WILL CHANGE EMBLEMS CLUB AFTER COLLEGES

O. C. H. S. WILL REMEDY OLD SYSTEM

A committee, consisting of Coach Wagner, Mass and C. Beattie, has been appointed by the board of control of the Oregon City High School Athletic association to change the official emblems for the four sports, football, basketball, baseball and track.

There has been considerable discussion lately owing to the length of the emblem, O. C. H. S., and it is claimed by the students that the letters "look like a Chinese character" when made into a monogram. It is to find some relief for this condition that the committee has been appointed and is now working.

Although nothing has yet been decided, it is probable that hereafter "O. C." will be used for football and a winged "O." or "O. C." for basketball. The committee has not thinned out the emblems for the other two sports.

LETTER EXPLAINS

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 3.—A letter received from Los Angeles this morning tells why Jack Britton side-tracked a match with Bud Anderson, and Frank Barreau was substituted in his stead.

When Bud left Portland he expected that he would meet Britton on a date between December 16 and 20 at Vernon. He didn't know of the change until after he reached Los Angeles, where he witnessed the Cross-Rivers battle on Thanksgiving day.

It seems that Britton agreed to all the terms which Promoter McCarey offered him—then went back on his word and signed to box with Packey McFarland at Milwaukee on December 8, mixing for 10 rounds. Britton probably figured where he could make more money in the Brewery City in this short-distance, no-decision bout than battling with Anderson at Vernon for 20 rounds.

BROOKLYN STARTS BACK

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—According to word received here from Jake Danbert, the members of the Brooklyn National League baseball team, who have been playing exhibition games in Cuba, since the close of the season in this country, sailed for home yesterday and will arrive in New York on Friday.

WARNER IS WONDER

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—New York experts agree that what Connie Mack is to the baseball world, Glenn Warner is to the football world.

If anyone objects to the statement that Warner is the greatest football coach in America it can be modified to the assertion that the Carlisle Indians are the most wonderful performers, year after year, in the country.

SPORTING BREVITIES

Gilmour Doble has been harboring secretly a scheme to land at the University of Wisconsin next year. But, judging from the headline across the Wisconsin Daily News, Germany Schultz has the jump on him. "We want Germany Schultz back," says the screamer. Schultz helped Juneau a little this fall.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Fines totaling $700 levied during the past season of the American Trotting association will be divided among injured or needy drivers who participated in race meets, it was decided today by the board of appeals of the association.

Bobby Steele who played with Moose Jaw last season, is to get a tryout with the Victoria Bees in the spring.

According to the Boston papers, the release of "Hap" Myers, former Spokane first baseman, by the Braves, was not due to his efforts in behalf of the players' fraternity. It is claimed that waivers were asked and received early in the season.

Pitcher Johnson and Outfielder Weber, California semi-pros, have been signed by the Victoria club for next season.

Now comes the real reason why the St. Louis Browns sold Catcher Alexander to the Oaks. While in the big show, the little pad artist broke a record by striking out 33 times in 42 games.

MULTNOMAH WANTS GAME WITH CONFERENCE ELEVENS

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 3.—Manager Stott, of the Multnomah football team believes that he will be able to schedule a game with each of the six northwestern conference elevens when their graduate managers meet here Friday and Saturday.

He has favorable letters from each of them which leads him to believe that he can go ahead and sign papers with each of the team, if he considers it best. Of course, games with Oregon and O. A. C. are already assured by contract, while Idaho and Washington State are also certain. This leaves but Washington and Whitman to be heard from. Stott will attend the conferences to be held here, and expects to arrange a game with at least one of these teams.

Multnomah will resume practice next Tuesday night. As quarterback Rodes is still laid up with a case of blood poisoning, it is likely that the game which had been planned with St. James College will either be played later than expected or cancelled entirely.

PORTLAND STAYS IN NORTHWEST LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The big Northwestern Baseball league delegation here left happy tonight and well repaid for the trip to San Francisco, for at the opening session of the Pacific Coast league's annual meeting permission was granted to allow Portland to remain in the Class B circuit. The scheduled clash between the two sets of magnates did not take place, although the discussion of whether or not Portland was to have continuous ball was gone over thoroughly.

In the end the Coast league magnates voted the northwesterners the right to invade Portland in 1914, but the intimation was given that it will be the last year the Coast league territory will be open to the minors.

The voters of the Hood River school district have authorized the construction of a gymnasium building that may cost as much as $10,500 and will contain quarters for domestic science and manual training departments.

