COUNTY BUDGET IS SUBMITTED

COURT MAKES ESTIMATES OF ALL COSTS OF GOVERNMENT FOR YEAR

BIG FUND FOR ROADS AND SCHOOLS

Receipts in Fees Are Taken Into Account When Apportionments Are Made—Error in First Figures

The county court has fixed its annual budget. A public hearing on the items involved in the statement will be given December 24 at 10 o'clock in the court house.

In the statement, the court estimates the expenses of the year at $414,840 for county purposes and $170,000 for state purposes. The estimate for the redemption of outstanding road warrants and accrued interest is $125,000. The receipts from the county offices are estimated for the year at $14,650.

Of these estimated expenses, the court allows $15,000 to the county judge, $4,575 to the sheriff, $4,320 to the county clerk, $4,220 to the county recorder, $3,785 to the county treasurer, $3,930 for the school superintendent, county assessor $6,000, county attorney for office expenses $50, coroner $1,100, surveyor $3,000, veterinarian $600, sealer of weights and measures $1,000, board of health $1,300, tax rebate $300, court house expenses $3,500, jail $1,800, county poor $6,000, widow's pensions $1,200, elections $9,500, circuit court $7,000, justice of the peace $2,500, printing and other expenses, $6,000.

In addition, the county plans to spend $235,750 on the roads through the districts besides the special levies that have been made for highway work. The schools are to receive $92,000 in addition to the amounts that have been voted by a large number of the district through the county.

The estimate for state expenses will not be as great as had been anticipated and included in the budget. The notice sent to the office of the county assessor called for $170,000 while the county will have to raise somewhat more than $154,000 for state purposes. The first estimate was due to an error in the office of the tax commission.

OFFICERS TO ATTEND TRIAL OF ROBBERS

Robert R. Rankin, United States deputy district attorney, has notified Chief of Police Ed Shaw that the trial of James Bliss and Frank Morgan, who are charged with breaking in and robbing the Willamette postoffice, will be held Saturday before the federal court in Portland. Besides the chief, Officers George Woodward and Henry Cook, the two who made the arrest, will appear as witnesses. Ewald Leisman, whose father is the postmaster and who was asleep in a balcony of the store at the time of the robbery, will go from Willamette to the trial.

The two men are charged with robbing the postoffice and attempting to break in the safe on the night of October 14. They were arrested early the following morning in Oregon City and afterwards turned over to the federal officials.

Harry Trembath, former sheriff of this county and ex-constable, will act as chief of police during the absence of Chief Shaw.

DIMICK'S CATTLE GO TO PORTLAND SHOW

Judge Grant B. Dimick leaves Saturday with a car of 10 head of his best stock for the show in Portland December 8, 13.

From all parts of the state, some of the finest stock that has been raised in the past year or two will be brought to the exhibit grounds. The judge has selected some of his best from his farm and plans to get them into the show this year.

The show is given to encourage the cattle industry of the state and to arouse an interest in the production of stock. The tendency toward more live stock through the state has been largely worked up through these shows and some of the animals that are brought to Portland for exhibit purposes are high grade.

A grand clean-up campaign is in progress in the courthouse yard at Gold Beach, as an altogether surprising result of Halloween pranks. The authorities decided to wear cheaper to remove the few things the boys had left than to hunt up and put back the many they had overturned or dragged away.

Colonel Kingman, New Head of U. S. Army Engineering Corps

COLONEL DAN U. KINGMAN, division engineer of the Southeastern division, with headquarters at Savannah, and senior colonel in the United States army engineering corps, succeeded General William T. Russell as chief of engineers of the army, with the rank of brigadier general, when the latter recently retired on account of age. Colonel Kingman is a native of New Hampshire. He was appointed from that state to the Military academy at West Point on July 1, 1870. He was appointed a second lieutenant on June 16, 1875; a first lieutenant on March 4, 1879; a captain on March 20, 1888; a major on July 31, 1897; a lieutenant colonel on Feb. 16, 1905, and a colonel on July 6, 1908. He has held the latter rank continuously until the present time. Colonel Kingman has done a great deal for the betterment of the Savannah river and harbor.

JURY ACQUITS OSWEGO RIOTERS

TEN MEN GO SCOT FREE WHEN REPORT IS MADE INTO THE CIRCUIT COURT

WITNESSES GIVE ILLES ALL BLAME

Declare Every Effort Was Made to Keep Him Out of Crowd But that He Insisted Upon Seeing the Fun

The Oswego rioters are acquitted. In the circuit court of the county Friday afternoon, the trial jury that heard the case of the 10 men indicted for a riot at Oswego returned a verdict of not guilty. All of the defendants were present with the exception of Blackie Illes who is in Texas awaiting his appeal in the criminal court of appeals in that state.

Meant To Pow-Wow. Through the course of the trial, the defendants had claimed that they originally intended simply to persuade the men then at work for the Home Telephone company at Oswego that they should leave the job in justice to the union men who were out of work.

They planned to have a quiet argument about the matters at issue and to talk the men out of their jobs, if possible. They claimed that Illes was responsible for all of the trouble and that he instigated the disturbance that followed there and did the first act of violence there committed. They blame the whole trouble onto the acts that Illes committed at that time and said that he was responsible for all of the disturbances that followed. They claimed that he threw the instruments at the other men and that he kicked one of them while the regular crowd was peacefully talking with the others.

Tried to Drop Him. They also alleged that they had made every effort to prevent his joining the crowd even before they left the depot in Portland but that he insisted upon getting on the same car with them. They said that he was in an intoxicated condition when he left Portland and that he stirred up an argument with a man on the car before they had hardly more than reached the city limits.

