They are to occupy the Woodward cottage. Monroe Cameron moved Thursday with his family into his newly purchased home at the northwest corner of Jefferson and Eighth. Captain Vidalis will arrive on Saturday July 12th not Wednesday as first announced, and hold his welcome meeting in Salvation Army Hall. John Whitaker is lame, he stepped heavily from a hay rake 10 days ago, and sprained his knee. The condition of the limb is not improved. Seattle newspapers profess to believe now that Tracy is insane, but are discreetly silent respecting the officers whom the convict continues to outwit. After a visit with her sister Mrs Eugene Simpson Mrs Watson, accompanied by her children, left Tuesday for her home in San Francisco. As delegates of the grand lodge of A O U W and D of H, Nell Newhouse and Mrs Taylor Porter go to Portland Monday. Mrs Gussie Dolph and children and Miss Thorp left Thursday for Newport for the summer. They are to occupy a cottage. Richard Graham and family are camping for a month at Newport. They left the first of the week. They were joined Thursday by Miss Lura Flett. Mrs Pernot, mother of Dr Pernot, and Mrs E F Pernot left Thursday to spend the summer at Newport. They are to occupy the Pernot cottage. Mr and Mrs D C Rose returned Wednesday from McMinnville, where Mr Rose, who is a trustee, went to attend a meeting of the Oregon Fire Relief Association. The Corvallis Flouring Mills has been awarded the contract for supplying flour to the State Insane Asylum and penitentiary for the ensuing year. The amount required is 1,200 barrels. Kratz Cronise returned Wednesday from Salem where he has been visiting relatives for the past three weeks. He was accompanied by his cousin, Ralph Cronise. F L Miller has abandoned former plans for remodeling his house, and is to build a new residence complete. The building, when completed, will be one of the best in town. Unhappy Seattle, with such character and reputation that the Tracys Merrills and other crooks, fleeing from the law select it as their surest and safest asylum. G S O Humbert will occupy the pulpit at the Christian Church next Lords day. At 11 a m he will give an exposition of the "First Psalm. At 8 p m the theme will be: "The Purpose of the Ages." Sunday School at 10 a m, Christian Endeavor at 7 p m. Somebody got mixed in the road near Mack Porter's place Tuesday. A passer-by told of the incident at the TIMES office. The wagon was laden with wool, and as the traveler passed some of the wagon wheels were in mud up to the hub. The name of the victim is not known. A third race between the Tortora horse and the Cook mare was run on the Kiger track Tuesday evening. Like the two former races, it resulted in a victory for the mare. Some horsemen seem to think the horse was not able to do his best in the last race on account of the fall sustained in the second. L R Grimes, of De Moines, Iowa, accompanied by a friend, arrived Tuesday. He has been absent from home six weeks, and is making a trip over the coast, ascertaining the price of land and looking over the country. After a day in Corvallis, he left for Portland Wednesday. Mr Grimes is an old friend of A C White of this city.

