KITCHEN SHOWER IS GIVEN TO BRIDE-ELECT BY SEVERAL GIRL FRIENDS

AUTO EMPLOYEES ARE ENTERTAINED

Fol de Rols Dance on November 28 At Busch's Hall—Derthick Club to Meet December 5 at Loder Home

(By Meta Finley Thayer)
Mrs. W. L. Mulvey was hostess of the Wednesday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Madison street. Brilliant red geraniums and salvia in Indian baskets formed the effective decorations. Mrs. William R. Logus won first prize for high score and Mrs. Ernest Rands was winner of the second. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Mulvey's hospitality were: Mrs. L. L. Pickens, Mrs. L. L. Porter, Mrs. Lena Charman, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. Nieta Barlow-Lawrence, Mrs. Lily Stipp, Mrs. H. E. Straight, Mrs. E. Kenneth Stanton, Mrs. H. L. L. Clark, Mrs. A. A. Price, Mrs. John Humphreys, Mrs. Vance P. Edwards, Mrs. Ernest Rands, Mrs. Clyde Mount, Mrs. William Logus, Mrs. O. D. Eby, and Mrs. Linn E. Jones.

Kitchen Shower.
Misses Sadie and Ivy Ford entertained a few girl friends Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Mabel Morse whose marriage to Harry Hayles will be an event of Thanksgiving afternoon. The living room was decorated with potted ferns, and the dining room was in red, carnations and red paper hearts being used to good effect. A kitchen shower for the bride-elect was a feature of the evening, and each guest handed a dust cloth and worked her initials as a souvenir for the honor guest. Those attending were Miss Mabel Morse, Miss Helen Painton, Miss Nettie Kruse, Miss Myrtle Cross, Miss Elva Blanchard, Miss Mollie Rose, Miss Thelma Draper, Miss Alice Bailey, Miss Geneva Young and Miss Adah Hulbert.

Garage Sparks.
The employees of the Miller-Parker company were delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller. The rooms were decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums, and the dining table was centered with a huge pumpkin filled with a variety of fruit. The place cards were appropriate pen and ink sketches by Thornton Howard, and at each cover was a toy automobile with a clever verse accompanying it. Mr. Ralph Parker was called upon to respond with a toast after reading the following:
Here's to our friend, Ralph Parker,
Perhaps you are aware,
That he's a real live sparker,
And prefers to use one chair.
And when he goes joyriding,
He drives with just on hand,
And then gets real confiding,
And sparks to beat the band.

Mr. J. Garlic's toast was:
Jack Garlic speeds her up so fast,
That you can hardly see him pass.
But later, after he is gone,
His scent remains for ever so long.
(Garlic).
The electrician of the company, George Kordenant was favored with this:
When there's something you don't understand,
And you want to get it right,
"Let George do it," without a doubt,
He can give you light.
William McFarthland was the victim of the following:
Bill McFarthland has a habit—
To him it seems to cling,
If you see what you want, just grab it,
Before he eats everything.
Avery Rhobecker was compelled to respond to:
When Slim goes on a trip,
He's apt to come home broke,
Without a cent, without a friend,
And three of his tires roped.

An exciting incident was recalled when the host, Mr. Miller heard read:
"You will find the boss a doubting with mighty solemn air,
"Whether 'wet' or 'dry' is the proper way to vote,
"But if in gladsome Maytime he ventures in his car
"Upon the Parkplace boulevard to roll,
"There is nothing more delights him, when a pony looms afar,
"Than to leave the road and auto up a pole."

Fol de Roi Dance.
