35 to 0, Lebanon 31 to 0, McMinnville 18 to 0, and the Cottage Grove team was held to a scoreless game. The team was beaten by O. A. C. freshmen 6 to 0. Salem High also has gone through the season without a defeat, but the "dope" gives Corvallis an advantage, as Salem beat Eugene only by 16 to 7. Valley teams would settle the championship.

A game between the two undefeated valley teams would settle the championship question.

Corvallis High school has an excellent team this year. The line averages 157 pounds, the backfield about 150, and the team has several veterans.

O. C. H. S. HASHARD GAME

WILL PLAY ESTACADA NEXT SATURDAY

Oregon City High school will play its hardest and closest game with Estacada next Saturday on the grounds of the latter school.

The boys have undergone thorough training during the last week at the hands of Coach Wagner. Night signals practice and hard day work on the lot back of the school has been the program for the preparatory period preceding the game.

The dope on the coming contest seems to favor the school from the other side of the county. They played Gresham and came off victors to the score of 32 to 0 while the local eleven, although they handed it to the Greshamites, did so to a much smaller score.

Just what effect the illness of Clyde Green will have on the team is hard to figure out but if his team mates are in good condition, it is thought that the effect on the game will be slight.

SALEM PREPARES TEAM

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 18.—With the football season rapidly nearing an end, attention is being directed here to basketball, and the season for this game will open Thanksgiving evening with a game between the Silverton team and the "Yellow Jackets" of this city. It will be played at Silverton, and it is planned to run excursion trains from the city on that afternoon and evening.

James W. Raynsford, '15, engineer, of Detroit, was elected yesterday captain of the University of Michigan football eleven for 1914.

TRIP CALLED OFF

A wire was received from a railroad official in the east who had talked with Coach Warner of Carlisle, announcing that the Indians had decided not to make the western trip, which included games with Pullman at Spokane, the Seattle Athletic club at Seattle, and Multnomah at Portland on New Year's Day.

Warner had promised to give his decision on November 15, and while nothing has been heard directly from him, the news is understood to be authentic. Manager Stott of Multnomah, is not satisfied, and wired Coach Warner direct this morning, but is practically certain that there is no chance of the Indians coming West.

A. A. U. ELECTS OFFICERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—At the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union held here yesterday, Alfred J. Lill, Jr., of Boston, was elected president; John Elliott, of San Francisco, was elected first vice-president, and James E. Sullivan, of New York, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the organization.

SPORTING BRIEVITIES

With nearly two weeks ahead in which to prepare for the final game of the season with Cornell on Thanksgiving day, the coaches decided to give the University of Pennsylvania football squad a rest yesterday.

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—Both Jimmy Clabby and Frank Logan, middleweights, were rapidly rounding into form today for their scheduled 29 round class on Thanksgiving day.

Multnomah cleared between $1500 and $2000 at its Pacific Coast boxing championships tournament the past week, according to rough estimate. The expenses were in the neighborhood of $1200, according to Chairman Frank, of the boxing committee.

Pittsburg, Nov. 18.—There is nothing to prevent John K. Teaser, governor of Pennsylvania, accepting the presidency of the National Baseball league when it is offered to him, according to remarks of Walter L. Gaither, his private secretary.

CLASS ORGANIZES

An English speaking Sunday school class has been organized at Beaver Creek. The first meeting was held November 2 in William Jones' store, which has been secured for the purpose. Last Sunday's attendance was 25 in spite of rainy weather. Efforts are being made to purchase an organ for these services.

INDEPENDENCE

It is astonishing how many men lack this power of "holding on" until they reach the goal. They can make a sudden dash, but they lack grit. They are easily discouraged. They get on as long as everything goes smoothly, but when there is friction they lose heart. They depend on stronger personalities for their spirit and strength. They lack independence and originality. They dare only to do what others do. They do not step boldly from the crowd and act fearlessly.—Theodore Cuyler.

FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

August 15, 1913.
Mr. Willis J. Abbot, New York:
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have just had an opportunity to examine your book, "Panama and the Canal." It is an admirable volume—the story is most interesting, the illustrations are profuse and illuminating and the workmanship is excellent. The book is worthy of your reputation and of the gigantic engineering enterprise which has put Panama on the World-Map.

Thanking you for the pleasure and instruction which the book has given me, I am, very truly yours,
W. J. BRYAN.

FROM THE MAJORITY LEADER IN THE SENATE.

August 18, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—Your new book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose," is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever." The mechanical execution is unsurpassed, and you have made a great contribution to Panama literature. It should be in the hands of everybody, and especially those who are not able to visit the Isthmus in person. After reading your splendid descriptions and the fine illustrations no one can fail to have a complete and accurate knowledge of every subject concerning the Isthmus and the Canal of any possible interest.
Yours very truly,
JNO. W. KERN.

FROM A WELL-KNOWN OHIO SENATOR

August 18, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is a very valuable contribution to the bibliography of a country, which is bound to be an object of increasing interest to the people of both Continents. Yours very truly,
T. E. BURTON.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE HOUSE COMMITTEE

August 15, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have examined with great pleasure and admiration your exquisite book on Panama. Of all the works relating to that matchless enterprise with which I am acquainted this product of your genius is most excellent and satisfactory. As a contribution to history, geography, literature, artistic arrangement and illustration it is a triumph of art.
Yours truly,
W. C. ADAMSON.

FROM AN ILLINOIS CONGRESSMAN.