Wheat 53. W E Yates went to Portland Thursday. Lice are reported thick on the hop vines in Lane county. Dr and Mrs Harper now occupy the Callahan cottage on 5th street. "She hasent much of a figure has she?" "No but her father has." Charles Wiley and Miss Vida Hart were united in marriage Thursday. Miss Ora Reed left Wednesday after a week's visit with Miss Mildred Linville. John Wiles has been confined at the home of his son Walter with illness for a few days. R S Bryson has succeeded Lot Livermore as librarian for the Pendleton Commercial Association. Miss Anna Denman left yesterday to complete her school at Norfous, of which five weeks yet remain. A force of men are at work on the dam the Corvallis Mills is constructing across Marys River, southwest of town. Cobble: Has Biddle had any trouble with his wife? Stone: I infer so. He calls his home Mount Pelee. E E Wilson has been appointed administrator of the estate of James Marvin Applewhite, and his bond has been fixed at $2,000. James L Skipton, deputy sheriff of Benton county under Sheriff Osburn has been appointed deputy sheriff of Marion county. Hearing upon the petition of L N Edwards guardian for authority to sell real property of the Edwards minor heirs has been continued in the probate court to August 4th. Mrs Rowley mother of Dr Rowley stepped on a wet back porch last Saturday and in the fall that resulted an ankle was badly sprained. She is confined to her bed with the injury. The limb has been for several days in a plaster of Paris mould. Eugene Register: Wallace Chamberlain, a rugged mountaineer of this vicinity, has gone to the scene of Tracy's exploits. If Chamberlain gets a chance at the desperado, "something will be done," for he is a man totally devoid of physical fear and a dead shot. Assessor Bush and Deputy Tartar are busy on the assessment roll at the court house. The assessment save in a few scattering instances is completed, and the work of classifying and correcting the blanks and copying them on the roll is in progress. The roll is now about half done and perhaps a month will be required to complete it. It is expected that Judge Hamilton will be a passenger on the Corvallis & Eastern today, on route to Lincoln county to hold court, which convenes Monday. Prisoner Yergen who has been in the Benton county jail since February will be taken over today, and with him will go a young girl from the Orphans home in Portland who will be a witness against him. From the 17th to the 24th of the current month there is to be a street carnival in Albany. The advertised attractions are a balloon ascension and parachute jump, grand slide for life on wire from the highest available point, high wire bicycling, a troupe of Turkish actors, The South Before the War, introducing life and merriment of slavery days, Edison's Electric Shows, German village and other features. The carnival occurs during the encampment of the Oregon National Guard at Albany. A horse that was lying down rose up in a pasture along the roadside as George Cooper and family drove to Plymouth church last Sunday. The team shied and ran the carriage against a big boulder. A seat in the carriage and its occupants were thrown out. The latter were Misses Robens and Etta Smith and Mr and Mrs Cooper's little daughter. All were bruised by the fall and the child was cut more or less in the upper portion of the ear. The latter wound was dressed by a physician, and the little one is recovering. New real estate transfers filed for record are, L M Mattoon and wife to School District 26, one and a half acres at Summit, $1; Lee Heukle and wife to William McBee, two lots in Philomath, $200; W H McBee and wife to Adella M Neff two lots in Philomath, $475; R W Johnson to Martha Stephens, 12 acres near Albany, $250; F Berchtold and wife to B B Bane lot 4 in block 19 house and lot in Corvallis, $700; W S Huffard and wife to W O Shriver 1 1/2 lots in Wilkins addition, $300; State of Oregon to Anna Augusta Meakin, 40 acres nine miles west of Monroe, $50. W W West, who was assistant auditor under C O Hogue of the old O P in the latter part of the eighties and beginning of the nineties has been in town for several days. He was also in the employ of the company for a time at the Yaquina end of the line, and subsequently was a real estate partner of R F Baker. Mr West is now located at Denver, Colorado, and has there a five acre fruit farm in the suburbs of the city. It is completely surrounded by a big irrigating ditch from which at any time any part of the farmer buildings can be inundated with water. Mr West is out on a visit to old friends, and has gone to Newport for a few days.

LOCAL MINING MEN

A Company with Capital of More Than a Million—Articles Filed. At the clerk's office, The Great Eastern Mining Company has filed articles of incorporation. The incorporators are Horace Lilly, T H Wellsler, August W Fischer, W W Calkins, George Lilly, A K Milner and Lewis Hartley. The capital stock is $1,250,000, divided into 1,250,000 shares of $1 each. Nine hundred thousand shares are to be issued to the incorporation, to be paid for in full by deed to said corporation of certain mines owned by the incorporators in proportion to the value agreed upon by the said incorporators. The remaining 350,000 shares are to be held as treasury stock and are to be sold under the direction of the board of directors, and the proceeds thereof is to be used in the prosecution of the business of the corporation. The principal office is to be at Corvallis, Oregon. The duration of the corporation is to be indefinite. The enterprise, business and occupation in which the corporation is to engage, is the purchasing, owning, leasing, working, operating, buying and selling for profit, mines and mineral claims in Oregon. Also the construction, purchasing, leasing and operation of water ditches and quartz mills, and doing any other thing necessary or convenient to the successful prosecution of the work of mining. The company owns mines in the Bohemia district.

