ROAD TAXES ARE LEVIED

SEVERAL DISTRICTS HOLD SPECIAL ELECTIONS TO RAISE MONEY

PLAN TO BUILD BETTER HIGHWAYS

Others Expect to Vote on Issue Within Next Few Days and Reports are Coming in to Clerk's Office

Special road taxes, amounting to thousands of dollars, have been voted in 15 out of the 59 road districts of the county.

Under the laws of the state, the road district may levy a special tax for the improvement of the highways within its own boundaries. In addition to the amount that it received from the county out of the general road fund, the special tax is placed in the hands of the road supervisor to be spent upon the highways that run through that particular district.

In this way, the 15 districts are planning to get much better roads during the coming year and are proposing to spend more on their highways than the regular apportionment from the general fund would give them.

Following are the districts in the county with the special tax levies that they have made and other may yet file their reports in the office of the county clerk: Numbers three, 10 mills; five, 10 mills; seven, four mills; six, five mills; 21, six mills; 22 three mills; 33, five mills; 35, 10 mills; 38, 10 mills; 41, 10 mills; 48, 10 mills; 50, five mills; 52, 10 mills; 54, two mills; 55, seven mills; and 56, 10 mills.

With the money that will be raised by these special taxes, the districts plan to do a great deal of improvement work on their highways during the coming year.

SANDY ROAD TAXES ARE LEVIED BY VOTE

SANDY, Ore., Dec. 1.—Five road districts here, including Sandy, have voted special road taxes to be spent on the side roads and the balance on the main Portland road. In the Sandy district five mills additional tax was levied at a meeting of 50 taxpayers. Boring, Firwood and Cottrell voted 10 mills for road purposes. At Salmon River a 5-mill tax was levied. This is a general movement for better roads all through this territory.

C. B. Boswell, of the commercial department of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, has interviewed business men and citizens on a proposition of bringing electricity to Sandy for lighting purposes. It was found that a large majority want electric lights as soon as the wires are extended here. The extension probably will be made in the near future.

Miss Kate Junker, daughter of Casper Junker, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital last Sunday and is recovering.

Architect Kleeman, of Portland, has let the contract for the Junker building here and the contractor has started construction work.

The first entertainment under the auspices of the Woman's club will be held in Shelley's hall next Wednesday night by the Woods orchestra. It will be the first of a series by the Woman's club.

The fish warden has had the fish ladder at the dam on the Sandy river repaired so that fish can now reach the waters of the Upper Sandy river.

Old Grecian Days Brought to Mind By Marriage Fete

In the same way that marriages have been celebrated in Greece for hundreds of years, the nuptials of Miss Harikleia Tracklea and Thomas Daleios, both of Oregon City, is being observed in this city.

They were married in Portland in the Greek Orthodox church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock by Father Panaretos Anagnostos. Sixteen seven-passenger automobiles were engaged by the party and they drove through the business section of Portland before coming to Oregon City.

With their Oregon City friends, over 200 were present Sunday evening at the celebration at the new home of the couple at Sixteenth and Division streets. Old Greek dances were danced to old country music during the evening and games, which the members of the party had brought over from their old home, were played.

Monday morning the celebration was renewed although many of those who were present at Sunday's festivities were absent Monday. The greater part of the day was spent dancing outdoors to the time of Greek music. A dinner was served the fore part of the afternoon after which the guests returned to their dancing.

The celebration will continue for several days by the friends of the couple and by the relatives for still longer. Tables full of the best to eat and drink are at the ready disposal of the guests and the stirring Greek music continues from morning to night.

Both bride and groom were born in the old country, the former having come to America about a year ago and the latter close to five years. They will live in this city.

LOCAL BIKE IN PICTURES

In the December issue of "Popular Mechanics" there is a picture of Roy Templeton and Miss Fay Cooke, both of this city, riding on the former's motorcycle in the last Portland Rose Festival. The machine was decorated with roses and would have probably won a prize had there been a prize for decorated motorcycles.

May 16 was the date set for the annual field meet of the Clackamas athletic league, at Saturday's meeting of the executive committee. At this time will also be played the championship game of the baseball tournament between the two leading teams in the league.

This league has been in existence for several years. It is composed of the grammar and academic schools in the county. Oratorical, debating and literary contests are promoted among the schools as well as athletic games. It was decided to hold these last named contests during the month of February.

