TRYOUT WELL STARTED QUAILS ARE ABUNDANT

PAPER WEIGHTS TO PICK BOWLING TEAM

The tryout for the Paper Weights bowling team is well started and inside of a week the ten lucky players who will compose the two teams, will be decided. The tryout has been under way for three days, and it is thought that the schedule will last a week longer. Over 20 men are out for positions on the five.

At first two teams will be chosen but after the season becomes more advanced, one team will be picked out which will represent the club. Although plans are rather hazy, as yet, outside organizations will probably be met.

The club members are in the employ of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company, the tryout being held after working hours.

AMERICA LANDS FIRST HORSE SHOW PRIZES

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—In the international contest for army charges at the National Horse show held here yesterday, America won the first two places and the fourth, the third going to the Great Britain.

The blue ribbon award was won by "Popp," a chestnut gelding exhibited by the Mounted Service School and ridden by Lieutenant J. F. Taulbee, Second Cavalry. "Deceiver," exhibited by the same school and ridden by Lieutenant Waldo G. Potter, First Field Artillery, was second.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 19.—This was the last day of football practice on the historic Yale field, which will be replaced in another season by the new "bowl." Tonight the players will kindle their annual bonfire with bits of discarded uniforms and hold their yearly dance around the blaze. The squad will leave tomorrow afternoon for Auburndale, Mass., its training quarters for the Harvard game.

'TIS SAID PARCEL POST AIDS LAW VIOLATORS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Evasion of the game laws through the agency of the parcel post is now possible, for Postmaster-General Burleson replied to the interrogations of indignant officials of states that congress had placed no restrictions on the department as to accepting game. This construction, the state game wardens fear, will nullify in great measure the state laws framed for the protection of wild life.

Cleverness and Stupidity. There is no harm in being stupid, so long as a man does not think himself clever; no good in being clever if a man thinks himself so, for that is a short way to the worst stupidity.—Macdonald.

EASTERN CLACKAMAS SAID TO HAVE MANY BIRDS

Reports have reached the county seat that Bob White quail are becoming abundant in the upper part of the county. A large number of Oregon City hunters have made the trip this fall and a great majority came back with full bags.

This bird is able to adapt itself to its surroundings better than most game birds and thrives in almost any community. It is thought that by next season quail hunting will be better in eastern Clackamas than in most sections of the valley. The bird not only is able to adapt itself but is a great economic value to any community as it is sure death to many farm pests.

The farming communities around Eagle Creek, Curranville, Estacada, Springwater, and Garfield have seen the greatest increase in the past year.

TURNER WILL PROBABLY ACCEPT PRESIDENCY

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 19.—While Governor John E. Tener, of Pennsylvania, has given no public intimation as to what he intends to do, it is believed by those who know him best that he will accept the presidency of the National Baseball league, which was offered him here today by a majority of the club presidents of that organization. Every club in the league, with the exception of St. Louis, whose president was unable to attend, was represented in the meeting at which the offer was made.

TURKISH VENGEANCE.

It's a Perilous Matter to Endanger the Life of a Sultan.

Within two weeks after the assassination of Mahmud Shekfat Pasha, the grand vizier of Turkey, thirty-two men were put to death for taking part in the conspiracy. According to Turkish custom handed down from the time of Mohammed, there is no limit as to the number of lives that may be taken as a penalty for the murder of one man. Even those interested in the remotest degree are liable to the sultan's vengeance.

Those who have studied the strange inhabitants of the Mammoth cave in Kentucky say that the celebrated blind fish from that cavern when placed in illuminated aquaria seek out the darkest places, and it is believed that light is directly fatal to them, for they soon die if kept in a brightly lighted tank. The avoidance of light seems to be a general characteristic of the sightless creatures dwelling in the great cave.

GRASS LINED BOOTS.

They Are Worn by the Nomadic Lapps, Who Never Get Cold Feet.

