DIES SUDDENLY AT HOSPITAL

E. S. FOLLANSBEE FAILS TO SURVIVE SECOND OPERATION FOR HYDRO-THORAX

TURN FOR WORSE IS SURPRISING

Many Friends and Lodge Members Are In to See Him Within a Few Hours of Time When Light Goes Out

E. S. Follansbee, member of several local orders and a prominent business man of the city, died at 8 o'clock Saturday night at a Portland hospital where he had gone for treatment. He has been ill for some time and has had two operations performed for hydro-thorax, but the physicians were unable to give him permanent relief. Only a few days ago, he went to the hospital for the last operation and seemed to be considerably improved after the crisis was past. Friends and members of the orders to which he belongs visited him in Portland several times during the days that he was there and a few of them were with him but a short time before his death. The end came suddenly and surprised all of those who had seen him and to whom he appeared in better health than he had been for some time. He was keeper of the records of Tualatin Tent of the Knights of the Macabees was a member of the local lodge of Elks, and of the Woodmen. He was about 45 years of age and had lived in the city for a number of years. He had served with the volunteer fire department and was a member of one of the companies. For some time, he has been in business with Frank Champion in the Panitorium on Main street. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Roy Tobin of Powell River, B. C., and Mrs. Vane Jefferson, of Chico, Cal. Mrs. Tobin is in the city on a visit to her parents while Mrs. Jefferson has been notified of her father's death. Funeral arrangements have not, as yet, been made though it is probable that the local orders of which he was a member will have a part in the services that are conducted when the time for them is determined.

SEVERAL TOWNS TO VOTE ON MONDAY

Oregon City, Molala, West Linn, and Gladstone will have municipal elections Monday at which time the city officers for the ensuing terms will be chosen. In Oregon City, the people will also vote on several amendments to the charter and an ordinance appropriating money for the purchase of a tract of land for public purposes. The amendment authorizing the council to regulate the salary of the chief of police and another placing the power of removal partially in the hands of the whole council rather than with the mayor alone will be submitted on the ballots. The people will also instruct the council as to the size of the municipal bonds that are to be hereafter issued. In the other towns, the people will simply vote on the officers of the city governments.

WOODMEN ELECT LIST OF OFFICERS

Willamette Falls Camp, No. 148, W. O. W. held its semi-annual election of officers Friday, November 28th, at which time the following were all unanimously re-elected for another term: Consul commander, J. G. Bancke; adviser lieutenant, M. R. Snidow; clerk, E. H. Cooper; banker, M. E. Dunn; escort, Frank Oliver; watchman, C. A. Andrus; sentry, L. D. Garman; manager, M. D. Phillips; musician, A. L. Lambert. The officers-elect will be installed on January 5, 1914. A number of applications for membership were received and three new members were initiated, after which a smoker was given. The degree team and members expect to make a fraternal visit to Multnomah, No. 77, of Portland, in the near future.

BOURNE WILL SEND BOOKS TO LIBRARY

A number of contributions for Book Day have been received from out of town people who are interested in library extension, among them, Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr. Some former residents have also generously remembered the day, and it is hoped that the coming Book Day, December 2, will considerably aid the good work of the public library and those who devote so much of their time to its maintenance. The bookplates provided read: Oregon City Library Book Day December 2, 1913 Presented by: It is entirely optional with the donors as to whether or not their names appear, although it is hoped all will make use of the bookplate. The social to be given by the Congregational Brotherhood is expected to draw a large crowd. Those who find it inconvenient to attend this or the other smaller affairs may leave their books at either the "Enterprise" office, or the library, and it is hoped everyone interested in this educational work will contribute a book on Tuesday. Children's books, books of adventure, technical works, and popular fiction will all be very acceptable.