The officers of the league are determined to make this year the best of any in the life of the organization and will spare no efforts to further this end. Already many of the county schools have sent in their entrance fees and signed their intentions to compete for the honors.

AUTO BLANKS ARE READY FOR OWNERS

The usual forms upon which the owners of automobiles make out their applications for licenses from the secretary of state have been received at the office of the county clerk.

Though the state official has sent these forms to all car owners whose addresses he has on file, he has also sent the county clerk a full supply in order to meet the demand from the owners of new cars who have to file their applications for the first time.

The license expires with the first of the year and have to be renewed. Clackamas county has not yet received from the state treasurer its share of the license money that has been collected though it is expected that the fund will be forthcoming by January 1. In the state, the license total several thousands of dollars.

EXCAVATION STARTS ON NEW POSTOFFICE BUILDING

Actual excavation has been started for the new Oregon City postoffice on Main street between Eighth and Ninth streets. A gang of men invaded the property Monday morning with several teams and scrapers and before nightfall the work was well along.

Now that the work has been started, construction will be rushed so that the local office will be able to occupy the new building as early in the year as possible. It will be one story in height and built of concrete.

Dry Forces Win in Two of the Three Voting Places—Interest in the Outcome is Weak and Ballots are Few

Municipal election in Oregon City Monday resulted in the re-election of Linn E. Jones for mayor, the re-election of M. D. Latourette for city treasurer, and in the councilmanic race a victory in two wards for the "dry" candidates, Jones and Latourette were unopposed. The vote was as follows:

Ward 1—Linn E. Jones, 293; M. D. Latourette, 289; for council: J. O. Staats, 159; H. M. Templeton, 192; for council: E. C. Hackett, 315; Philip Soreghan, 200.

Ward 2—Jones, 203; Latourette, 190; for council: E. B. Andrews, 151; O. W. Griffin, 79; John Gillette, 1; George Ott, 1.

In ward 1 a vote was cast for Joe Soesap for mayor. Soesap is a full-blooded Indian, and formerly a noted local ball player.

Three charter amendments and an ordinance were also voted upon. The ordinance provided for the appropriation of $2,500 for the purchase of a tract of land as a public recreation park. This was an overwhelming defeat, the vote against it in the three wards being 573 and the vote for it being 361.

An amendment to the city charter giving the council authority to fix the salary of the chief of police, carried 562 to 395.

Another amendment making it necessary for the council to concur in the removal orders of the mayor relative to the police force, carried 536 to 355. The third amendment, providing for par value in the public elevator bonds of $50, carried 476 to 366.

About 958 votes were cast for mayor, all the grammar and academic schools in the county. The voting strength at other elections where the interest has been more centered has been between 1700 and 1800 votes. The opposition to the ordinance proposed for the purchase of a tract of land for public uses came from all parts of the city and the vote shows that the sentiment against the purchase of the land was not confined to any particular section of the town.

The submission of the amendment for the fixing of the salary of the chief came with the discovery that the charter limit is too small to properly remunerate the officer for the work that he does and that the city council could not raise that amount if it paid it as a part of his salary. The chief has, however, been receiving more than the limit because of other work that has been made part of his duties.

The amendment that authorizes the council to take a hand in removal of the mayor relative to the police force came about after the discovery that the council has no authority to intervene when the mayor discharges any member of the force. This was brought out during the differences between the council and the mayor during the Dimick administration.

Results in other county town elections were as follows: Canby: For mayor, William H. Blair, 74; Dr. H. A. Dedman, 2; William Lucke, 1; John Simms, 1; M. J. Lee, 1; Adam Knight, 2; For treasurer, L. D. Walker, 79; John Simms, 1; For council, the following were elected: H. C. Gilmore, 81; D. O. Stacy, 80; George Meeks, 53; John Sutherland, 52. There are about 500 registered voters in Canby, and less than 100 voted.

Gladstone: T. C. Howell for mayor, Minda E. Church for treasurer, and John N. Slevor for recorder, were elected without opposition. The councilmen elected are: F. A. Burdon, 193; C. W. Parrish, 150; P. T. Barlow, 139. Molalla: For mayor, W. W. Eberhardt; recorder, D. C. Bowles; treasurer, S. G. Havermann; marshal, F. R. Coleman; councilmen, W. T. Ebert, William Mackerell, F. M. Henriksen, L. W. Robbins, A. T. Shoemaker, I. M. Tolliver. There were no opposing candidates.

