VOL. II.

OREGON CITY, CLACKAMAS COUNTY, OREGON, MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1903.

7407 No. 5.

COURT MET TODAY

DOCKET IS OVERLOADED WITH NEARLY 200 CASES.

Many of These Have Been Settled and Should Be Dismissed—Nothing of Importance to Come Up This Term.

The regular April term of the Circuit Court convened today. The docket is a long one, though there are numerous cases, which have been in the court for years and should be stricken off, as they only take up the time of the officials and are as dead as they can be. There are few cases of importance on the docket this term. The total number is 195 of which 152 are equity, seven are criminal and 36 law cases. The equity cases comprise for the most part divorces, a great many of which are Portland cases, filed by Multnomah County attorneys. This practice of obtaining divorces quietly in Clackamas County, is not as frequent as it once was, as Representative Webster, in the last legislature, secured the passage of a bill, raising the fees $10 in divorce cases in the fifth judicial district, comprising Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia and Washington Counties. The list of cases on the docket for this term follows:

HOME TEAM LOSES

FONTELLA WON FIRST GAME OF SEASON BY SCORE OF 7 TO 3.

Five Hundred People Saw Good Ball at Camas Park Yesterday Afternoon—Oregon City Has Had Little Practice But Has Excellent Material.

The opening game of baseball for the season of 1903 resulted in a defeat from Oregon City by a score of 7 to 3, in favor of the Fontella team, of Portland. This team was scheduled to play as the Fidelity team, which won its laurels two years ago, and they decided to go under the name of Fontella team for the season. The game was almost devoid of exciting features. Calif pitched a steady game all through for the home team and Hoyt for the visitors did very good work, but was replaced in the sixth inning by Reed. All three pitchers were hit freely. The Oregon City boys had had very little practice and will undoubtedly play better ball as the season advances. Five hundred people saw the game.

Umpire Charles Geil called game at 2:45 and Oregon City went out in the field. Calif gave Newell first on balls. Archie Parrott sacrificed and advanced the runner to second and he made third on a pass. Oliver got first on balls. Geil sacrificed and Oliver went to second. Dick Parrott drove a short one to Pitcher Calif and two men died on bases.

Lee sent a high ball to center field and was caught. McFarland bunted a safety and made first. Reckner struck out. Martin lined out a single to left field and McFarland and Martin were left on bases.

Brown made a safe hit and got to second on a passed ball. Smith struck out. Jacobs drove a fly to right field and was caught out and Brown made third. Hoyt struck out and Brown went to sleep on third.

McCutcheon went out on a short one to third base. Rhoades struck out. E. Calif went out on a hit by shortstop Newell struck out and Archie Parrott followed him. Oliver made first on a long grounder to right field and Geil struck out.

Billy Calif went out on a high ball to shortstop and Lee and McFarland went out on short drives to pitcher.

The visitors made two runs in the fourth. Dick Parrott drove a long single to right field and stole second. Brown struck out. Smith drove a long high one to right and on an error by Rhoades, who dropped the ball, got to second, advancing Parrott to third. Jacobs lined out to right field and Parrott and Smith scored. Hoyt went out on a short fly and Jacobs went to second. Newell hit to pitcher and the ball was too hot to handle. Jacobs tried to get home but was caught at the plate.

Reckner went to first on balls. Brown caught a foul of Martin's. Graham made an intended sacrifice but the third baseman fumbled and he made first, Reckner going to second. McCutcheon went to first and forced Reck out on third. Rhoades struck out and Graham and McCutcheon died.

Arch Parrott made a long drive to left field but Lee was there with the goods. Oliver repeated to right field and Geil struck out.

Oregon City scored in the fifth. E. Calif made first on a long drive to right field. Billy Calif bunted the third strike and was out. Lee made a double, and Calif went to third. McFarland went to first on a short grounder, which the shortstop missed. Lee went to third and Calif came home. McFarland stole second and Reckner struck out. Martin hit to first and went out and the home team lost its best chance to score, leaving Lee on third and McCutcheon on second.

Dick Parrott lined out to third and Graham made a wild throw, the runner reaching first. Graham misjudged a short one off Brown and another man got to first, Parrott going to second. Smith sent a liner to shortstop and everybody moved up one, but Brown was put out on second. Smith stole second. Jacobs went out at first on a fly and Parrott reached home. Smith went to third and Hoyt went out to Calif.

Graham struck to Pitcher Reed and failed to reach first. McCutcheon lined out to second and was put out at the first bag. Rhoades lifted a high one to center and was caught. Newell made a short hit and was Geil struck to Reckner, who missed it and Oliver went to third. Geil made second. R. Parrott went out at first and Oliver scored. Brown went out at first and Geil died.

E. Calif got first on balls and his little brother struck out. The runner was nailed between first and second and fell down. Lee struck out.

Smith went to first on balls. Jacobs sacrificed and Smith went to second. McFarland made a fine stop of Reed's liner and Smith made third. Newell drove a single to second and made first, scoring Smith. Arch Parrott struck out.

McFarland went out to right field and Reckner got first on balls. Martin lined out to right field and was out. Reckner ran too fast on the out, and the inning was a short one.

Oliver went out on a fly to Reckner. Geil made first on balls and made second on a pass. R. Parrott drove a single past shortstop and Geil got to third. Parrott stole second. Brown went out on a fly to left field. Smith made a single and Geil came home, Parrott going to third. Jacobs came up and forced Smith out at second.

Lee handled the stick for Graham and made a single. McCutcheon rapped a fly to third and was caught. Lee made second on a pass and Rhoades went to first on balls. E. Calif went out on a high fly to first. Billy Calif gained the plaudits of the grandstand by knocking a two bagger to right field, bringing in Lee and Rhoades. Lee went out on a foul to third base and the game was over. The score:
