Reduced Excursion Rates
To The Seaside and Mountain
Resorts For The Summer.

The Southern Pacific Company has placed on sale at very low rates round-trip tickets to the various resorts along its lines, and also, in connection with the Corvallis and Eastern Railroad, to Detroit and the seaside at Yaquina Bay, latter tickets good for return until October 10th.

Three day tickets to Yaquina Bay, good going Saturdays, returning Mondays, are on sale at greatly reduced rates from all points from Eugene and north on both east and west side lines, enabling people to spend Sunday at the Seaside. Very low round trip rates are also made between Portland and same points on the Southern Pacific, good going Saturdays, returning Sunday or Monday, allowing Portland people to spend Sunday in the country and the out of town people to have the day in Portland.

Tickets from Portland to Yaquina Bay good for return via Albany and East Side, or Corvallis and West Side, at option of passenger. Baggage checked through to Newport. A new feature at Newport this year will be an up-to-date Kindergarten in charge of an experienced Chicago teacher.

A beautifully illustrated booklet describing the seaside resorts on Yaquina Bay has been published by the Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern Railroads, and can be secured from any of their Agents, or by addressing W. E. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or Edwin Stone, Manager C. & E. R. R., Albany, Oregon. Yours truly,
W. E. COMAN,
Gen. Pass. Agent.

Get Both Ways.

"I want my hair cut and no talk," said a great man with an I own the earth air, as he walked into a barber's shop and sat down.

"The"—commenced the man in the apron.

"No talk, I tell you!" shouted the heavy man. "Just a plain hair cut. I've read all the papers and don't want any news. Start away now!"

The man in the apron obeyed. When he had finished, the man who knew everything rose from his chair and surveyed himself in the glass.

"Great Scott!" he exclaimed. "It's really true, then? You barbers can't do your work properly unless you talk."

"I don't know," said the man in the apron quietly. "You must ask the barber. He'll be in presently. I'm the glazier from next door."

THE CITY OF COLOR.

NEW YORK A PICTURE OF PLEASING CONTRASTS IN HUES.

The American Metropolis in This Respect Surpasses All the Great Monotone Tinted Capitals of the Occidental World.

New York has been written about from almost every possible point of view—architectural, commercial, political and social. Yet so far as we know it has never been properly appreciated for the one thing in which it surpasses all the other great capitals of the occidental world, and that is for its color. Those of us who live here all our lives or who absent ourselves for only brief and inconsiderable periods of time never know how extraordinary is the environment in which we have been placed. It is only the stranger with an artistic sense or the native who has been long away who gets the full effect of this city of ours in its unique prismatic floridity of hue such as vivifies no other city of its kind.

If you will think for a moment and visualize from memory the great cities of Europe as a colorist would see them you will be struck by the fact that each one is a monotone. London has the dull, dingy, smoky hue of its own November fogs, and as you pass along its miles and miles of streets, a welter of unvariegated facades and homely chimney pots, your impression will be more and more that London is one great smudge, hideous and unrelieved beneath a sky of watery paleness which merely accentuates a little more the dingy hue of everything beneath it. Paris equally represents a monotone, a delicate gray that is neat and clean and that adds to the symmetry and harmoniousness of the whole effect, but that is seldom diversified by warmer tones. Berlin is a monotone in buff and Rome, like Paris, for the most part, a monotone in gray.

One thinks at first of Naples as a city brilliant with the hues of the south, but a little reflection will show that it is not the city itself which can be rightly so regarded, but rather the setting of the city as one perceives it from the ship on which he enters the glorious bay or from the Capo di Posilipo. The intense blue of the sky, the emerald of the surrounding hills, the sparkle on the waters that lap its crescent shore, the huge dun slope of Vesuvius, with its golden smoke, and Capri in the distance swimming in a golden mist—these things afford an unforgettable dream of perfect coloring. But Naples itself! The place is as commonplace and dirty and depressing as Constantinople, which also from a distance cheats you into thinking it a colorist's paradise.

It is New York alone which, after delighting the eye with the beauty of its harbor, embraced by the long slopes of billowy green, fascinates the eye by the brilliancy and diversity of its color scheme. The sky is as blue as that which is arched above the Mediterranean. Its sunshine is as bright, and it is sifted down upon the city like gold dust scattered by a lavish hand. But the sky and the sunlight merely intensify the vividness of the color contrasts which are visible at every turn. Here is no convention, no conformity, no desire for harmonious effect. The snowy whiteness of marble and the clean gray of granite are everywhere intermingled with the cheerful buff or the warm, rich reds of brick. Patches of green appear at the end of every vista.

The enormous display windows of the shops are a riot of blues and yellows and pale rose and heliotrope and scarlet. Gilding catches and reflects the sunlight at every turn. Flags and streamers and multicolored awnings add to the effect, so that every street is a veritable spectrum. Throughout the whole length and breadth of the island city color abounds in flecks and splashes. It is just a bit barbaric, possibly, but it is also wonderful and striking.