While civilized man suffers intensely from cold feet every winter, the Lapplander, living in the far north of Europe, has no such trouble. A traveler writes: "Their boots are made of reindeer skin and are worn very large, and the toes are pointed and curve upward so as to be easily slipped into their skins. The Lapp usually fills his boots half full with a peculiar green grass, into which he thrusts his naked feet. He then packs the boots full with more grass, tucks the ends of his trousers inside and binds them tightly round with many turns of a brightly woven braid. With these precautions they never suffer from cold feet, and chilblains, corns or such like civilized complaints are an unknown horror to them."

Killed by Light.

Concerning other customs the same writer says: "The Lapps are essentially a nomadic race and spend most of their lives wandering fancy free among the wild and glorious scenery of their northern home. However, at times no doubt the stillness of the frozen mountains becomes too still, and they turn their herds and start toward their nearest meeting place. Twice a year they hold these general gatherings—at Easter and midsummer—when they congregate and hold a general fair. It is on these occasions that they celebrate their weddings and funerals. The revelries last only about ten days, but many marriages take place between couples who perhaps have never met previously.

FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

August 18, 1913.
Mr. Willis J. Abbot, New York:
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have just had an opportunity to examine your book, "Panama and the Canal." It is an admirable volume—the story is most interesting, the illustrations are profuse and illuminating and the workmanship is excellent. The book is worthy of your reputation and of the gigantic engineering enterprise which has put Panama on the World-Map.

Thanking you for the pleasure and instruction which the book has given me, I am, very truly yours,
W. J. BRYAN.

FROM THE MAJORITY LEADER IN THE SENATE.

August 18, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—Your new book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose," is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever." The mechanical execution is unsurpassed, and you have made a great contribution to Panama literature. It should be in the hands of everybody, and especially those who are not able to visit the Isthmus in person. After reading your splendid descriptions and looking at the fine illustrations no one can fail to have a complete and accurate knowledge of every subject concerning the Isthmus and the Canal of any possible interest.

Yours very truly,
JNO. W. KERN.

FROM A WELL-KNOWN OHIO SENATOR

August 18, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is a very valuable contribution to the bibliography of a country which is bound to be an object of increasing interest to the people of both Continents. Yours very truly, T. E. BURTON.

FROM AN ILLINOIS CONGRESSMAN.

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I am delighted with your book, "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most valuable publication on Panama yet issued. You have thoroughly popularized the entire matter. I think I have read everything published on the subject of Panama and the Canal, and in my study of the subjects connected with the Canal I have spent many days on the Isthmus of Panama. Your book appears at a most opportune time. I know of no information of real value on the subject which is not contained in your book. You have rendered a great public service. The book is written in a charming manner, and you present the intensely interesting romantic history connected with that part of the world as no one else has yet been able to do. I know of no other book of travel appearing in recent years so interesting and valuable as this. Very truly yours,
HENRY T. RAINEY.

FROM A LOUISIANA SENATOR.

August 25, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is one of the most thorough works of its kind that has come before me, and on its face it shows the result of untiring efforts on your part. It appears to be remarkably well arranged, and I am sure it contains an exhaustive fund of information. Very sincerely,
JOS. E. RANDELL.

FROM A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN SENATOR

August 22, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—My wife and I spent a most delightful Sunday in going over your magnificent book on Panama. We had visited the Isthmus last Christmas and were familiar with the different places, which lent an additional charm to the work. It is about the most "readable" book I have had hold of for a long while. Sincerely yours,
WM. S. KENYON.

What It Is

This beautiful big volume is written by Willis J. Abbot, a writer of international renown, and is the acknowledged standard reference work of the great Canal Zone. It is printed from new type, large and clear, on special paper; bound in tropical red vellum cloth; title stamped in gold, with inlaid color panel; contains more than 600 magnificent illustrations, including beautiful color pages.

Call and See It

THE VICE-PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER

Washington, August 21, 1913.
My Dear Friend Abbot—I was delightedly surprised the other evening to receive a copy of your work upon Panama. Typographically it is a thing of beauty; and as for its accuracy, I know you so well, as to believe it all. If it appeals as it should you will have scored a great success. Sincerely yours,
THOMAS R. MARSHALL.