A FAIR PROPOSITION

APPLE DAY IN OREGON.

Apple day was a great success. Apples, apples everywhere—great big red ones.

The apple eater has a fresh youthful appearance because he is healthy. Apples grown in Clackamas County are highly flavored and have a fine skin and are very tender, and will not stand abuses in shipping as well as apples grown in a dryer or hotter climate. However we can beat the world on flavor.

Some means of equal distribution should be devised whereby our big apple crops could be gotten into the hands of the apply hungry people in place where now the price makes possession almost prohibitive.

The time must and will come when markets will be established in cities where the consumer can buy direct from the grower. The middle man is an expensive luxury, and he must be done away with, for this, and the additional reason that he does not push the apple, satisfied to make big profits on a few sales, and what's the use.

It is our aim to foster the consumption of apples, and not the price. If the grower could secure $1.25 to $1.50 per box, and find sale for all his product, we would find that he was in a good business. Up to this time consumption has not been what it should be, for the commission man has made apples a luxury after his big profit was realized. This is not good for grower or consumer for his apples must be sold if the grower would continue in the work, and everyone has a natural craving and liking for apples. Transportation charges are 50 cents per box and with a charge of from 25 cents to 50 cents per box for distribution, if the shipment was handled right, a box of apples could reach the consumer in the Middle West at a cost of from $2.25 to $2.50, and thus cost less than the present prices. The grower might realize $1.25 to $1.50, a living turn, the consumer would find the product within his means and an agent would get a fair return for his labor and everyone would benefit thereby. Let our motto be "Live and let live."—Oregon City Publicity.

An Everyday Cake

Here is a simple and inexpensive cake that can be varied in many ways with different frostings and icings. It looks a little nicer baked in a tube pan, but will be equally as good baked in a square loaf.

K C Gold Cake

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

1/2 cup butter; 1/2 cup sugar; yolks of 4 eggs, beaten light; 1 cup flour, less 2 level tablespoonfuls; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/2 cup milk; grated rind of 1 orange.