To the sober dullness of Madrid or Rome or London it is what the Pompeian wall paintings are to the quiet canvases of Harpignies—not art, but instinct nevertheless with a sensuousness and a glow that stir one strangely. If you are a native of New York perhaps you never noticed this. Yet all the same it is set before you every day, and if you will only think of it the next time you go out of doors you will perceive it as a revelation and will know that whatever else New York may be it is, at any rate, a color city, and as such it is one that has no rival.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Sarcastic.

A young author, evidently desirous of benefiting by the experience of an older brother craftsman, once asked Richard Henry Stoddard how he had acquired such a mastery of Anglo-Saxon.

"I don't know how I ever did it," replied the poet, who, after a moment's reflection, added, "I think, however, I must attribute it to the fact that I never had any education!"

Seating a New Scheme.

Mr. Tucker—What is it, Tommy? Toothache? Well, we'll go to the dentist tomorrow. Even at your age a boy ought to begin to save his teeth. Tommy—Gee! If I save up enough do I get something for 'em, paw?—Chicago Tribune.

BREVITIES

THE HALL OF FAME.

Judge George E. Ross of Logansport, Ind., sneezed so hard the other day that his hip was dislocated.

As the patron and inventor of the British bank holiday Sir John has earned the popular nickname of "St. Lubbock."

Dr. Edward de la Granja, once a prominent physician, Carlist and reformer, has just died in Boston. He was banished from Spain.

Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland is making plans for another spectacular campaign in Ohio next fall. He proposes to have three motor cars in service instead of one.

S. E. Pettee, the inventor of the first paper bag machine as well as other appliances, has just died in Cleveland. He lived in Philadelphia at one time and later in Bethlehem.

A Russian nobleman named Tcherdadiaff is said to hold the record as a duelist. He is only forty years old, but he has fought eighteen duels and killed eight men without having received a wound.

Tom Burrows, the champion club swinger of the world, has just concluded at Cape Town a performance which breaks all records. He swung a pair of Indian clubs continuously for forty hours and a quarter.

Baron and Baroness von Sternburg have gone to their summer home, The Weirs, N. H. The ambassador will reopen the embassy in October and then will leave on an extensive western tour, going as far as San Francisco.

Detective Sergeant William C. Weller of New York has resigned his office. He admits having $200,000 laid aside and promises that the hardest work he will do for the remainder of his life will be to clip the coupons off his bonds.

General George B. Davis, judge advocate general of the army, has been designated to represent the army at a conference to meet in Geneva, Switzerland, on Sept. 14, for the purpose of considering proposed changes in the Red Cross convention of Aug. 22, 1864.

George W. Vanderbilt contemplates building another model village near his estate at Asheville, N. C. The village will be built about thirty miles from Asheville, and $1,000,000 at least will be expended on the project. Mr. Vanderbilt has already expended about $10,000,000 in western North Carolina.

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Mauve is one of the leading colors this season. The newest sailor hat is made with a slightly rolled brim and immensely large but low crowns.

Shirt waist suits of natural pongee are relieved by piping of same material in scarlet, blue and black.

Linen coats with triple shoulder capes, double breasted front and wide, loose sleeves are much in demand.

Adjustable buttons, with ring or bar fastening, are favorites for shirt waist decoration, four being the regulation for the front.

Turbans or large hats of hyacinth blue and the lighter shades of porcelain blue are worn with costumes of blue voile and etamine.

White linen coats are adorned with passementerie and drop ornaments to match. Those in natural colored linen are set off with trimming in self color or contrasting shades.—Brooklyn Eagle.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

Work on the French National pavilion, a reproduction of the Grand Trianon at Versailles, France, will be begun soon at the world's fair, St. Louis.

Live stock breeders of Canada will make a big display at the world's fair, St. Louis. They have asked for government assistance to the extent of $250,000.

The British National pavilion at the world's fair, St. Louis, will be a reproduction of the orangery or banquet hall of the Kensington palace, in Kensington gardens, London.

Greece will erect a pavilion at the world's fair, St. Louis, and will also make exhibits in several of the different departments. Among the interesting things exhibited will be reproductions of old Greek statuary.

Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association.

The Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association will be held at Gladstone Park near Oregon City, July 14th to 20th inclusive. Rate of one and one-third fare on the certificate plan has been made from all points on Oregon Lines. Special attractions have been provided. "Germaine" the magician, with his wonderful productions; R. J. Burdette, the celebrated humorist, will entertain in his usual delightful manner, while the lectures of Hon. Champ Clark and Hon. J. P. Dooliver will be an intellectual treat.

Many of the attractions have been provided, making the finest entertainment ever given at this Chautauqua.