Throughout the case, the blame for the disturbances at Oswego was laid upon the shoulders of Illes. It is possible that Sheriff Mass will have to leave for Texas in a short time to find

FORESTERS CHOOSE OFFICERS OF COURT

Officers were elected at the meeting of Court Robin Hood, number nine, of the Foresters of America Thursday night. A large number of the members were present and some of the Foresters in Portland were present. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing term: Chief ranger, W. F. Forward; sub-chief ranger, A. Schrader; treasurer, J. T. Searle; financial secretary, S. B. Shadle; recording secretary, W. W. McFarland; senior woodward, W. Harvey; junior woodward, George Rissburger; senior headle, E. Hedlund; junior headle, Ray Barbur; lecturer, J. A. Moore; trustee, for three years, W. L. Rall.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY AT NAEF STATION

After boldly walking up the front walk, between three and four o'clock Thursday afternoon, and looking through the windows on the first floor a stranger broke in the home of William Rall at Naef station, and stole eight dollars after ransacking the entire house.

A neighbor saw a man come up to the house and look through the windows and then walk around to the rear of the building, where he passed out of sight. The house is but three or four blocks from the car line and is surrounded by other buildings.

The case that was started when he was there before. Upon a technicality, the case is carried into the highest criminal court of the state.

Defendants. The following are defendants in the case: Ernest Brodler, J. Y. Lohr, Clyde Oakley, B. Westcott, E. Miles, C. E. Tradup, C. E. Swallow, J. Olson, Fred Ream, George Egner.

Following is the trial jury in the case: S. P. Davis, foreman, Fred Lins, A. McConnell, M. E. Dunn, H. T. Melvin, V. Bohlander, John Burgoyne, H. M. Robbins, Gust Engbrecht, E. F. Veteto, Fred Mattis, M. Crissell.

W. A. Dimick was counsel for the defendants while Gilbert L. Hedges, county attorney and J. E. Hedges were attorneys for the state.

And many a man who has the cheek to raise whiskers doesn't even try it.

Anyway, it's better to be disappointed in love than in marriage.

CARVER DRAWS DOWN BIG HAUL

FIGURES SHOWING PRICE PAID FOR CORVALLIS LINE MADE PUBLIC

FACTS ARE BROUGHT OUT IN TRIAL

Paper is Introduced During Progress of Suit and Original Transfer is Shown—Part Comes in cash, Rest in Notes

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 5.—Stephen Carver got $460,000 from the Portland, Eugene & Eastern for the 31 miles of track of the Corvallis & Alsea River Railway, and the real estate and franchise holdings of the company. Through this deal between A. L. Welch, representing the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, and Mr. Carver was made April 17, 1911, the exact figures have not been made public before.

According to the original document introduced in a trial before the Benton county court last week, in which the Corvallis Lumber company was awarded $18,000 damages against Stephen Carver for failure to build an extension into certain timber, the purchase figures were made known.

Mr. Carver received $25,000 cash, four notes of $25,000 each, due at the first of the each year until 1916, and in January of that year he is to be paid a cash payment of $285,000. A $50,000 mortgage was assumed. The papers in the deal authorized a mortgage of not less than $800,000 nor more than $1,200,000, and $25,000 for each additional mile of track laid. The Corvallis & Alsea road, now operated by the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, extended to Monson, and into the timber country near Bellfontain and Alpine. Extensions are talking the new line very close to the Alsea country.

DIVORCE ACTIONS FIND WAY INTO CIRCUIT COURT

Suits for divorce were filed in the circuit court Friday by Allan J. Churchill against Lola Churchill on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Stephenson, Wash., March 2, 1910 and the complaint tells of the desertion November 12, 1912.

Mabel E. Crawford brought suit for divorce against Byron E. Crawford alleging failure to provide her with the necessities of life. They were married in Portland May 12, 1909.

GERVAIS MARSHAL IS DYING; CONFESSION

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 5.—John Zoller, marshal of Gervais, is believed to be dying from a wound in the neck and left shoulder received in a pistol duel which occurred early today when he approached two suspicious characters. Ray McCarroll, arrested several hours after the shooting in this city, has made a complete confession to Sheriff Esch, but declares it was his companion who shot the marshal. McCarroll has two bullet wounds in his left shoulder, but his condition is not serious.

ROLLER GASHES HAND OF MILL LABORER

William Splinter, an employe of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company, was injured while helping with the moving of a generator Friday. The heavy machinery was carried on rollers and the laborer got his hand under one of them.

Though the entire hand was badly cut and mashed, Dr. Hugh Mount believed that he could save it and sent the man to the hospital after taking several stitches in the gashed flesh. Before his daughter had left the hospital after treatment for an injured knee, the father was taken there for injuries that he received at the mill.

TELEPHONES MUST INTERCHANGE CALLS

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 5.—Holding that there is a public necessity for the service, the State Railroad commission today issued an order in the complaint of the Wright, Dickinson Hotel company, owners of the Hotel Oregon in Portland, against the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, that the telephone company interchange calls with the Home Telephone & Telegraph company in the hotel. It is the first time in history of the two companies in the state that the order has been ordered to give an interchange service with its rival, and it fought to the last against doing so.

The Toledo Sentinel man turns up his editorial nose at the Corvallis hen that laid 303 eggs a year. This unkind man says: "The editor of this paper has an old iron gray hen that frequently goes 303 days without laying an egg of any kind. We have never noticed that she ever misses a meal, however."