Even an old soak has been known to generate dry wit.

Love yourself as you do your neighbors and see how far you'll get.

FATHER BECK DIES AT HOME

CHAPLAIN PASSES AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS FROM PNEUMONIA

HERE FOR THE PAST NINE YEARS

Has Been Closely Identified With Work of Institution Since His Arrival in City—Funeral in Portland

Rev. F. S. Beck, for the past nine years chaplain of the St. Agnes Baby Home, died at 9 o'clock Sunday night at his home. Sometime ago he contracted a severe cold and pneumonia followed with fatal results.

Father Beck was born November 6, 1829, at Susce, near Lucerne, Switzerland. He came as a priest to America in 1876 and his first parish work in America was in the diocese of Milwaukee, Wis. He came to Oregon 25 years ago and went to Eugene as pastor. Later he was sent to New Era and finally became chaplain of the baby home. He has no relatives in America, though three nieces in Switzerland survive him.

Only last February Father Beck celebrated his golden jubilee to the priesthood. The funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral in Portland. Pontifical Requiem mass will be offered by the Most Reverend Archbishop Christie who will be assisted by several priests. Interment will be made in Mount Calvary cemetery.

Father Beck has been well known in Oregon City for the years that he has been here and has been closely identified with the work that the home has been doing for the orphan babies that are given into its care.

THE ENTERPRISE ANNUAL

The 1914 anniversary edition of the Morning Enterprise will be issued early in January. Mr. W. H. Dixon, who has so ably managed the annual editions of the Enterprise for the past two years, will arrive in Oregon City within a week from Visalia, Cal.

The forthcoming anniversary number will be fully up to the standard of the preceding editions, and its character and scope will be enlarged. We have secured a large number of illustrations of Clackamas county scenes, and the edition will be profusely illustrated.

Users of space in this big edition of the Morning Enterprise will be called upon within the next two weeks by Mr. Dixon, who will lay before them our plans in detail.

The annual number of the Enterprise is no mere fly-by-night scheme for getting money out of the public without adequate return. The anniversary edition has become an institution in which we have considerable pride.

Orders now received for copies to be sent to any part of the world.

Women Care For Kiddies During Church Time

The Congregational church has organized a "church-time kindergarten" for the children whose restlessness during the hours of service sometimes keep the parents away from home.

At the first signs of restlessness on the part of the children, they can be taken from the audience room of the church and into a smaller one where a committee of the women has been appointed to take charge of them.

The youngsters are held there until after the services when the parents may claim them and take them home.

This scheme has been devised by the church to care for the children and to allow as many parents who have small children to attend church as possible without fear that the youngsters may arouse the congregation during the services. Away from the main audience room, the children can create no disturbance and the interest of the parent is not distracted in any way from the services of the day.

"OREGON DRY IN 1914" IS SLOGAN

PROHIBITION FORCES MAKING PLANS TO DRIVE LIQUOR TRAFFIC OUT

TWO YEARS' DELAY IS SPURNED

Home Rule Amendment Must First be Repealed—Oregon Joins 11 States in Great Campaign Against Saloons

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 1.—(Special to The Morning Enterprise)—"Oregon Dry in 1914," is the slogan adopted here today at an enthusiastic meeting of the prohibition forces from all over the state, at which it was definitely determined to bring about at the general election, November 3, 1914, the repeal of the home rule amendment, which permits incorporated cities and towns to regulate the liquor traffic within their own boundaries. At the same time the prohibitionists will make strenuous efforts to vote the entire state dry. If successful they must succeed on two propositions, the first to repeal the home rule amendment to the constitution, adopted in 1910; and the second to vote the saloons out of business in Oregon as a whole state.

When the "dry" forces convened this morning, the Anti-Saloon League had a program that contemplated the repeal of the home rule amendment in 1914, and to extend the "dry" territory into a number of Oregon counties, now "wet." But this did not meet with favor from the more radical prohibitionists, who are after quick action, and they argued that 11 states are planning to conduct a "dry" campaign in 1914, and insisted that Oregon should line up for the fray, and not wait until 1916.

This was finally agreed upon, and the prohibition party, the Anti-Saloon League, the temperance organizations and many church leaders will join hands to stamp the alcoholic traffic from the state. Several ministers from Oregon City attended the meeting here.