EXAMINATION OPEN

The United States Civil Service commission announce an open competitive examination to be held in this city on January 10, 1914 at which it is expected to fill a vacancy of rural carrier at Mulino or other places which may occur in this county. The examination is open to all male citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

GIRL KIDNAPPED

SAN JOSE, Cal., Nov. 29.—Josephine Ceall, a beautiful 18-year-old girl, and daughter of a well known San Jose rancher, was kidnapped in broad daylight today by four men, who spirited her out of a downtown store, lifted her into a waiting automobile, thrust a gunny sack over her head and sped away. All efforts to apprehend her or her abductors have failed. Dominik Aise, aged 25, her sweetheart, dropped from sight several hours earlier, and his whereabouts are a mystery. No doubt President Wilson will do what he thinks is best and right—and who knows better? Late buyers deserve to get the poorer bargains.

THE ENTERPRISE ANNUAL

The 1914 anniversary edition of the Morning Enterprise will be issued early in January. Mr. W. H. Dixon, who has so ably managed the annual editions of the Enterprise for the past two years, will arrive in Oregon City within a week from Visalia, Cal. The forthcoming anniversary number will be fully up to the standard of the preceding editions, and its character and scope will be enlarged. We have secured a large number of illustrations of Clackamas county scenes, and the edition will be profusely illustrated. Users of space in this big edition of the Morning Enterprise will be called upon within the next two weeks by Mr. Dixon, who will lay before them our plans in detail. The annual number of The Enterprise is no mere fly-by-night scheme for getting money out of the public without adequate return. The anniversary edition has become an institution in which we have considerable pride. Orders now received for copies to be sent to any part of the world.

DIMICK DIGS WELL

Hon. Grant B. Dimick has had a well bored on his ranch east of Hubbard. It is down 97 feet and when finished they put a large pump at work and ran it for three and one-half hours, taking out 1800 gallons every hour, and only lowered the water in the well seven feet, so he is assured an abundance of good pure water for his farm.—Woodburn Independent.

A reception followed the ceremony, at which Mrs. Ott was assisted by Mrs. J. Garner, Mrs. Faldre, Mrs. O. A. Smith and Miss Ruth Kunsman. Friends present were present, E. O. Woodward, son of R. E. Woodward, grandson Roy Woodward, and great-granddaughter, Helen Woodward. The house was decorated with a profusion of flowers and ferns. ## FLOUR MILLS POUND CARVER

LETTER SENT TO COUNCIL WARNING MEMBERS TO BE CAREFUL

PROMOTES ROAD TO SELL OUT

Officials do Not Appear Worried if Line Should go to Another Concern After it Has Been Built.

Charges that Stephen Carver promoted lines that he did not finish and that the city council of Oregon City had best beware of any proposition that he makes were contained in a letter and clipping sent by the Wilhelm & Sons company of Benton county, flour manufacturers, to the city council Saturday. The letter was read in the special council meeting Saturday afternoon. It was considered especially although the matter of the franchises of the two lines was not brought up by the members. The company declared that it had no personal interest in the franchises that were before the council but it had seen that Carver had asked for the franchises and took up on itself the warning of the city fathers as to the facts about the man with whom they were dealing. It also mentioned that Carver had promoted the Corvallis & Alsea line that is now owned by the Southern Pacific company and held that he was a schemer who promoted lines to be turned over to other roads. The city fathers took no action in the matter, however, as some of the members evidently do not oppose the later transfer of the title in the road to another line as long as the city is assured of a competing company in the town. If the line is once built, though it should later be turned over to another company for operation, the sentiment in some quarters favors the granting of the franchise to the road, even in face of these possible facts. The warning from the flour mills, consequently, will probably have little effect upon the council in its determination upon the merits of the franchise that is proposed.

Baptist Minister Visits Rink To See Conditions

To determine for himself how the place was managed, Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the First Baptist church, made an inspection trip to the skating rink in West Linn Saturday night. The moment that he entered the door, he was "spotted" by some of the employees of the place but his inspection satisfied him that there were several visitors on the floor of the rink who were in a semi-intoxicated condition and that the place was frequented, to a large extent, by young people hardly more than the high school age. On the floor of the rink, the pastor discovered several men whom he believed to be decidedly under the influence of liquor, and who were, apparently, allowed the freedom of the floor along with the other skaters there. Saturday nights the crowds at the rink are usually large and they were so this week. As soon as he entered the place, he was recognized and the managers immediately placed them selves on their guard though the men whom the pastor believed intoxicated were allowed to remain, it is said.

