FAIR, BUT FATAL

A Washington correspondent in Wednesday's TIMES, says the open candidacy of Mr Fulton and Mr Simon for the senate is fair for all concerned.

Oregon is full of graveyards wherein are buried the ambitions of candidates who were open and avowed in the fight for United States senatorships.

The fact that Mr Scott bunts the soon without banner or brass band is no sign that he is on a cold trail.

WHO THEY ARE.

And their Subjects, Ages and Other Points—The State Orators.

Orators for the state contest which takes place at Salem March 14th are, State University, Eugene, J. A. Gamber, "Public Opinion." He is 25 years of age, and was a volunteer in the Philippine war.

Pacific College, Newberg, Miss Nervia Wright. Age and subject unknown. Is of striking appearance on the stage, and is bright. She is the only representative of the gentler sex among the contestants.

Agricultural College, Herman Tartar. Is 20 years of age, and graduates next June. He is of fine appearance on the platform, and in the state contest last year, won first place for delivery.

Albany college, Charles B. Sternberg. His subject is the "Martyrdom of man." It deals with the slowness of progress, and mentions war as an element in it, emphasizes the power of individual sacrifice in civilization and suggests a time when there shall be one religion, one people, one nation.

McMinnville college, A E Smith, subject unknown. Chickens Wanted. Highest price paid for healthy young hens and pullets.

TARTER WON.

But Had a Close Second—Many Were There—The Oratorical Contest.

The local oratorical contest occurred Friday night. It was a good contest, the best of the sort that has been held at the college.

Many attended the contest. Almost every student was present. That alone meant an audience of more than 400, and to this was added 300 or 400 townspeople.

The auditorium was handsomely decorated for the occasion. The chief ornamentation was the colors of the various societies, draped and festooned about the ceilings, gallery, lights, stage and elsewhere.

The first speaker was John E. Smith of the Philadelphians. His subject was "Co-operation inevitable." His theme was socialism.

Herman Tartar, O A C's representative last year was second on the programme. His subject was "Our Mission to the Negro," and a plea for the education of the colored race.

Miss Gertrude Ewing represented the sorosis society and took second place, lacking but one and one-half points of tying Mr. Tartar for first.

Miss St. Germain spoke for the Eutopians on the subject of "Scientific Education" and made a good appearance, as did Kerby McLean, who represented the student body.

Prizes, hung up by the various literary societies were taken as follows: Herman Tartar, gold medal and $15; Miss Ewing, gold and silver medal and $9; Edwin Johnson, silver medal and $6.

Revival Meetings.

THE DUTCHMAN'S DOG.

Something Reminds Mr. Farley of It—Supervisors and the Court.

By an act of the legislature of the state of Oregon there was a law passed, electing the supervisors by popular vote. Now it is supposed that the legal voters of any precinct have sufficient intelligence to select a man with sufficient honor to put in an honest bill for his services.

Now comes the county court with a ruling that has been the custom in this county, for some 10 or 15 years that allows the supervisor one day for each 10 days labor performed by the tax payers of his district with certain credits for warning out and such additional time as the court feels disposed to allow.

The court cut down my bill from $66 to $56, and when I objected to taking the $56 in full payment, the court proffered to allow me to put in a bill for extra time for the balance due me, $10.

NO NEW CASES

Little Fear Now of Further Spread—Williams is Rapidly Recovering.

The yellow flag that floats at the Brown house, and occasional false reports that some new patient has broken out with smallpox, is about the only reminder now that the disease is in Corvallis.

Smallpox has ceased to be a topic of conversation. The indignation manifest at Williams for coming to town with the malady is apparently dying out.

The health authorities are not abating their vigilance. The quarantine will not be raised at the Brown house until every vestige of chance is removed.