OSWEGO RIOTERS TO FACE TRIAL TODAY

FOR SECOND TIME SALEM VOTES DRY

The trial of the Oswego rioters opens in the circuit court of the county Tuesday.

Last May, a gang of I. W. W. rioters appeared before the office of Home Telephone company at Oswego and demanded that the men quit work. When their demands were refused, the gang broke the glass and property of the company and injured J. F. McCann, J. Wood, and C. L. Amsbury, the employees on duty.

The indictments were returned by the grand jury that met during June and the following names appear in the charges: Ernest Broilrier, J. Y. Lohr, Clyde Oakley, B. Westcott, E. Olson, E. E. Iles, G. Lewellen, E. Miles, Fred Ream, George Egner, C. E. Tradup, C. E. Swallow.

"Blackie" Iles is in Texas where Sheriff Mass went for him sometime ago. The man was taken into the criminal court of appeals upon a technicality and the sheriff will probably have to make another trip for his man.

ARE WELCOMED BACK FROM TRIP

FRIENDS SURPRISE MR. AND MRS. W. B. HOWELL AT THEIR NEW HOME

TALK ON INDUSTRIAL HOME WORK

Miss Sparks of Portland Institution, Will Address Members of Methodist Church—Dancing Club Reorganizes

(By Meta Finley Thayer)
Mr. and Mrs. William B. Howell were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening when several friends called at their attractive new home to welcome them back from their wedding trip spent in British Columbia and on the Sound.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Telford, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Long, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Evans.

Program at Church.

An interesting meeting is to be held in the Methodist church Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, when Miss Sparks, superintendent of the Portland Industrial Home will be present and give an address on the work of this home. In addition, the following program will be given:

Organ solo... Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford
Vocal solo... Miss Morietta Hickman
Reading... Miss Francis Dowland
Piano solo... Miss McClain
Vocal solo... Miss Nason

A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the home, but no admission will be charged.

Miss Sparks is prominent in settlement work among the friendless foreigners in Portland, and her talk is certain to be enjoyed by all who are interested in missionary work.

Oregon Book Honored.

A little booklet just issued entitled "The World's Best Books" gives a list compiled by Hamilton W. Mable for the Ladies' Home Journal, among them is mentioned "The Conquest," by Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, of Oregon City.

Dancing Club Reorganizes.

M. D. Latourette, Dr. Clyde Mount and Dr. L. A. Morris are the members of the committee in charge of the reorganization of the Willamette Dancing club for the coming season. A sufficient number of invitations have been accepted to insure the success of a series of dances, the first of which will be given during the Christmas holidays. These parties have been among the most popular ever given here and invitations will no doubt be in demand.

Company L, Third regiment of Infantry, Oregon National Guard, will give a dance in Busch's hall Saturday evening, December 6. An orchestra from Portland has been engaged and plans are being perfected to make this the largest dance of the season. A number of officers and regimental men from the different Portland companies have signified their intention of being present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenneth Stanton will leave Saturday for San Francisco and other places of interest in California.

Mrs. Bertha Adams will be hostess of the Tuesday Evening Bridge club.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 1.—For the second time in one month the anti-saloon element has made a clean sweep in this city. The amendment to the city charter to prohibit the licensing of saloons having won at the election today by a majority of about 700. The majority for local option at the November election was 487.

Explanation of the increased majority is that the saloonmen did not make as determined a fight at the election today as at the other one, and that they have determined to make their final stand in the courts. Every ward in the city gave a majority for the amendment.

In ward 1, R. N. Hoover, "dry" candidate, defeated William Gilchrist, "wet" candidate, by a majority of 65 and James McClellan, "dry" candidate defeated W. H. Dalrymple, "wet" candidate, by a safe majority.

Even a bum actor can make a hit with the audience by breaking a lot of dishes.

CRIMINAL CASES ARE IN CIRCUIT COURT

J. R. LeDoux and Jim McDonald, who robbed the Crown-Columbia paper mills sometime ago of brass property were each given $100 fine and 25 cents in the circuit court Monday and the judge at once remitted the fine and gave the boys 30 days in which to pay the costs.

J. R. Reece entered a plea of guilty to the charge of assault; Wong Bo, assault with intent to kill, will have a trial later; Eric Polo, burglary of a house at Lakewood, not set; Harry Clark, murder of Indian Henry Yelkis, not set.