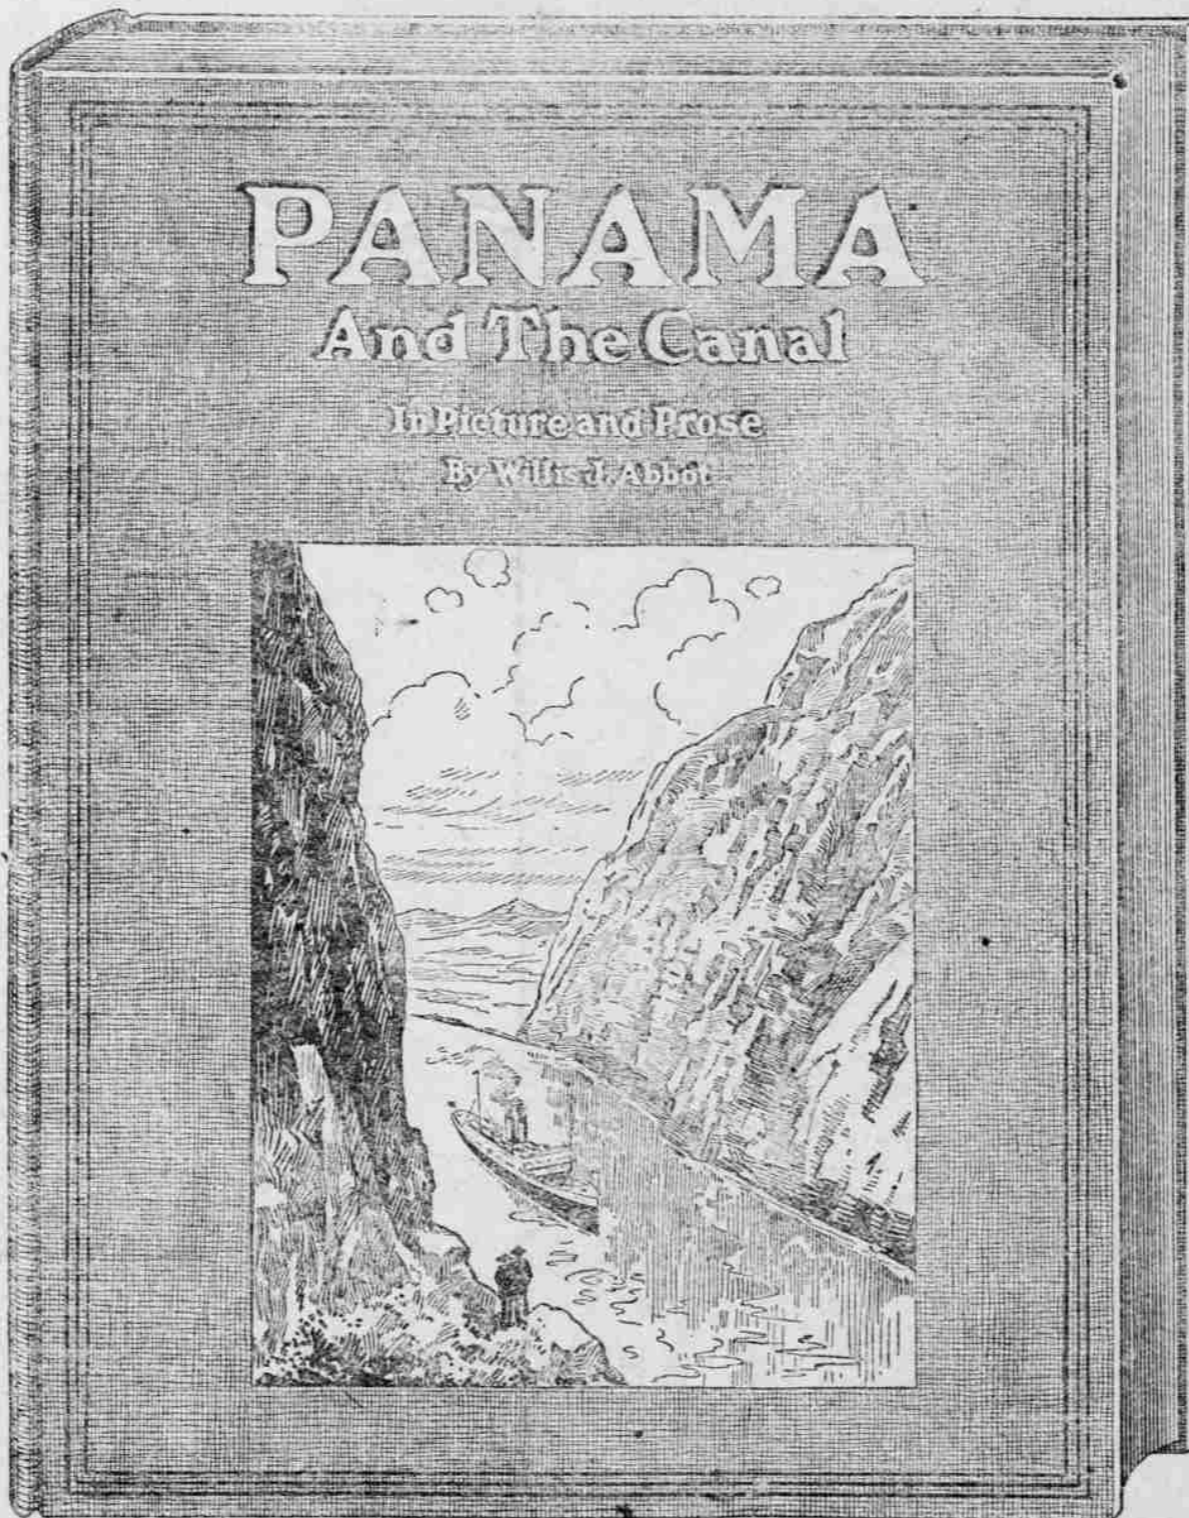

Sift flour and baking powder together three times; cream butter and sugar, beat yolks of eggs, add these to creamed mixture, and lastly add the moisture and flour alternately, beating batter until smooth. Gold Cake can only be made successfully by beating yolks of eggs, very, very creamy and light lemon colored, using a rotary beater. The rotary beater is the only beater that will do justice to the yolks of eggs. The beating kills all egg taste and improves the texture of the cake.

Cocoanut Frosting

Beat the whites of 2 eggs dry; gradually beat in half a cup of sifted confectioner's sugar and continue the beating until the frosting is smooth, thick and glossy; then beat in grated cocoanut, fresh or prepared, and spread upon the cake. This frosting is made thick by beating rather than by sugar.

Save this recipe. You will want to use it frequently. Or better, send us the colored certificate packed in each 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder and we will mail you "The Cook's Book" containing this and 89 other baking recipes equally good—all by Mrs. Hill. Jacques Mfg. Co., Chicago.
