League Dates Fixed Teners Election Aids

Northwest to Open April 14

Portland, Ore., Mar 15—The dates of the Northwest league have been determined by the commissioners and the league will open its regular season April 14.

The decision of John Hickey, Trust er, to form the Northwest league was influenced by the fact that the present National League is nearing the end of its season, and it is believed that the new league will be well attended by the number of teams that have expressed a desire to participate in it.

The Northwest league will include teams from the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, and California, and it is expected that the league will be well supported.

The league will have a duration of six months, and will conclude its season in October.

Also, the dates of the league have been fixed, and the first game is scheduled for April 14.

World Series Game

In the world series game played on July 16, 1963, in Philadelphia, the Phillies scored 10 runs against the Giants, winning the game 10-0.

The Phillies were led by Mike Schmidt, who had a triple and two runs batted in.

The Giants were led by Willie Mays, who had a home run and a double.

The Phillies finished with a record of 90-70, while the Giants finished with a record of 80-80.

The world series game was dominated by the pitching of Roy不允许

in the game, as he allowed only three hits and three runs in nine innings.

The game was played in front of a packed house, and the crowd was entertained by the high-scoring game.

The Phillies won the world series game, and went on to win the series 4-2.

The world series game was a classic, and it is likely to be remembered for years to come.
