WANTS ANOTHER FIGHT WILL REARRANGE GAMES

ARRIEAU THINKS HE CAN LICK ANDERSON

Frank Barrieau has a good alibi for the beating he took at the hands of Bud Anderson at Venice last week.

Displaying a large gash over his right eye, a brand new manager, and a strong desire to once more step into the ring with Bud Anderson, Frank Barrieau, the Canadian who recently went nine rattling rounds with the highly touted Bud, and then took the count, passed through the city on his way to Vancouver. He was accompanied by A. G. Halstead.

"Frank was very much disappointed at the outcome of his go with Anderson, as he figured that he beat his man all the way, and then lost on a fluke. 'If there is anybody in the world I can lick, it is Bud Anderson'" says the Canadian scrapper. And he can show where he should have been returned the winner easily, if— But he did not give any alibi. He simply pointed to the three-cornered mark on his forehead and told how it happened.

PLAN SURF-BOARD ACT

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 18.—One of the big features of the annual Christmas swim which will be staged under the auspices of the Multnomah club at 10:30 o'clock Christmas morning, will be the "surfless" surfboard riding of Clair Tait and Ted Preble.

This will be given just before the women's races, and the 100-yard open even and is expected to take up about 15 minutes. The pair will attach their surfboard to Leighton Steele's motorboat, going at a rate of 25 miles through the water, and Tait will hold Preble on his shoulders, balancing himself on the board with the aid of ropes for his hands.

CHAPPEL LEADS

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Long distance hitting was a feature of batting in the American Association during the 1913 season, according to the official averages issued by President Chivington here today. Premier honors among the sluggers went to Rigert, of St. Paul, who made a total base count of 280, leading the league in home runs with an even dozen, and making 23 triples, also a year's record. Chappell of Milwaukee (later with the Chicago Americans), was the virtual leader of the hitters, with an average of .349 for 85 games.

SPORTING BREVITIES

Del Howard and his Seals will start training at Boyes Springs on February 28.

Willie McCorrey, the pitcher who was transferred from San Francisco to Spokane last season, has filed a claim against the Seal management for salary, which he says should have been paid him between the time of his release and his reporting to Spokane which was about two weeks.

The report that Garry Herrman has not picked the manager of the Reds is a mistake. He has decided on the manager, but has not named the messenger boy.

It is rumored that Joe Gedeon, former Seal star, now with Washington, is to be turned over to Los Angeles. "Dolly" Stark, last year's utility infielder of the Sacramento Wolves, has been traded to the Memphis club of the Southern League for outfielder Al Schweitzer. Schweitzer is a player of the Moran type, a .275 hitter, first base runner and a greater fielder.

NEW ANSWER SUGGESTED TO QUESTION

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 18.—A new plan has been formulated to settle the difficulty which has arisen in scheduling a contest for Albany, if the O. A. C.-U. of O. game goes to Portland November 21, 1914. Secretary Van Winkle, of the Albany Commercial club, today advised the athletic director of the Oregon Agricultural college, Dr. E. J. Stewart, that efforts were being made to stage a game between the University of Washington and the Oregon Agricultural college in Albany, October 29.

In the communication received here Secretary Van Winkle stated that prospects were very favorable, and that the University of Washington had been sounded, with a result that looked bright for a game. Without doubt, from the sentiment on the campus here, the Oregon Agricultural college would be willing to play the game on the Albany field.

STAR UNABLE TO PLAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Captain R. G. Ritson, who was leader of the English polo team last year in its attempt to lift the international cup, will probably be absent in next year's match, for which England has recently challenged.

KETCHAM TAKES A SLAP AT NEWSPAPERS.

Yale football team gave out a statement in which he makes known his reasons for the definite decision that the football men will not wear numbers on the backs of their jerseys.

It had been suggested that each player be numbered so that the spectators could follow the plays more closely. Captain Ketcham's statement says: "I thoroughly disapprove of the practice of numbering football men, and we have decided not to depart from our former system. This new step has been advocated by the newspapers for their own benefit in distinguishing the men. Football is not being conducted here for the newspapers, but for the college, and the players are not working to win recognition by the public, but are playing for themselves and the university."

Striking Example of Brutal Tackle In Gridiron Game.

THIS photo shows how laxity of game officials and overgenerousness on the part of players result in injury to gridiron stars. At the right you notice Guyon, the great Carlisle Indian back, smashed to the ground by a Dartmouth forward by an actual grip on Guyon's face. That is an indefensible mode of tackling—too high and really brutal.

A team guilty of such an offense should be penalized fifteen or twenty yards.

Of course football is not a ladies' game, but there is no use in making it resemble an execution party in a Mexican revolution.