ATTACKED BY BEER BANDITS

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—"Beer bandits" Juddy J. Nolan reported to the police held up in the gathering dusk today, poked revolvers in his face and compelled him to surrender a growler, freshly topped with foam. Detectives hurried in pursuit.

evening was one of the enjoyable affairs of the week. The new hall was decorated in red and green, and an elaborate supper was a feature of the evening. About thirty-five couples were in attendance, many of them from Oregon City. The patronesses were: Mrs. H. J. Dannemann, Mrs. W. B. Stafford, Mrs. A. C. Warner and Miss M. L. Holmes. The music was by Flechtner's orchestra.

ST. ANDREWS' DAY WILL BE OBSERVED

All over the United States and other countries wherever the Episcopal churches have been established, the Brotherhood of St. Andrews will celebrate today by special services. This is St. Andrews' Day. At the St. Paul's Episcopal church the members of the chapter in this city will receive the Holy Communion at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 o'clock p. m. Rev. C. W. Robinson, the rector of the church will preside. At the Trinity church in Portland, the brotherhood of the entire diocese will hold a special service at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The bishop was expected to deliver the address but cannot attend and Rev. Robinson of the church here has been invited to take his place.

WAGONS START ON ROUNDS FOR GARBAGE

Garbage will be collected throughout the city under the direction of Ed Shaw, chief of police, within the next few days in anticipation of permanent arrangements that will be made by the city council should the ordinance that has been introduced be passed. The chief has issued instructions that all residents on the hill section of the city should have their garbage ready for the wagons by December 1, and those in the down town district by the day following. The department is planning to make systematic canvass of the city and to collect such garbage as may be ready for it by the time that the wagons are sent around. Hereafter, the wagons will call regularly on the first Tuesdays and Wednesdays of the month.

MAY BUILD BARN IN REAR OF POSTOFFICE

Now that the city is assured of a new postoffice, there is talk of a barn in the rear of the building for the accommodation of the rural mail carriers who run out of the city along all of the rural routes. Seven men make Oregon City their headquarters and run out each day along the rural routes to all parts of the county. The scheme is now to provide a stable in the rear of the new postoffice, for the accommodation of the carriers. It is estimated that a frame building would be inexpensive and would house the horses and carts that the carriers use while they are in the city and before they begin their trips into the country districts.

Only an auto owner sympathizes much with the owner of another one broken down and stuck fast. Men make a bad record in registering and voting, women worse; "what is the country coming to?" A man's age should not debar a really capable man from work.

BIGGER LEVY MEETS DEFICIT

CITY COUNCIL TAKES CARE OF LOSS OF REVENUES FROM SALOONS

CARRIES AN EMERGENCY CLAUSE

Ordinance Becomes Effective as Soon as Signed by Mayor—Holds Special Meeting in the Afternoon

To pass the tax levy for the new year, the city council met in a special session Saturday afternoon in the council chambers. The ordinance was sent through to its third reading and final passage and carried. It will become effective immediately after its approval by the mayor as it carries an emergency clause. The levy was raised from eight and one-half mills to 10 mills for all purposes. Of this amount, nine and one-half mills will be used for the general purposes of the city government and the other one-half will be devoted to the uses of the city library. The council increased the levy because of the loss of the $10,000 annually from the saloons. The finance committee had at first thought to get along on the old levy but discovered that the street improvements and other work that had been planned would call for more money than the eight and one-half mills would levy and later came into the meeting with a request for more money. The ordinance was at once introduced and Saturday reached its final passage. The increased levy takes care of the deficit that the city would otherwise have now that it has lost the revenue from the saloons.

TO PROSECUTE TRUST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Dissolution of the American Can company, alleged by the government to be a trust and a monopoly and a "child of the steel trust," is asked in a suit filed today in the federal court at Baltimore by the department of justice through G. Carroll Todd, the official "trust buster" of the department. This is the first movement made by the administration to break the produce markets and to lower the cost of living. It is an answer by the Democratic administration to congressional resolutions of investigation why the cost of living was not reduced with the passage of the Democratic tariff bill. Such resolutions are to be smothered. "Immortals" are created by voting for one another.
