distance. About four miles of the grading on the new line has been completed and a large force of men is at work now. The bridge across the Clackamas river between Gladstone and Parkplace has already been started, as the company desired to get the concrete piers in before the high water sets in for the winter. The franchise which comes up before the Oregon City council Friday night enters Oregon City by way of Center street, thence along Center to Fifteenth, thence from Fifteenth to Water, and there along Water street to the southerly terminus thereof. According to the franchise, work is to commence within three months and completed within eighteen months thereafter, and cars must be in operation by that time. With favorable action by the council Friday evening, active work will start in this vicinity at an early date.

SEERESS SPEAKS ON THE HILL MURDER

Last evening at the Bell theatre, Mme. Pearl Tangley gave her impressions of the Hill murder case. It was a lengthy statement, in which she stated that the murderer was now in Melbourne Australia, and that his guilty conscience would make him slightly demented at which time he would leave drop evidence that would end in his conviction. She said the sheriff was on the right track, and deserved praise and that he would be successful in running this man to justice before 11 months. She described the man as one about 50 years of age, dark piercing eyes, weight about 150, height five feet 7 inches. The children were murdered in order to keep them from furnishing evidence, as they came upon the murderer just after he accomplished his deed. Names will be given to the proper officials as Mme. Tangley did not dare give them in public as by holding her as a witness it may cause considerable losses to her in the cancellation of her engagements. Her work is clever and if there is anything in mental transmissions she surely ought to know, judging from her performances.—Adv.

letter from her son in Australia in which he explained his disappearance and his journeys for the past 20 months. The news was a complete surprise to his relatives. Goes to Australia. The letter told of his sudden departure from this city and his arrival in San Francisco on April 3. From that city he sailed at once for Australia, arriving there sometime during the month. According to the letter, he was destitute at the time of his landing on that continent and secured work. Soon after his arrival, however, he was taken down with pneumonia and confined to a hospital for a number of months. It is thought probable that he has been only recently that he was able to resume work of any kind. The letter is vague in many respects. It does not tell how he left Oregon City or how long he was in San Francisco. Of his experiences in the southern continent or of his trip across the Pacific, there is almost nothing said. The reason for leaving his home is given in his letter as nervous breakdown. He claims that his departure from this city is as strange to him as it must have been to his friends. Asks Forgiveness. In the letter he asked his mother for forgiveness, explaining the condition in which he left Oregon City and expressing his sorrow for the trouble he must have caused. Mrs. Williams is ready to receive him and is expecting his return some time in the near future. Upon receiving the letter, an answer was sent to Australia in which Williams was told of the death of his baby boy. A brief reply to this letter has been received by Mrs. Williams and her son tells of his intention of returning to this country as soon as possible. Mr. Williams was one of the best known and most popular young men in Clackamas county. His father, Eli Williams, was a pioneer and lived in Estacada for many years. He later moved to Oregon City where he was county assessor for two terms. Educated Here. The son was educated in Oregon City schools and several years ago he secured a place as deputy in the recorder's office. In 1910 he was elected county recorder. The day before his disappearance, he filed his petition as candidate for the republican nomination for re-election and confided to a friend that he expected to hold the office for another term. Mr. Williams was an Elk, a Mason, a Knight of Pythias, and a member of several other organizations. He was a member of the commercial club and always took a deep interest in the welfare of the city. During her husband's absence, Mrs. Williams, has been employed in the recorder's office as deputy. It takes a woman to learn things from a man that he doesn't know. No, Alonzo, you can't always judge by appearances. A girl with eyes like a dove may have an appetite like an ostrich.

DEVIL WORSHIPPERS

That curious people, the Yezids of Turkey, live sometimes in huts, but more commonly in black tents like those of the Arabs of the plains. Of all the peculiar peoples of Turkey they are the most peculiar or the least understood. It is said that they worship the devil instead of God. They respect Satan as a deity whose power for good or evil is very great, and therefore they will never mention his name.—Christian Herald.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 1, 1913. M. D. Reynolds, says: This is to certify that I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism since 1894. Contracted the disease while working with a snow plow on the railroad. For several years I have been obliged to use crutches a great part of the time. Having used three boxes of the Meritol Rheumatism powder, I have thrown away the crutches and am now almost fully recovered. It certainly has done wonders for me and I heartily recommend it. M. D. SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, stiff headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Epsom Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. For Sale by Huntley Bros. (Adv.)

