Press Comment.

Chicago Chronicle, Gold Democratic:—It is significant of the restored unity of the democratic party that the enthusiasm which has greeted Mr Bryan in the east is if anything exceeded by the popular demonstrations which have attended David B. Hill's appearence in the west.

It is quite evident that the democrats of the west are united in favor of the ticket.

Whatever may have been the case in the past, Mr Hill no longer enters "the enemy's country" when he comes westward. He is in the house of his friends, who honor and admire him.

The reception which was given to Mr Hill at Springfield in this state was undoubtly the most enthusiastic and significant ever witnessed at the state capital. The demonstration at Shelbyville, Ind, was another tribute of which the New York statesman has the right to be proud.

New York World:—In his speech at the great meeting in Madison Square Garden Tuesday Mr Bryan showed conclusively that he is, as The World said some weeks ago, "a new Bryan'—that he has "grown and improved within the last four years," and is "more dignified, more temperate, more respectful in every way of the conservative opinion of the country."

Mr Bryan started with a challenge to the business interests of New York. "I am glad," he said, "to defend our cause in this great centre of population, of industry and of wealth." "We are not opposed," he declared, "to that wealth that comes as the reward of honest toil and is enjoyed by those who give to society something in return for that which society bestows upon them." And he gave the assurance that "no honest industry, no honest occupation, no honest man need fear the success of the democratic party."

The popular demonstration at the various meetings and in the streets was one of the greatest, if not the greatest, ever seen in New York. And Mr Bryan was equal to it.