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I am delighted with your book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most valuable publication on Panama yet issued. You have thoroughly popularized the entire matter. I think I have read everything published on the subject of Panama and the Canal, and in my study of the subjects connected with the Canal I have spent many days on the Isthmus of Panama. Your book appears at a most opportune time. I know of no information of real value on the subject which is not contained in your book. You have rendered a great public service. The book is written in a charming manner, and you present the intensely interesting romantic history connected with that part of the world as no one else has yet been able to do. I know of no other book of travel appearing in recent years so interesting and valuable as this. Very truly yours,
HENRY T. RAINEY.

FROM A LOUISIANA SENATOR.

August 25, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is one of the most thorough works of its kind that has come before me, and on its face it shows the result of untiring efforts on your part. It appears to be remarkably well arranged, and I am sure it contains an exhaustive fund of information.
Very sincerely,
JOS. E. RANDELL.

FROM A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN SENATOR

August 22, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—My wife and I spent a most delightful Sunday in going over your magnificent book on Panama. We had visited the Isthmus last Christmas and were familiar with the different places, which lent an additional charm to the work. It is about the most "readable" book I have had hold of for a long while. Sincerely yours,
WM. S. KENYON.

PRAISE

FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

August 13, 1913.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS

FROM A LEADING PROGRESSIVE SENATOR.
August 13, 1913
Dear Abbot—I am fascinated with your book, as I was with the Isthmus itself. This spot, where the nations meet, is of rapidly increasing interest. It will be a pleasure resort as well as a commercial center. It is fortunate that one so well equipped as yourself has written just at this time the story of this interesting place. You have caught its spirit, its romance and beauty. The wealth of pictures adds greatly to the interest of your vivid descriptions. Very truly yours,
MILES POINDEXTER.

SENATORS

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Dear Mr. Abbot—I am greatly pleased with your "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most interesting and attractive work on Panama I have ever seen. It contains the complete story from Columbus to the present, and I have no doubt it will be readily recognized as the most useful compilation of facts relating to our Canal interests in Panama now published. Its wealth of illustrations as well as its attractive presentation of related facts makes it a very valuable addition to my library.
Sincerely yours,
CHAS. F. TOWNSEND.

FROM CHAIRMAN OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INDIAN AFFAIRS.

August 19, 1913.
Mr. Abbot's work on "Panama and the Canal" is the most interesting and valuable publication relative to the Isthmian Canal that has ever come to my notice. Its careful preparation is especially evidenced by its completeness of detail, involving infinite pains in research. The story is an inspiring one, and the narrative is related in a most pleasing style. Both as a literary and historical production of great value, and as a model of typographic art, its place in any library ought to be assured.
WILLIAM J. STONE.

UNIVERSAL ENDORSEMENTS

FROM THE WELL-KNOWN WISCONSIN SENATOR

August 20, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have had opportunity only to glance through "Panama and the Canal" and to observe how profusely and beautifully it is illustrated. It is pleasing and attractive in appearance, and when I have opportunity to read the text I am confident that I shall find it like other productions of your pen, both entertaining and informing.
Cordially yours,
ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE.

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INTER-OCEANIC CANALS.

August 15, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I shall read "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" with a great deal of pleasure, but the pleasure will be largely enhanced by the fact that as a member of the Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals I visited the Canal in October 1911, and the half-tone cuts in the volume recall more vividly than anything else the scenes I visited.
C. S. PAGE.

CONGRESSMEN

FROM AN INDIANA CONGRESSMAN

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Willis—With a great deal of pleasure I have read your new book on Panama. Its artistic finish and fascinating literary style combine to make this story of Panama the most attractive and comprehensive. I heartily congratulate you on this picture and prose history of the Isthmus, for the eyes of the world are now centered on this our greatest national endeavor, and as everybody interested wants comprehensive information on this world-famous enterprise, you have surely given to students and the reading public generally a new beacon light of history with a fascinating descriptive thrill in every page. Your friend,
HENRY A. BARNHART.

FROM A NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN.

August 20, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I desire to congratulate you most heartily on your latest book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose."
A book of this kind is usually regarded as a picture book, and surely this one is most beautifully illustrated. But your book could be regarded as a picture book if one were to regard it from its letter press alone. I found it packed with information about the world's most wonderful canal, about the people there and the tropical conditions and about the ruins and the history that tell of Aztec and Toltec days, and the later amazing adventures of Balboa, Cortez and their handful of Spanish companions, who mixed their private business of buccaneering with an authorized business of exploring. I think the style in which you have written is most clear and flowing, and altogether this book is by far the best presentment of this much-talked-of subject that it has been my good fortune to find. Sincerely yours,
HENRY GEORGE, JR.

FROM A FLORIDA CONGRESSMAN.

August 22, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—I have looked over your book on Panama and the Panama Canal very carefully, and I consider it the best book on the subject that I have ever seen. The descriptions and illustrations are excellent. I am greatly pleased to be able to add it to my library. Yours most truly,
FRANK CLARK.

FROM AN ALABAMA CONGRESSMAN.

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have just examined your excellent book entitled "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose," and I assure you that I am delighted with it from cover to cover. The style and diction are entertaining, the illustrations are beautiful, and the subject matter is full of instruction and replete with information. This contribution entitles you more than ever to the grateful appreciation of your admirers. With best wishes, I am your friend,
JOHN L. BURNETT.

NOBODY CAN TELL IF YOU DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA

Druggist Says When Mixed With Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Weyth's."

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight, and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared; after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color, and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur." It surely helps folks appear years younger. (Adv.)