Get the Farmers to save their votes and you will surely win one of the Popularity Contest prizes. Between now and Saturday write twelve letters to farmers. The plan is to put these letters in the farmers wagons when they come to town Saturday. You don't need to know the people who get the letters, merely leave them in the wagons at the feed barns or hitching racks. In these letters tell your name and number and that you want their votes and nine times out of ten they will be glad to boost the "live wire" candidate they don't know. Just One Week More and the green votes will be valueless. There are thousands of these votes in circulation which have never been turned in by the candidates. This means that there are hundreds of people who are not saving the votes for any one candidate. Why not get busy today and see how many "new friends" you can get to save votes for you. HUNTLEY BROS. A WIZARD IN MEMORY.

Scott Could Retain in His Mind Anything He Heard Once. To his rare good fellowship and his powers of endurance Scott added one other quality, without which his vigorous search for literary material might have been of little use—namely, a most extraordinary memory, which enabled him to retain what he heard and use it many years afterward. James Hogg, the eccentric Ettrick Shepherd, gives a fine instance of this power. One night Scott, with his friends Hogg and Skene, was out on a fishing expedition. "While we three sat down on the brink of a river," says Hogg, "Scott desired me to sing them my ballad of 'Gimman's Clough.' Now be it remembered that this ballad had never been printed. I had merely composed it by rote and on finishing it three years before had sung it over once to Sir Walter. I began it at his request, but at the eighth or ninth stanza I stuck in it and could not get on with another verse, on which he began it again and recited it every word from beginning to end. "It being a very long ballad, consisting of eighty-eight stanzas. I testified my astonishment, knowing that he had never heard it but once and even then did not appear to be paying particular attention. He said he had been out with a pleasure party as far as the opening of the Firth of Forth and to amuse the company he had recited that ballad and one of Southey's ('The Abbot of Aberbrothok'), both of which ballads he had heard only once from their respective authors, and he believed he recited them both without misplacing a word."—From Charles S. Ocott's "The Country of Sir Walter Scott."

Words of Praise For Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy

"How thankful we are to you for getting a hold of your wonderful Remedy. My wife could not have had but a short time to live if she had not taken your Wonderful Remedy when she did. One more of those paroxysms pains she was having would have killed her without a doubt. Now she is free from all pain, free from heart trouble and free from that disturbing Neuritis—all the results of five treatments—and the explosion of five or six hundred Gall Stones. Now she is able to eat anything she wants and her appetite is good and before taking your medicine she had no appetite and when she ate anything she would suffer death for so doing and could not sleep at night; since taking your treatment she sleeps well all night long. T. A. NEALL, Rossmore, Texas." The above letter should convince you more than anything we could say in behalf of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Sufferers should try one dose of this Remedy—one dose should convince them that they can be restored to health. Nearly all Stomach Ailments are caused by the clogging of the intestinal tract with mucus and catarrhal secretions allowing poisonous fluids into the stomach and otherwise deranging the digestive system. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy radically removes these accretions without a surgical operation and puts an end to Colic Attacks, Gases in the Stomach and Intestines and all of the usual symptoms of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments. Ask your druggist about Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154 W. Van Ness St., Chicago, Ill., for free booklet on Stomach Ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. (For Sale in Oregon City by Huntley Bros. Co.)—Adv.

THE VARYING LENGTH OF THE COAT

Coats this season seem to be of all lengths, more or less, according to the fancy of the wearer. The Ettons are quite popular, many of them being seen in fur. The three-quarter coat has its usual following and the short coat with straight or cutaway outline is also much worn. Vests are quite the most effective feature of many of the new coats. They are usually fashioned of a brocade or tapestry cleverly repeating the shade of the suit, in its soft Persian colorings. The gracefully draped peg-top is the most popular skirt model of the moment. Old blue duvety is charmingly combined in this model, with a vest of broad satin in which there are tones of amber. The buttons are amber color. To copy this design in size 36 it requires 2 1/2 yards of 42 inch material for the coat (7582) and 2 1/2 yards of material for the skirt (7968). Could anything be qualiter or prettier for the tiny maid than a frock of blue ratine with trimmings of scarlet cut after a design like 7863 with its long blouse? The blouse slips on over the head, being slashed in front for an opening. The skirt is plaited on the sides and attached to an underwaist. This dress may be made in size 10 with 3 yards of 36 inch material and 1/2 yard of muslin for underwaist. No. 7863—sizes 6 to 12. No. 7582—sizes 34 to 42. No. 7968—sizes 22 to 30. Each pattern 15 cents
