ALL STARS CHOSEN SEASON WAS ECCENTRIC

TEN COACHES AND WRITERS PICK BEST PLAYERS

U. OF O. GAMES FULL OF FREAKS AND SURPRISES

Five conference college football players were unanimous selections for the All Northwestern football team by a composite vote of 10 coaches and writers. They were Fenton and Parsons of Oregon, Sutton and Miller of Washington and Chrisman of the Oregon Agricultural college. The critics voted solidly for four of them in the position they played all season, while balloting on Miller was split, he being given six for fullback and four for halfback. This shifting was solely for the purpose of giving some outsider a chance at halfback. Miller would play equally as well at fullback as halfback.

The composite eleven follows: George Harter, Washington State college, center; Joe Harter, Washington State college, and Fenton, University of Oregon, guards; Chrisman Oregon Agricultural college, and Anderson, University of Washington, and Johnson, University of Idaho, ends; Cornell, University of Oregon, quarterback; Parsons, University of Oregon, and Lockhart, University of Idaho, halfbacks, and Miller, University of Washington, fullback.

RITCHIE IS IMPROVED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Fight fans who journeyed to Willie Ritchie's training camp at Colma yesterday were convinced today that the champion is a greatly improved fighter. Harlem Tommy Murphy, who clashes with Ritchie here on the evening of December 10, also entertained several hundred fans at his camp at San Rafael.

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 1.—Sailor Ed Petroskey of San Francisco and Leo Benz have signed articles for a 12 round contest here, under the auspices of the Copper City Athletic club, about December 15. The men will fight at 155 pounds. Benz has fought 15 battles here, winning all except one draw. Of the others, he won 12 by the knockout route within four rounds.

Cheer up, all you hard working, plain people! Another blow at the high cost of living is about to be struck. The government has started in to bust the jewelry trust.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Cary visit relatives in Portland Sunday and Monday. A large quantity of prunes were shipped from Estacada to the Willamette Valley Prune Association at Salem last week, from the Estacada Fruit Growers' Association of this locality. The car contained 25 tons, the individual shippers being P. F. Standish, Clark Denny, P. M. Wagner and Thomas & Butler.

It was quite a disappointment to many Saturday, when Mr. Ford of the Estacada schools, called off the lecture course. Not enough season tickets were sold to warrant his continuing engagement of the course.

Mrs. E. P. Prescott, left for her home in Portland today, after quite an extended visit here at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Dubois.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Stokes are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Roger Cary, for Thanksgiving. The marriage of Miss Anna Allen and Mr. G. P. Surtus took place yesterday at 1:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Allen, of Estacada, Rev. Givens performing the ceremony.

J. A. Tucker had a turkey and goose shooting match yesterday, using rifles and there were a large number of contestants.

The Contest Contestants

are not getting all the votes which are issued from day to day with every cash sale. It is evident that some people are not saving their votes for any one and this conclusively shows that there is room for a dozen more active candidates.

Every Woman is the name of a great play and also tells who may enter this contest to win one of seven grand prizes which combined, represent a value of $2200.

You

are invited to enter your name and participate in the distribution of these prizes on May 1st, next. You do not need experience, any great amount of time and the fact of the contest having run four weeks makes little difference.

Do You Want

a new piano in your home, or a good watch? There awaits an exceptional opportunity for any wide awake woman or young girl to get one of these prizes. Come to the Rexall Store today and ask for the manager of Mrs. Ida Holder and little daughter arrived the latter part of last week from Minnesota, to make their home with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holder. Mr. Holder and wife went to Portland to meet their daughter-in-law.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids. Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble. For Sale by Huntley Bros. (Adv.)

MRS. FISKE AT HEILIG

Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan company under the direction of Harrison Grey Fiske, are to come to the Heilig Theatre, Eleventh and Morrison, in "The High Road," on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and Wednesday matinee, December 1, 2, and 3.

In "The High Road," his most important work, Edward Sheldon, author of Mrs. Fiske's former graphic success, "Salvation Nell," is said to have felt the pulse of the moment and to have written a play with a purpose but without a pretension. It is a story, so to speak, of soul progression. From the ignorance and aordiness of her early surroundings, Mary Page starts upon an uphill journey and educates, broadens and develops a naturally great mind and heart. After a material experience of the beauties and luxuries of the world, there comes, not a moral awakening exactly, but a stage in her moral development when these things can no longer satisfy, and when her broadened vision and augmented understanding show her a great field of usefulness to humanity. This she enters and it rapidly attains, through her ability, her zeal and her self-sacrifice, the devotion of hundreds of thousands of the overworked, underfed and downtrodden for whom she has fought for better material conditions and a happier outlook on life. In the course of her work for others, there comes into her life a great love which finally leads her to her woman's crown of happiness, but she attains it only after it seems to have been placed forever beyond her reach.