PRAISE

FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

August 13, 1913.
Dear Mr. Abbot—From the cursory glance I have just been able to give your book on Panama I feel sure that it contains much of interest, and I shall take a great deal of pleasure in reading it more carefully. Sincerely yours,
W. G. M'ADDOO.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS

FROM A LEADING PROGRESSIVE SENATOR.

August 13, 1913.
Dear Abbot—I am fascinated with your book, as I was with the Isthmus itself. This spot, where the nations meet, is of rapidly increasing interest. It will be a pleasure resort as well as a commercial center. It is fortunate that one so well equipped as yourself has written just at this time the story of this interesting place. You have caught its spirit, its romance and beauty. The wealth of pictures adds greatly to the interest of your vivid descriptions. Very truly yours,
MILES POINDEXTER.

SENATORS

FROM MEMBER OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Dear Mr. Abbot—I am greatly pleased with your "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose." It is the most interesting and attractive work on Panama I have ever seen. It contains the complete story from Columbus to the present, and I have no doubt it will be readily recognized as the most useful compilation of facts relating to our Canal interests in Panama now published. Its wealth of illustrations as well as its attractive presentation of related facts makes it a very valuable addition to my library. Sincerely yours,
CHAS. F. TOWNSEND.

FROM CHAIRMAN OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON INDIAN AFFAIRS.

August 19, 1913.
Mr. Abbot's work on "Panama and the Canal" is the most interesting and valuable publication relative to the Isthmian Canal that has ever come to my notice. Its careful preparation is especially evidenced by its completeness of detail, involving infinite pains in research. The story is an inspiring one, and the most pleasing style. Both as a literary and historical production of great value, and as a model of typographic art, its place in any library ought to be assured. Sincerely yours,
WILLIAM J. STONE.

UNIVERSAL ENDORSEMENTS

FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE HOUSE COMMITTEE

August 15, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have examined with great pleasure and admiration your exquisite book on Panama. Of all the works relating to that matchless enterprise with which I am acquainted this product of your genius is most excellent and satisfactory. As a contribution to history, geography, literature, artistic arrangement and illustration it is a triumph of art. Yours truly,
W. C. ADAMSON.

FROM AN INDIANA CONGRESSMAN

August 21, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—With a great deal of pleasure I have read your new book on Panama. Its artistic finish and fascinating literary style combine to make this story of Panama the most attractive and comprehensive. I heartily congratulate you on this picture and prose history of the Isthmus, for the eyes of the world are now centered on your greatest national endeavor, and as everybody interested wants comprehensive information on this world-famous enterprise, you have surely given to students and the reading public generally a new beacon light of history with a fascinating descriptive thrill in every page. Your friend,
HENRY A. BARNHART.

The style and diction are entertaining, the illustrations are beautiful, and the subject matter is full of instruction and replete with information. This contribution entitles you more than ever to the grateful appreciation of your admirers. With best wishes, I am your friend,
JOHN L. BURNETT.

FROM THE WELL-KNOWN WISCONSIN SENATOR

August 20, 1913.
My Dear Mr. Abbot—I have had opportunity only to glance through "Panama and the Canal" and to observe how profusely and beautifully it is illustrated. It is pleasing and attractive in appearance, and when I have opportunity to read the text I am confident that I shall find it, like other productions of your pen, both entertaining and informing. Cordially yours,
ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE.

TRY IT! SAYS SAGE TEA DARKENS AND BEAUTIFIES FADED, GRAY HAIR

Mixed With Sulphur Makes Hair Soft and Luxuriant and Removes Dandruff

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is coming in vogue again, says a well-known downtown druggist. It was our grandmother's treatment, and hundreds of women, and men, too, are again using it to keep their hair soft, even color, which is quite desirable, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is the most popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply dampen a soft brush or sponge with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight, and by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application it is restored to its natural color.

What delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that besides beautifully darkening the hair they say it produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. Here, you gray-haired folks, get busy; look years younger. (Adv.) For Sale by Huntley Bros. Co.
