

SPORT DOPE

THE LAST GAME TODAY U. OF O. IS PREPARED

O. C. H. S. AND SENIORS WILL MEET THIS AFTERNOON

Instead of playing Thanksgiving afternoon as at first planned, the Oregon City High school seniors will meet the combined teams of the rest of the school today.

Although the two elevens will probably not be up on its teamwork as well as the regular high school team, there is no doubt but that the contest will be close and exciting. The weights of the rival organizations are about the same, perhaps, some slight advantage in favor of the seniors. The first team men of the regular school team are about evenly divided between the elevens.

This will be the last time this season that Oregon City High school players will participate in this sport as the season closes on Thanksgiving. It is probable that the boys will start work on the basketball team soon, although definite arrangements have not been made as yet.

The senior line-up will be: Halleson, C.; Quinn, L. G.; Green, R. G.; Vierhus, L. T.; Griffin, R. T.; Hedges, L. E.; Morris, R. E.; Kellogg, L. H.; Gault, F. B.; Lettenmeier, R. H.; Beattie, Q.

The opposing team will consist of—Burke, C.; Milliken, R. G.; Bond, L. G.; Grossenbau, R. T.; Fineman, L. F.; Armstrong, R. E.; C. Miller, L. E.; Mass, Q.; J. Beattie, F. B.; Moody, R. H.; and C. Meyers, L. H.

ALBANY AND CORVALLIS HIGH TO SETTLE TITLE

ALBANY, Ore., Nov. 25.—With only one defeat marked against one and the other with a clear record, the Albany high school and the Corvallis high school football teams will clash here Thursday, in a game which will virtually settle the valley championship.

WARDENS RAID PLAYERS

MEDFORD, Ore., Nov. 25.—A raid conducted jointly Monday by game wardens of California and Oregon on a deserted mining cabin on Dutch Creek near Hutton on the California side of the border, yielded six San Francisco Coast league ball players as prisoners for violation of the game law.

Carcasses of two deer, rifles and ammunition in wholesale quantities were confiscated. The prisoners are Jerry Downs, Harry Hughes, Nig Clark, Howard Mundorff, William Hogan and Louis Supulveda.

SPORTING BREVITIES

Arrangements for a game between the University of Idaho and the Multnomah club teams will be completed Wednesday between Plowden Stott of Multnomah and Coach Griffith of the Gem states.

The University of Oregon and University of Idaho teams will arrive in Portland Wednesday tomorrow, Idaho leaving in the evening for Corvallis, where it meets the O. A. C. team Thursday.

Manager Arthur Devlin, of the Oakland baseball team, is trying to secure outfielder Josh Devore from the Philadelphia Nationals. Brooklyn is holding up the deal by refusing to waive on the former Giant outfielder.

Happy Hogan has released infielder Butler to the Vancouver team of the Northwestern league.

Christy Mathewson admits that the only reason he did not make the trip around the world with the Giants was his aversion to sea trips. McGraw assured him he would be sick only two or three days, but the star pitcher refused to see it that way.

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE TO BE OUT IN FORCE

When the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast league is held in San Francisco next month a delegation of Northwestern leaguers, including President F. A. Jones, D. E. Dugdale, Bob Brown of Vancouver and perhaps Joe McGinnity of Tacoma, will take in the meeting and petition the coasters to allow the entrance of the Northwestern league into Portland next year.

The leaders, it is reported, are going to kill off the bosses. The theory is that there is a difference, as well as a distinction, between "leaders" and "bosses."

EUGENE BOYS ARE IN THE PINK OF CONDITION

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 25.—The 1913 football season at Oregon will close Thursday at Portland. Last night the hardest kind of scrimmage between the first and scrub teams was held. All the varsity men with the exception of Johnny Beckett were in the game.

"Tubby" Hendricks, the freshman end from Salem, held down Beckett's left wing job. The workout showed alternate flashes of good team work and ragged playing. Multnomah is heavier by 25 pounds to the man than Oregon, according to the figuring of the collegians. Oregon goes will average 185 pounds. Cornell's 130 pounds will bring the backfield average down to 150 and the lines will balance off at about 180. Oregon knows the prowess of heavy men like Bailey, Cherry, Hickson, Conville, Rodes and Francis and realizes just what the lemon-yellow team will have to do.

Pink of condition will describe the Eugene boys physically. Cornell's knees aren't bothering him, Parson's one bad knee is as good as ever and the other men are sound. Beckett is the only regular on the side lines through injury, and it is more of a precautionary measure that Bezdek is keeping him out. Beckett's ankle is bad but if it is not hurt again between now and Thursday he will be able to get into the game.

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR WEST LINN OFFICE

O. Tonkin has announced his candidacy for membership on the city council of West Linn and his petition has been placed in circulation among the voters and has been numerously signed.

He has been suggested by his friends for the council for sometime and has finally presented his petition for signatures through the city at the election next month.

Really the most heartless taunt flung at the poor easterners is that with which the Port Orford Tribune comes across: "Many of the eastern and southern states were visited with snow storms and blizzards last week. Much damage was done at different points by the high wind. While all this was going on in the east, in Oregon a warm rain was making the grass grow for winter feed for stock."

Most men out of work need not have been out of money too, but then, all can't be thrifty.

HOPEFULNESS.
The hopeful man is spared a lot of misery in this world. One of the means of avoiding unnecessary misery and wretchedness is to cultivate on all occasions the spirit of hopefulness until it becomes a characteristic, a habit, the cast of mind.

Giving Him a Hint.
Young Author (engaging rooms)—You have several literary men boarding here, I believe?
Landlady—Yes, quite a number. I like literary men.
"I am delighted to hear it!"
"Yes, you see, literary men never complain when I demand cash in advance. They are used to it."—London Opinion.

Overcharged.
The attorney for the gas company was making a popular address. "Think of the good the gas company has done!" he cried. "If I were permitted a pun I would say, in the words of the immortal poet, 'Honor the Light brigade.'" Voice of a consumer from the audience. "Oh, what a charge they made!" —Youth's Companion.

Warm Covering.
Private Jimson was relating his experiences of the Boer war. He said he was once taken prisoner, and the Boers stripped him of all his clothing. "Did you feel the cold much?" asked a pal.
"No," replied Jimson, "not at all. You see, they carefully covered me with their rifles."—Pearson's Weekly.

Shaw Dissented.
Mr. George Bernard Shaw was once lecturing in London on the benefits of socialism. At the close of his lecture he said he would be glad to answer any questions that any member of the audience might care to put to him. A man rose in the middle of the hall. "I should just like to ask you one thing, Mr. Shaw," he said. "Don't you think that those huge incomes one hears of are all wrong? Don't you think that there should be a law passed to prevent any man having more than a thousand a year?"
"Certainly not!" Mr. Shaw exclaimed promptly. "Why, I make more than a thousand a year myself!"—London Globe.
