MANAGERS POW-WOW

COLLEGE REPRESENTATIVES TO GATHER IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 4.—The Pacific Northwest College conference managers will meet in their annual pow-wow here tomorrow and Saturday. Graduate managers of the University of Washington, Washington State college, Oregon Agricultural college, University of Idaho, Whitman college and University of Oregon will be present.

The basketball, baseball, track and field and football schedules for the 1914 season will be arranged. Some of the managers have practically arranged their football schedules for the 1914 season. The question of holding a wrestling meet and tennis tournament and a cross-country run will be decided.

The question of whether the conference will adopt an accredited list of officials will also be decided. A number of the managers are in favor of this move. The eligibility rules can not be changed nor can the Willamette university be admitted to the conference at this meeting, as it is not the regular biennial conference gathering. Dr. Sweetland, however, will be on hand to try and schedule games with the conference teams.

BIG SQUAD IS NOW OUT

BASKETBALL PROSPECTS AT EUGENE PROMISING

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 4.—Thirty-five basketball aspirants, new men and old answered the call of Hugh Bezdek, coach, and Bill Hayward, athletic director, for the initial practice of the basketball season, schedules for which will be fixed in Portland today and tomorrow.

A wealth of basketball material is on hand. Of last year's team, only one member is missing—Dean Walker, forward, who is now graduate manager and will assist the team. At the first practice yesterday three of the old men were present, and three absent. The latter will report during the next few days. There are "Ole" Simms, guard; Russel Brooks, midget forward; and "Bob" Bradshaw, the giant Oregon guard. The old men who reported yesterday were Tommy Boylen, last year's forward and guard, and Don Rice, forward.

BUCKLEY HURLS CHALLENGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—"Change the weight to 120 pounds rinside and my man will fight him winner take all and bet him $5000 at evens."

This was the challenge hurled at Lightweight Champion Willie Ritchie on behalf of Tommy Murphy here today by Jim Buckley, Murphy's manager. Ritchie and Murphy are scheduled to clash here at 135 pounds on the evening of December 10. Buckley was peeved when he voiced his challenge because the champion had been installed a 10 to 6 favorite over Murphy.

OUST FIGHTER

NEW YORK, Dec. 4. "Permit both fighters to leave town with a reprimand and let it go at that—that is, if they leave."

This was the advice hurled most frequently at the state boxing commission today as a result of last night's 10 round contest here between Jess Willard of Nebraska, and Carl Morris, the original white hope. Other fans thought the case of Morris called for more drastic action.

SPORTING BREVITIES

"Handsome Jack" Killilly, the Oakland pitcher, was married a few days ago to Miss Beulah Pearl Kirkashear, a Fresno girl. Killilly met Miss Kirkashear while the Oaks were at the training camp.

Billy Papke, former middleweight champion, has decided to quit the ring and turn farmer. He has purchased a fruit orchard in Illinois.

It is rumored that "Red" Murray, New York outfielder, is to be traded or sold. Cooper, who has been playing the bench for two seasons, is to fill Murray's shoes, according to reports.

Hank O'Day, veteran umpire, thinks that Hans Wagner is still the best shortstop in the world, and will be until he quits the game.

It is reported that Harry Wolverton will sign Henley and Baker if they are dropped by the Seals.

Dave Robertson, New York's young outfielder, is coaching the A. and M. College of North Carolina football team.

ESTACADA.

At a meeting of the directors of the Estacada State Bank Tuesday, Irwin D. Wright was elected as cashier and director to succeed L. E. Belfils. Mr. Belfils will assist in the affairs of the bank until about the first of the year, or until Mr. Wright thoroughly becomes acquainted with the people and conditions in this community. Mr. Belfils has not made any plans for the future, but more than likely his family at least will remain here until school closes in the spring.

There were innumerable Thanksgiving dinners in Estacada last Thursday, and the day passed off very pleasantly with everybody. The dance at the pavilion, given under the auspices of the Civic Improvement Club, was a brilliant and very successful affair and netted the organization the neat sum of $57.00. This money goes into the street light fund.

Mrs. C. F. Frazier entertained a number of out of town guests Thanksgiving day and evening. They were, Miss Mary Dubois, of Vancouver, Miss Beatrice Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Williams and Mr. Roberts of Portland.

Mr. Halpin, Mrs. George Simmon's father, had a very bad attack of asthma Thanksgiving night, but is much improved now.
