GRAND JURY HAS INITIAL REPORT

RETURNS SEVEN TRUE BILLS AND FOUR NOT FOUND TO CIRCUIT COURT

NEARLY ALL OF THEM OLD CASES

Have Passed Through Grist in the Justice Courts—Harry Clark Held on Murder Charge—Other Names

Seven true bills have been returned by the Clackamas county grand jury and four of those presented were reported "not true bills" to the circuit court Saturday.

Most of the cases for the past week have been those that have already passed through the justice court grist.

Harry Clark was indicted on a charge of the murder of Indian Henry Yelkes, the last chief of the Molalla tribe. The two were last seen together and the grand jury thought the evidence sufficient upon which to base the charge.

S. Hoffman was held for the alleged concealing and purchasing of stolen brass that had been taken from the plant of the Crown-Columbia Paper company. Wom Bo is held on a charge of assault with intent to kill Wong Ying, a laborer on the Portland Eugene & Eastern at Canby, September 11; Alonzo Haskins, performing acts that tend to contribute to the delinquency of Bula Marcum; James McDonald and Roy LaDoux, theft of brass from the plant of the Crown-Columbia company; Eric Polo, daylight burglary in the house of Marie C. Gelinsky at Lakeview; James V. Reece, threatening to kill Allene Reece.

The grand jury reported on the indictments that had been found and returned to its work for another week, at least.

Zeramus is a decker at the plant and was working around the machinery when the belt caught him. He was dragged into the machinery and the bones of the arm fractured. The accident happened at an early hour Saturday morning during the run of the night shift. Dr. Guy Mount attended the case.

MYSTERIOUS SHOT INJURES SMALL BOY

Lew Foreward, 12 years of age, is in the Oregon City hospital with a bullet in his face, discharged by a 22-calibre rifle somewhere in the neighborhood of his home in Ladd's addition to the city.

Sheriff E. T. Mass conducted an investigation Saturday afternoon to determine the direction from which the shot was fired. The boy was playing cards with his brother and was sitting on the bed in their home. He heard a shot fired. The glass was broken and he was thrown to the bed bleeding from the wound.

Drs. H. S. and Guy Mount attended the case. They do not believe that the wound will prove serious although it may give the boy trouble for several days. The boy's mother, Mrs. T. W. Foreward died a few days ago.

FIGHT BEGINS ON THE WILSON CURRENCY BILL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The final legislative fight for President Wilson's currency bill began in the senate today with the presentation of reports from the divided banking committee. Submitting a report for the administration Democrats, Chairman Owen gave notice he would open debate Monday. Their bill follows closely the lines of the house measure and contains only such amendments as President Wilson was willing to accept.

Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, and the five Republicans submitted a draft materially changing the bill and proposing four reserve banks owned by the public and controlled by the government.

HOBHEY BAKER, OF PRINCETON, DOWNED NEAR HIS GOAL LINE IN YALE GAME

The great Hobey Baker was Princeton's fortress of strength when the bulldog "came back" and upset the dope by tying and nearly vanquishing his traditional fess. Princeton's unexpectedly poor showing was not in any way due to Hobey—his mighty and now famous toss was there with the wallop first and last.

WETS GET MORE TIME TO FILE

COURT ALLOWS THEM TEN DAYS TO PREPARE AN AMENDED COMPLAINT

ORIGINAL WAS OFFERED TOO LATE

Attorneys Will Now Ask Judge to Set Aside Formal Order on Election Result and a Hearing Will be Set

The wet forces were given 10 days in which to amend their complaint filed against the county judge, H. S. Anderson. Judge J. U. Campbell in the circuit court granted the extension of time to allow the wets to change their complaint and file a different request before the matter is heard.

The original complaint asked the circuit court to restrain the county judge from entering an order declaring the results of the election in Oregon City and prohibiting the sale of liquor here after January 1. It was filed just 45 minutes after the court had issued the order. In the effort to get action on the complaint, the wets will have to amend it and ask the court to set aside the order that had been filed until after a hearing can be had on the matter and the legal status of the case determined.

The same questions are involved in the suit as are to be determined by the courts in other districts where the towns have voted on the question of prohibition. The wets allege that the authorities did not have the right to submit the question at all because of the fact that it was not held at any general municipal election.

The issues will be determined by the circuit judge some time after the amended complaint is filed.

GRAND DISPLAY OF MODERN ART

Modern processes of color printing now make it possible to give the lover of art exact representations of great paintings and other objects of art in their original colorings. The publishers of "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" have employed these latest color processes in reproducing a splendid collection of water color studies for this new book. The cover bears an inlaid panel in beautiful colors showing the famous Culabra cut. This was made from a painting by Gordon Grant and gives a decided individuality to the appearance of the large volume.

The same modern color processes have also been used in making the magnificent full page reproductions that abound throughout the book. Take, for instance a view of Panama. This was made from an original water color study by E. J. Read. The sharp contrasting colorings give the effect of an oil painting. The stately palms and tropical shrubbery softly blending into the waters of the bay and over all the rich tints of the tropical sun, making of this a most pleasing picture. But this is only one of sixteen similar art creations which adorn this beautiful volume, and any one of the collection is worthy of a splendid frame.

In addition to this grand array of gorgeous colorings are photographic reproductions of unusual scenes depicting the life and activity of Panama and the Canal Zone. Around these illustrations is drawn a most interesting and instructive story setting forth the complete history of the people and the country.

The Enterprise presents this book almost free to its readers. In another column of this issue is printed a certificate which explains the entire plan. Look for this certificate and clip it to-day.

AMENDMENTS TO BE SUBMITTED

CITY COUNCIL ASKS VOTERS TO AUTHORIZE STEPS THAT ARE CONTEMPLATED

POLICE FORCE FIGURES IN TWO

Fathers Want More Control of City Officers and Asks for Final Vote in Questions that Effect Dismissals

Several amendments and ordinances are to be submitted to the people of the city at the forthcoming election, December 1.

The council asks the voters to amend section 52 of the charter allowing the council to concur in all removal orders of the mayor where they involve the dismissal of any members of the police force.

An amendment to paragraph two section 45 of the charter is suggested by the council making it necessary for the council to concur in all removal orders of the mayor where they involve the dismissal of any members of the police force.

The proposal to make the elevator bonds at a value of $50 is submitted in another question to the people and upon which the city will vote at the election. The voters are also asked to authorize the council to spend $2500 to purchase the Englebrecht tract for public purposes and to equip it in such a way that it may be used for any purpose that the city authorities may determine beneficial and useful.

All of these matters have been threshed over in the several meetings of the city council and have been submitted to the people for final determination. The questions will be placed upon the ballots at the municipal election next month.