EASTERNERS COMING

An Excursion to Reach Corvallis Monday—The Number is Fifty. An excursion of Eastern people is to visit Corvallis, Monday. The number will be about 50. They will come by the Westside and will arrive about noon. Their prime purpose is to visit the college and they are to be served with lunch at Cauthorn Hall. Afterward they will cross via the Corvallis & Eastern to Albany, and return by the eastside to Portland. The visitors are food and dairy commissioners, and others from the East. They represent 17 of the states of the Union. Some of them are Agricultural College people, notably those whose work is along chemical lines. They have been holding a convention in Portland, and while here are being shown various parts of the state. They spent two days at Astoria. The entertainment in Corvallis is largely provided for. Arrangements have been perfected for ice cream and strawberries, to be sent from Portland. It is arranged for by Food Commissioner Bailey who supplied the means for its purchase. The rest of the luncheon is being provided for by college people and friends. Dr Withycombe is anxious that a number of citizens and their wives meet the visitors during the latter's brief stay and endeavor to make the visit pleasant.

A CURIOUS FIND

By a Sewer Gang—Ran Across two Indian Graves and Queer Relics. A Benton county man now there writes the TIMES of finds made by workmen digging a sewer at Fort Columbia, Washington. Extensive government improvements are in progress there. In the course of excavations, the sewer diggers encountered two Indian graves. On the remains in one of the graves was found a souvenir medal in bronze, bearing the picture of General W H Harrison and the date, 1841. On the other side, in plain letters were the words, "The People's Choice for President." Various other relics were found in the graves, among them a $2.50 gold piece. Also a ring of solid gold. The latter, instead of being round, was octagonal in shape. In both graves, Indian beads of all descriptions were obtained. The Benton county man who writes of the find, is Lee Kennedy, formerly of Summit. Call for Warrants. Notice is here by given that there is money in the treasury to pay all city warrants drawn on the general fund and indorsed prior to July 13 1902. Interest will stop on same on this date. Dated, Corvallis Oregon, July 8 1902. William McLagan, City Treasurer. For Sale. A fine Durham milk cow, fresh. L L Brooks. Posts. Shingles and all kinds of dimension lumber on hand at the Benton County Lumber yard. CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

GOT A THOUSAND

Of Fraternal Order Benefit—Preparing for Deer Hunts—Hol for the Seaside. Mrs W. E. Elliott received a draft Thursday for $1,000 insurance benefit on the life of her late husband, who died a few weeks ago. The draft was from the Degree of Honor order of which he was a member. The Corvallis & Eastern station platform Thursday was a sight to see. It was piled high, wide and deep with camping outfits, cottage belongings and other appliances for seaside life. The moving of the paraphernalia and the meanderings of the crowd at train time made a cheery bustle. The train pulled out of Corvallis with two coaches well filled with passengers, and the baggage and express cars filled to the doors. Various Corvallis sportsmen take to the woods next Monday to be first on hand for deer shooting when the open season is ushered in at dawn Tuesday morning. Two or three parties have already been planned. Samuel Bane left yesterday to take a hunt in Douglas county, where he believes deer to be larger and perhaps more abundant. During the week a number of new rifles and old ones also have been taken out for trial.

HIS PACKAGE

And What it Contained—It Wasn't Laundry—The Heathen Grinned. This is one on Ruthyn Turney. He loves a violin, and is a great performer on that kind of instruments. He went to the laundry the other day. He believed the package he carried was soiled linen to be laundered. When he opened it in the presence of the washee man, the celestial grinned. So did Ruthyn. What they both saw as the package unrolled, was not soiled linen, but Ruthyn's fiddle box. "Ketchum wlong washee," said the heathen. "Yes, ketchum wlong washee," replied Ruthyn, as they grinned again at each other over the fiddle box, on which the well known musician carefully adjusted the paper, and then returned for his real laundry. It will pay you to investigate goods and prices at J H Harris. You can save money.
