OFFICIALS ARE NAMED BUD OFF FOR SOUTH

BOSSSES FOR THANKSGIVING ARE NAMED

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 24.—After several consultations, football officials for the annual Thanksgiving day game in Portland between the University of Oregon and the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club were agreed on yesterday by the respective managers, Dean Walker of Oregon, and Plowden Stott of the scarlet and white.

The list follows:
Referee, Roscoe Fawcett, Portland; umpire, Samuel Dolan, Corvallis; head linesman, H. H. Herdman, Portland.

Mr. Dolan who will umpire the annual game, formerly played with the Notre Dame eleven and coached the Oregon Agricultural team for two seasons. Mr. Herdman is principal of the Washington High and is one of the most thorough students of football in the northwest.

"With that off my mind I can devote my entire spare time to preparing other features and conveniences," remarked Manager Stott, last night.

"The next thing will be to prepare the numbers of the experiment we are going to make for the benefit of the spectators. These numbers will be sewed onto the backs of the players' jerseys and will correspond with numbers opposite their names in the score-books. Multnomah's numbers will run from 1 to 20 and Oregon's from 20 to 40."

Oregon's team will go into the Thursday Multnomah game with exactly the same lineup used against Washington. Anson Cornell, star quarterback, is now in good shape and the team is coming stronger all the time, says Manager Walker.

"We started late and that coupled with injuries has kept our squad back about ten days all fall," said Mr. Walker yesterday. "I think we will be much more formidable than at any time prior to this."

Multnomah's team too, will be in shape to put up its hardest game of the year. The shift of Conwill and Francis to the backfield seemed to give the boys more punch in their workout against the soldiers Saturday, although admittedly the army men weren't of sufficient caliber to give the new arrangement a thorough test.

Francis impressed the railbirds particularly. This ex-star of Willamette is by birth and occupation, an end but he plowed a majestic trail through the army line every time Rhodes called on him.

McCREDIE SAYS WINGO LOOKS GOOD TO HIM
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 24.—"I was told to take a good look at Ivy Wingo, the St. Louis National's catcher, when the White Sox and Giants played here, and after scanning the young fellow closely, he looks to be a better catcher to me than young Ray Schalk," said Walter McCredie this morning. "At least he showed it last week. He had three or four trying plays, and he executed them beautifully. He has a splendid arm, and he can hit."

SPORTING BREVITIES

San Francisco, Nov. 24.—Eddie Graney, it was announced here today, will referee tomorrow's 20 round bout between Frankie Burns and Johnny McCarthy here. Graney also is promoting the bout, although all the details were arranged by Louis Parente.

Huaca, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The Cornell squad was scheduled to leave tonight for Atlantic City, where the eleven will take things easy until time to go to Philadelphia for the football game with Pennsylvania on Thanksgiving day.

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Light scrimmages were on the boards for the army football team today, preparatory to its clash with the navy eleven. With an ice skating rink almost completed and an immense natatorium proposed, Portland will soon have an opportunity to be a very large dot on the map in all lines of endeavor.

Having failed to find any way of making money quicker, the National commission has decided not to abolish the world's series.

Eugene, Ore., Nov. 24.—Eugene will see the local high school and Jefferson High school of Portland clash on the football field on Thanksgiving day. Arrangements have been made for the game.

WILL CHASE JACKRABBITS FOR TRAINING

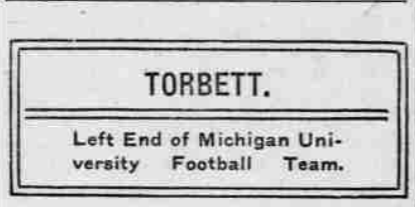

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 24.—In order to be at the ringside of the Rivers-Cross fight at Los Angeles next Thursday afternoon to challenge the winner, Bud Anderson, the Vancouver, Wash., lightweight, left for the south tonight. Manager Donald has telegraphed Bud that the fight with Jack Britton will be either December 16 or 20. Bud not only wants to see how Rivers and Cross are fighting these days, but he wants to be on the ground so that he can put in a good course of training for the shifty Chicago lightweight.

"They all look alike to me," said Bud this morning, "and I don't fear Britton any more than Champion Willie Ritchie, but there is one thing that Jack will have to do; he must put up a forfeit of $500 or $1000 to make the weight of 135 pounds. I am not going to let him come in as a welter-weight and let me have a $100 or $300 forfeit. I intend to make him do the weight or pay for the privilege of fighting me."

"There are lots of jackrabbits near Vernon, and I'm going to take my hounds along with me this time. Following the dogs ought to give me plenty of road work. Frank Dupuis, my trainer, and Floyd McIrvine, a 130 pound Vancouver boy, who is going to help me in the training camp, will take the dogs with them when they go down on the boat to Los Angeles next week."

LOGAN'S $500 FORFEIT TO GO INTO POCKET, SAYS BOXER

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 24.—Both Jimmy Clabby and Frank Logan were rounding into form today for their 20 round clash at Daly City on Thanksgiving day. Clabby, according to his manager, will enter the ring weighing 150 pounds.

FORMER JAPAN RULER DIES UNNOTICED AT HOME

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The death of Prince Keiki Tokugawa, announced in a brief cablegram from Tokio today, severs a connecting link between the old and new Japan. None of the contemporaries of the pre-Keiki era, or the days of the Shogunate enjoyed such distinction as hedged about Prince Keiki, "the last of the Shoguns."

In these later days of the era of enlightenment in Japan, it is doubtful if the average foreign visitor, or even resident, was aware of the unobtrusive existence of a man who, barely 50 years ago, was the de facto ruler of Japan.

Contracted the disease while working with a snow plow on the railroad. For several years I have been obliged to use crutches a great part of the time. Having used three boxes of the Meritol Rheumatism powders, I have thrown away the crutches and am now almost fully recovered. It certainly has done wonders for me and I heartily recommend it. M. D.
