GALLOWAY HOLDS ELECTION IS VOID

John Stillman, representing the saloon interests of Salem, to restrain the county court from issuing an order declaring Salem to be dry territory as a result of the election held here on that date.

Judge Galloway based his decision on an interpretation of the law that a local option election cannot be held except at the time of a general state election which comes every two years, or at the time of a general city election if such election comes on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. He said when a local option election is held at the time of a general city election, then the city authorities must appoint the election officials.

Local drys do not feel the slightest discouragement over the decision of Judge Galloway at Salem, in the liquor cases that have been presented to him. They propose to carry the fight to the finish and to bring the matter to the attention of the supreme court of the state.

"The case is really encouraging, from our point of view," said one of the drys Friday night. "Judge Galloway is reversed in a large percentage of the cases that are carried into the higher court. We have but started to fight and the matter will be carried to the last resort before it is finally determined."

State Federation Meets at Hotel Oregon in Portland Where Work of the Year Will be Discussed

(By Meta Finley Thayer) Unusually lovely was the wedding solemnized Thanksgiving afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calvin Painton at Jennings Lodge, when the bride of Mr. Harry Mark Hayles, of Portland.

The living room was elaborately decorated with white chrysanthemums and asparagus fern, tied with pink tulle. The bower under which the bridal party stood was formed of ferns, ivy, white chrysanthemums and ribbons. Pink roses were entwined with ivy. All of the appointments were carried out in pink and white.

Proceeding the ceremony Garland Hollowell sang "I Love You Truly" and promptly at the appointed hour, four o'clock, Miss Sayde Evelyn Ford played the first strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

Two of the bride's little nieces, Mary Jane Painton and Elizabeth Bruechert, were flower girls and were daintily gowned in pink and white. They carried baskets of pink roses, and tied to their arms were broad pink satin ribbons, which were held by the bridesmaids, Miss Adah Hurlburt and Miss Ethel Thompson, and formed an aisle for the bride and her other attendants. Miss Hurlburt's gown was a delicate shade of pink messaline, with a flowered chiffon over dress, and trimmed with fur. Miss Thompson wore a dainty pink crepe de meteor. Both of the bridesmaids carried arm bouquets of pink chrysanthemums tied with gold embroidered tulle. Following came the maid of honor, Miss Helen Painton, who was gowned in dainty shadow lace over pink messaline, and also carried pink chrysanthemums.

The bride then entered on the arm of her father, Mr. George Edwin Morse, who gave her in marriage. She wore a beautiful gown of white brocade charmeuse, and the full length tulle veil was arranged in mob cap fashion, caught with pearls. The gift of the groom, an exquisite cameo pendant was her only ornament and she carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bride was met at the improvised altar by the groom, his best man, Mr. Calvin Porter Morse, and Rev. T. B. Ford, who read the service. At the reception which followed, Mrs. Painton was assisted by Miss Eva Moulton and Miss Nina Hollowall, who presided over the punch bowl. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Mollie Rose, Miss Nettie Kruse and Miss Aimee Bollack. Miss Irene McCown was in charge of the dainty boxes of wedding cake. After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hayles will be at home to their friends at the Barker Apartments, Portland.

REGISTRATION IS NOT NECESSARY

The voters as they may determine sufficient to satisfy them of the qualifications.

Since the decision of the supreme court of the state that the last election law is not constitutional, the city and county officials have been at loss to know whether or not the voters would have to re-register. The city recorder has decided, however, that they do not and that the judges may take steps to satisfy themselves of the qualifications of the voters who apply at the polls.

The only period at which the county clerk may register voters is from January 5 to May 15 and September 20 to October 20.

A SMART TRANSPARENT TUNIC BANDED WITH FUR

Transparencies of all sorts are modish. Wired, fur edged tunics, blouses that are merely a width of chiffon over another and touches of lace on everything. With the return to favor of the panner and the founce, lace has come into its own again. Metal laces are especially fashionable. These are not entirely metal, but bits of the pattern are worked out in threads of gold and silver. Trimmings of mousseline and net on which odd designs in silver or gold threads are worked, etc. A bit of gold on a frock is very effective and very new. In 7706 the tunic is of chiffon over a supple liberty satin. The edge is wired and banded with fox dyed to match. A fine wire also outlines the frill of lace at the throat, giving the slightly bouffant effect which marks so many of the season's evening gowns. This model may be copied in size 36 with 6 1/2 yards of 36 inch material with 2 1/2 yards of contrasting material or lace. An overblouse and an overskirt pointed on each side make 7988 distinctive. A figured silk in which there were several softly contrasting colors and a wide Roman sash add further to the gown's effectiveness. Size 36 in this design may be made with 7 1/2 yards of 36 inch silk. No. 7706—sized 34 to 42. No. 7988—sized 34 to 42. Each pattern 15 cents.
