Dated Sept. 2, 1902.

New York World: The Dutch government consented to the division of the Povie estate in The Hague valued at $14,000,000, among nine heirs who live in America. Five of the heirs live in Brooklyn, two in the borough of Queens and the other two in the West. The heirs are gathering in New York, and they expect that the property will be handed over to them in a few weeks.

The settlement of the estate is the outcome of a contest inaugurated by the American heirs about twenty years ago. The Dutch government was at first adverse to handing the money over to the American heirs, but they proved their case.

Two of the heirs are Mrs. Catherine Downs and Mrs. Sarah Velsor, of Chester Park, in the borough of Queens. Mrs. Downs is the wife of the caretaker of the Methodist church, at Ozone Park, L. I., and Mrs. Velsor is the wife of a printer. The Brooklyn heirs are Mrs. Ida Johnson, of No. 171 Huron street; Mrs. Emma Moffat, No. 80 Moffat street; Mrs. Augusta Griffiths, No. 171 Bergen street; John A. Wilkinson, No. 316 Greenpoint avenue, and William Wilkayson, of Bradford street and Sutter avenue, in East New York. The Western heirs are Cooks Buell, of Chicago, and Mrs. Louis Tryon, of Quincy, Ill.

The property is to be divided share and share alike and with accrued interest each expects about $1,500,000.

Nicholas and John Povie were the forebears of the lucky Americans who will shortly receive the money from Holland. The family originally came from Alsace-Lorraine and went to settle in Holland in the early part of the last century. They located in the lowlands outside of The Hague and established farms.

The Povie took example from their neighbors and reclaimed most of the property which was under water by building dykes and filling in the land.

A Communication.

MR. EDITOR—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. BROCKMAN, Bagnell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Graham & Wortham.
