NOW

IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY!

To secure a Good Home, Splendid Stock Ranch, or Perfect Summer Grazing Lands at Nominal Prices.

The Coast Land and Livestock Co. having purchased 10,000 acres of the Corvallis and Yaquina Bay wagon road lands, known as "The Coe Lands," have now placed them on the market. These are unimproved lands, and are situated in Benton and Lincoln Counties, along the line of the Corvallis & Eastern R. R. in the best grazing and fruit raising section of western Oregon. Perfect titles, easy terms, prices $1 to $ per acre. M. M. DAVIS, Agt., Corvallis, Oregon.

THEY DRANK POISON.

TWO OPERATORS IN THE McMinnville Telephone Office.

One Well Known in Corvallis, Where She Attended College—Rockefeller to Give Twenty Six Millions to Chicago University.

McMinnville, Or., Jan. 21.—Dependent from reasons unknown to their families or friends, tired of living and determined to die, Naona Ungerman, night telephone operator at McMinnville, and her chum, Mrs. Ollie Gaunt, a divorced woman, drank arsenic in deadly quantities in the telephone office last night, both succumbing today to the effects of the poison. Miss Ungerman called up several operators along the telephone line and told them she and her companion were tired of living and were taking the poison at the time the message was sent. The grim announcement was not believed and those who received the message thought the McMinnville central was indulging in chaffing over the wire.

Both were prominent and popular young women, from the leading families of the town, and had pleasant homes and, so far as is known, no reason existed for their untimely self-destruction. Mrs. Gaunt had been separated from her husband for several months, but none of her friends suspected that her domestic troubles weighed sufficiently heavy on her mind to cause her to contemplate suicide.

The poison was taken about half past 8 o'clock last night. Miss Ungerman had been acting as night operator in the telephone office. She was accompanied to her work by Mrs. Gaunt, and both seemed to be in the best spirits when Mr. Hembree, the proprietor of the store in which the telephone office is situated, left his establishment early in the evening. Mr. Hembree returned to his store about 9 o'clock, and found Mrs. Gaunt standing in the rear door of the building, ill. As she became worse at once, a physician was summoned. Under his direction Mrs. Gaunt was removed to the home of her step-father, T. A. McCourt, while Miss Ungerman walked out unaided and apparently in normal health. In a short time Miss Ungerman was taken ill.

Miss Ungerman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ungerman, highly respected citizens of McMinnville. Mrs. Gaunt was the daughter of Mrs. T. A. McCourt, of this city, and was a general favorite. Mrs. Gaunt formerly lived in Hillsboro, where she was well known.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—The Record-Herald tomorrow will say: It is rumored in faculty circles at the University of Chicago that John D. Rockefeller is contemplating a gift of $26,000,000 in order to see the complete development of the University, according to President Harper's plans and under his direction, within the next few years.

According to the rumor, Mr. Rockefeller wrote to Dr. Harper and asked: "What is required for the completion of the university?"

Dr. Harper replied: "Twenty-six millions and some hundred thousand dollars."

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 21.—Both Houses of the Legislature today unanimously adopted a resolution declaring Rear Admiral Schley to be the rightful hero of the battle of Santiago and "entitled to the unflinching gratitude of his country." The resolution indorses the report of Admiral Dewey in the Schley Court of Inquiry, condemns the majority report and extends a cordial invitation to Admiral Schley to visit Jackson.
